Shanghai Diary:

Shanghai Diary Ursula Bacon, 2008-09-30 By the late 1930s Europe sat on the brink of a world war As the holocaust approached many Jewish families in Germany fled to one of the only open port available to them Shanghai Once called the armpit of the world Shanghai ultimately served as the last resort for tens of thousands of Jews desperate to escape Hitler's Final Solution Against this backdrop 11 year old Ursula Bacon and her family made the difficult 8 000 mile voyage to Shanghai with its promise of safety But instead of a storybook China they found overcrowded streets teeming with peddlers beggars opium dens and prostitutes Amid these abysmal conditions Ursula learned of her own resourcefulness and found within herself the fierce determination to survive Shanghai Diary David Ellsworth, 1983 Exile and Everyday Life, 2015-05-19 Exile and Everyday Life focusses on the everyday life experience of refugees fleeing National Socialism in the 1930s and 1940s as well as the representation of this experience in literature and culture The contributions in this volume show experiences of loss strategies of adaptation and the creation of a new identity and life It covers topics such as Exile in Shanghai Ireland the US and the UK food in exile the writers Gina Kaus Vicki Baum and Jean Amry refugees in the medical profession and the creative arts and the Kindertransport to the UK Revealing/Reveiling Shanghai Lisa Bernstein, Chu-chueh Cheng, 2020-08-01 Revealing/Reveiling Shanghai provides international and interdisciplinary perspectives on representations of Shanghai a contested location within political discourse and cultural imagination Shanghai's complex history as a quasi colonial city and its contradictory identity as the birthplace of Communist China and the epitome of twenty first century capitalism make it an especially fascinating subject Contributors examine representations of Shanghai in film art literature memoir theater and mass media from the past one hundred years They address the ways in which texts from the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries have rewritten past and present Shanghai to reflect our own wishes and anguishes show how the city resists static interpretations and challenge notions of authentic representation and identity By revealing and questioning persistent stereotypes and constructed versions of East and West the essays offer diverse views so as to create a genuine exchange with contemporary global audiences A wide variety of texts are discussed including the films Street Angel 1937 and The White Countess 2005 and the novels The Song of Everlasting Sorrow 1996 and Shanghai Baby 1999 Gendered Encounters between Germany and Asia Joanne Miyang Cho, Douglas T. McGetchin, 2016-12-14 This volume provides new insights into gendered interactions over the past two centuries between Germany and Asia including India China Japan and previously overlooked Asian countries including Vietnam the Philippines Thailand and Korea This volume presents scholarship from academics working in the field of German Asian Studies as it relates to gender across transnational encounters in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Gender has been a lens of analysis in isolated published chapters in previous edited volumes on German Asian connections but nowhere has there been a volume specifically dedicated to the analysis of gender in this field Rejecting traditional notions of West and East as seeming polar opposites their contributions to this volume attempts to reconstruct the ways in which German and Asian men and women have cooperated and negotiated the challenge of modernity in various fields

Patrick, 2023-10-19 Examining the stories of diverse Christians in Shanghai this book uses the city as a model to highlight how a minority religion in a city has interacted with other religions as well as social cultural political and economic changes Susangeline Y Patrick illustrates how the history of Shanghai Christians sheds light on why and how Christians have accommodated social and political changes and gives valuable insights into multiculturalism globalization sinicization and ecclesiology The interreligious dialogues between Shanghai Christians and other traditions such as Buddhism Daoism Confucianism Islam and Judaism throughout history provide worthy reflections on the roles of Christians in a multi religious space

Composing for the Revolution Joshua H. Howard, 2020-10-31 In Composing for the Revolution Nie Er and China's Sonic Nationalism Joshua Howard explores the role the songwriter Nie Er played in the 1930s proletarian arts movement and the process by which he became a nationalist icon Composed only months before his untimely death in 1935 Nie Er's last song the March of the Volunteers captured the rising anti Japanese sentiment and was selected as China's national anthem with the establishment of the People's Republic Nie was quickly canonized after his death and later recast into the People's Musician during the 1950s effectively becoming a national monument Howard engages two historical paradigms that have dominated the study of twentieth century China revolution and modernity He argues that Nie Er active in the leftist artistic community and critical of capitalism availed himself of media technology especially the emerging sound cinema to create a modern revolutionary and nationalist music This thesis stands as a powerful corrective to a growing literature on the construction of a Chinese modernity which has privileged the mass consumer culture of Shanghai and consciously sought to displace the focus on China's revolutionary experience Composing for the Revolution also provides insight into understudied aspects of China's nationalism its sonic and musical dimensions Howard's analyses highlights Nie's extensive writings on the political function of music examination of the musical techniques and lyrics of compositions within the context of left wing cinema and also the transmission of his songs through film social movements and commemoration Nie Er shared multiple and overlapping identities based on regionalism nationalism and left wing internationalism His march songs inspired by Soviet mass songs combined Western musical structure and aesthetic with elements of Chinese folk music The songs ideological message promoted class nationalism but his March of the Volunteers elevated his music to a universal status thereby transcending the nation Traversing the life and legacy of Nie Er Howard offers readers a profound insight into the meanings of nationalism and memory in contemporary China Composing for the Revolution underscores the value of careful reading of sources and the author's willingness to approach a subject from multiple perspectives

Government, Imperialism and Nationalism in China Chihyun Chang, 2013-08-06 The Chinese Maritime Customs Service which was led by British staff is often seen as one of the key agents of Western imperialism in China the customs revenue being one of the major sources of Chinese government income but a source much of which was pledged to Western banks as the collateral for and interests payments on massive loans This book however based on extensive original research considers the lower level staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service and shows how the Chinese government struggling to master Western expertise in many areas pursued a deliberate policy of encouraging lower level staff to learn from their Western superiors with a view to eventually supplanting them a policy which was successfully carried out The book thereby demonstrates that Chinese engagement with Western imperialists was in fact an essential part of Chinese national state building and that what looked like a key branch of Chinese government delegated to foreigners was in fact very much under Chinese government control
