Doing Diaspora Missiology Toward "Diaspora Mission Church" Luther Jeom Ok Kim, 2016-01-05 In U.S. Population Projections 2005-2050 Pew Research Center reported that The nation's population will rise to 438 million in 2050 from 296 million in 2005 and fully 82% of the growth during this period will be due to immigrants arriving from 2005 to 2050 and their descendants This shows that it is essential to study and understand how our mission especially in the context of the USA called the nation of immigrants will respond to this huge mobility of immigrant diaspora So far there has been emphasis on doing diaspora missiology however there is no practical implications and application in local church setting Now mission is next door which implies that the ministry of the local church should be emphasized for 21st contemporary mission This book provides detailed frameworks and methods of diaspora missiology within local churches called diaspora mission church According to the Bible all human beings are theologically and spiritually diaspora irrespective of ethnicity because they were banished from the Garden of Eden and scattered around the world in God's judgment Now they walk toward the encounter with Jesus Christ preach the gospel as the seed of Kingdom and finally move toward heaven Loving God, Loving Neighbor Peggy Kendall; Claire Smith; Tim Ke, 2008-04-01 In almost every congregation there is a searching youth who is somehow different from the rest one who thinks more deeply asks more questions and wants to make a difference in the world This young person may be seen as a loner an upstart or someone who does not fit Youth workers may not know what to do with these inquisitive youth and a youth program that meets the congregation's expectations probably won't connect with the needs and interests of searching youth Eventually searching youth turn into searching adults who continue to stir things up and enrich the life of our congregations with their questions insights witness and service These young people have the capacity and ability to provide significant leadership in our congregations now and in the future Because of their unique gifts we are offering this book as a resource for pastors teachers and youth leaders who work with them In this book faculty members students and recent graduates of Saint Paul School of Theology look through the eyes of their academic disciplines and ministry experience to explore the foundations for ministry with searching youth and to offer designs for your ministry
