Sharing Jesus in the Two Thirds World Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1984 Seeking the Asian Face of Jesus Chris Sugden, 1997 Sharing Jesus in the Two Thirds World Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 1983 Theology without Borders Leo D. Lefebure, 2022-06-01 Peter C Phan's contributions to theology and pioneering work on religious pluralism migration and Christian identity have made a global impact on the field The essays in Theology without Borders offer a variety of perspectives across Phan's fundamental work providing an overview for anyone interested in his body of work and its influence Transformation After Lausanne Al Tizon, 2008 Lausanne 74 inspired evangelicals around the world to take seriously the full implications of the Gospel for mission This was especially true of a worldwide network of radical evangelical mission theologians and practitioners whose post Lausanne reflections found harbour in the notion of Mission as Transformation This missiology integrated evangelism and social concern like no other and it lifted up theological voices coming from the Two Thirds World to places of prominence This book documents the definitive gatherings theological tensions and social forces within and without evangelicalism that led up to Mission as Transformation And it does so through a global local grid that points the way toward greater holistic mission in the 21st century BOOK JACKET Mission from the Margins David A. Shank, 2019-05-14 David A Shank has been reflecting on the mission of the church from an Anabaptist perspective for more than half a century His writings represent among the best biblical theological and missiological study on the matter shaped by two primary contexts Europe and Africa where his ministry took place This collection will be of particular interest to global church leaders wanting to know more about how to contextualize the gospel message to mission and church historians interested in examining how missiological thought and practice evolves over time and to pastors students and mission workers seeking insights from a wise elder as they serve the church through its mission efforts in the twenty first century Mission as Transformation Vinay Samuel, Chris Sugden, 2009-03-06 Centered on the rule of Christ over the whole of life explores multiple aspects of holistic ministry including proclamation evangelism and social transformation Jesus and the Gospel in Africa Kwame Bediako, 2004 A Gospel for the Poor David C. Kirkpatrick, 2019-04-11 In 1974 the International Congress on World Evangelization met in Lausanne Switzerland Gathering together nearly 2 500 Protestant evangelical leaders from more than 150 countries and 135 denominations it rivaled Vatican II in terms of its influence But as David C Kirkpatrick argues in A Gospel for the Poor the Lausanne Congress was most influential because for the first time theologians from the Global South gained a place at the table of the world's evangelical leadership bringing their nascent brand of social Christianity with them Leading up to this momentous occasion after World War II there emerged in various parts of the world an embryonic yet discernible progressive coalition of thinkers who were embedded in global evangelical organizations and educational institutions such as the InterVarsity Christian Fellowship the International Fellowship of Evangelical Students and the International Fellowship of Evangelical Mission Theologians Within these groups Latin Americans had an especially strong voice for they had honed their theology as a religious minority having defined it against two perceived ideological excesses Marxist inflected Catholic liberation theology and the conservative political loyalties of the U S Religious Right In this context transnational conversations provoked the rise of progressive evangelical politics the explosion of Christian mission and relief organizations and the infusion of social justice into the very mission of evangelicals around the world and across a broad spectrum of denominations Drawing upon bilingual interviews and archives and personal papers from three continents Kirkpatrick adopts a transnational perspective to tell the story of how a Cold War generation of progressive Latin Americans including seminal figures such as Ecuadorian Ren Padilla and Peruvian Samuel Escobar developed named and exported their version of social Christianity to an evolving coalition of global evangelicals Renewing the Evangelical Mission Richard Lints,2013-05-26 The culture story of evangelicalism during the second half of the twentieth century has been well told It is important now to think about the theological mission of the church in an ever increasing post Christian and post partisan context What is the theologian s calling at the beginning of the third millennium How do global realities impact the mission of evangelical theology What sense can be made of the unity of evangelical theology in light of its many diverse voices Contributors Os Guinness Michael S Horton Richard Lints Bruce McCormack Mark Noll J I Packer Gary Parrett Rodney Peterson Cornelius Plantinga Tite Tienou Kevin J Vanhoozer Adonis Vidu and Miroslav Volf
