Sharing Heavens Music The Heart Of Christian Preaching:

Sharing Heaven's Music Barry L. Callen, 1995 Offered in honor of James Earl Massey Sharing Heaven's Music is a collection of thought provoking essays on Christian preaching its methods meaning and message Contributors include William Pannell William Willimon Gail O Day David Buttrick Frederick Norris Cheryl Sanders Ronald Allen Justo Gonzalez among others Also contains a bibliography of Massey's work Sharing heaven's music : the heart of Christian preaching : essays in honor of James Earl Massey Barry L. Callen (ed), 1995 Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Contemporary African American preaching P3040, L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim-Cragg, 2021-02-11 In Postcolonial Preaching HyeRan Kim Cragg argues that preaching is the act of dropping the stone of the Gospel into a lake making waves to move hearts and transform the world wounded by colonial violence The ripple effect serves as a metaphor and acronym to guide to preaching that takes postcolonial concerns seriously Rehearsal Imagination Place Pattern Language and Exegesis RIPPLE Kim Cragg explains each ripple in this approach and exercise of creating and delivering sermons The author delivers fresh insights while drawing on some traditional homiletical perspectives in the service of a homiletic that takes the reality of racism migration and environmental degradation seriously Moreover Kim Cragg demonstrates the postcolonial sermon in action by including annotated homilies This book contributes to the very first wave of the application of postcolonial scholarship in preaching Given the continuing extent and influence of colonial worldviews and legacies this approach should become a staple in preaching over the next generation The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01 Preaching is not as simple as it may appear The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching they often do not know where to begin Who are the best representatives of a given approach How do the different methods relate to one another How has the preaching scene changed in recent years In The Web of Preaching Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching Surveying the most important current theories of preaching he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching This book is a follow up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987

Preaching Through Time Casey C. Barton, 2017-07-28 As preachers who come to the pulpit before God and before God's people each and every week how do we make sense of the text as we live a new moment of its ongoing story Most options available to the preacher necessitate a hermeneutical step that requires us to preach outside of time in timeless truths experiences or realities But the gospel is the drama of God appearing to and working with and loving God's people in time Preaching Through Time gives the preacher a timely homiletic for preaching together the times of God's gospel then and now while calling God's people to perform their own roles in today's moment of that gospel drama Anachronism preaching together the moments of God's drama is the language event that will get us from text to timely sermon week by week

Handbook of Contemporary Preaching, 2nd Edition Michael Duduit, 2024-07-15 The revised and updated 2nd edition of Handbook of Contemporary Preaching is a comprehensive textbook on preaching and teaching the Bible Pastors will be better equipped after reading and learning from some of the most notable scholars and pastors on the topic of preaching

The Jagged Journey Barry L. Callen, 2018-05-15 It's the most important subject in Christianity It reveals who God is how God works how we mature as followers of Jesus and how we are to conduct ourselves in this sinful world The subject is suffering To explore it biblically and inspirationally is to identify the basic elements of a responsible Christian theology that's more than a set of pious abstractions This subject forces us close to where we hurt doubt believe and relate to our neighbors God suffers Jesus cries The tears of God are the deepest meaning of our history God's problem is not that God is not able to do certain things but that God loves The cross of Jesus was in God's heart before it appeared on Golgatha The pain of God is the healing of humanity The cross the worst of human doing and the best of divine revelation clarifies that we must die to really live We must share in the sufferings of Jesus

Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A. Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C

Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life
