Derbyshire, revised by Clare Hartwell. A new edition covering Pevsner's 'county of contrasts', replacing Elizabeth Williamson's revision of 1978. Enhanced and updated accounts of Derbyshire's great mansions – Bolsover, Chatsworth, Haddon, Hardwick, Kedleston – are accompanied by greatly enriched surveys of the county's diverse inheritance of lesser houses, its pioneering (and often spectacular) industrial sites, its multifarious towns and villages, and its distinctive and rewarding traditions of church-building, tomb sculpture and ironwork.

Warwickshire, revised by Chris Pickford. The first full-scale revision of Pevsner's 1966 volume, written by an author born in the county. Famous for the attractions of world-renowned Stratford-on-Avon, Warwickshire is also rich in other historic villages and towns. The new edition supplements and enhances Pevsner's assessments, offering fresh perspectives on major buildings such as Warwick Castle and Rugby School, the contributions of distinguished architects in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, and the celebrated post-war rebuilding of Coventry.

Lanarkshire and Renfrewshire by Rob Close, John Gifford and Frank Arneil Walker. With the publication of this book, covering two of the least known Scottish counties, the Buildings of Scotland series is complete. No other volume can claim such diversity, from the cottages and churches of the deeply rural villages of Clydesdale to the medieval abbey at the centre of Paisley in Renfrewshire, from the great port of Greenock on the Clyde to the former steel and iron towns of the Lanarkshire coalfield. In the model weaving village of Robert Owen's New Lanark and the post-war New Town of Cumbernauld, the region can also boast planned settlements of international significance.

Pevsner Introductions complement the familiar Guides, providing accessible, engaging accounts of buildings by type and theme. The first two volumes, Houses and Churches, were published in March 2016.

Written by the joint editors of the Guides, and distilling years of experience, these are books for anyone who would like to understand more about England's architectural history. Lavishly illustrated and clearly written, the texts explain key components, stylistic changes, regional variations, and vocabulary. Readers can evaluate dates and phases, and interpret historic developments. A companion volume, a redesigned and expanded edition of the popular Pevsner's Architectural Glossary, was published in October.

Readers and users of our books owe a great debt to Sally Sawesem, publisher of the Pevsner series at Yale from 2002, who left the company in September 2016. New publications during Sally's time amount to twenty-nine revised Buildings of England volumes, seven of the Buildings of Scotland, four of the Buildings of Wales and two of the Buildings of Ireland, ten paperback City Guides, the launch of the Introductions series and Glossary, and the associated glossary app. She has our very best wishes for all her future plans.

Our website www.yalebooks.co.uk/pevsner.asp provides more information about the series, work in progress and recent publications. You can order volumes directly, and keep up to date with special offers and other news.

Books, Buildings and Social Engineering Alistair Black, Simon Pepper, Kaye Bagshaw, 2017-05-15 Public libraries have strangely never been the subject of an extensive design history Consequently this important and comprehensive book represents a ground breaking socio architectural study of pre 1939 public library buildings A surprisingly high proportion of these urban civic buildings remain intact and present an increasingly difficult architectural problem for many communities The book thus includes a study of what is happening to these historic libraries now and proposes that knowledge of their origins and early development can help build an understanding of how best to handle their future A Social History of Sheffield Boxing, Volume I Matthew Bell, Gary Armstrong, 2021-02-20 A Social History of Sheffield Boxing combines urban ethnography and anthropology sociological theory and place and life histories to explore the global phenomenon of boxing Raising many issues pertinent to the social sciences such as contestations around state regulation of violence commerce and broadcasting pedagogy and elite sport and how sport is delivered and narrated to the masses the book studies the history of boxing in Sheffield and the sport s impact on the cultural political and economic development of the city since the 18th century Interweaving urban anthropology with sports studies and historical research the text expertly examines a variety of published sources ranging from academic papers to biographies and from newspaper reports to case studies and contemporary interviews In Volume I Bell and Armstrong construct a vivid history of boxing and probe its cultural acceptance in the late 1800s examining how its rise was inextricably intertwined with the industrial and social development of Sheffield Although Sheffield was not a national player in prize fighting s early days throughout the mid 1800s many parochial scores and wagers were settled by the use of fists By the end of the century boxing with gloves had become the norm and Sheffield had a valid claim to be the chief provincial focus of this new passion largely due to the exploits of George Corfield Sheffield s first boxer of national repute Corfield s deeds were later surpassed by three British champions Gus Platts Johnny Cuthbert and Henry Hall Concluding with the dual themes of the decline of boxing in Sheffield and the city's changing social profile from the 1950s onwards the volume ends with a meditation on the arrival of new migrants to the city and the processes that aided or frustrated their integration into UK life and sport

Media Building Will Mari, Carole O'Reilly, E. James West, 2025-10-11 This book brings together leading scholars to interrogate the enduring and evolving relationship between journalism mass communications and the built environment From the emergence of the first newspapers media buildings have provided their producers and consumers with a definable shape and served as key nodes in the urban geography of communications At the same time the changing form and function of media buildings has both reflected and reified transformations in modern journalism and mass communication

A Social History of Sheffield Boxing, Volume II Matthew Bell, Gary Armstrong, 2021-01-04 A Social History of Sheffield Boxing combines urban ethnography and anthropology sociological theory and place and life histories to explore the global phenomenon of boxing Raising many issues pertinent to the social sciences such as contestations around state regulation of violence commerce and broadcasting pedagogy and elite sport and how sport is delivered and narrated to the masses the book studies the history of boxing in Sheffield and the sport's impact on the cultural political and economic development of the city since the 18th century Interweaving urban anthropology with sports studies and historical research the text expertly examines a variety of published sources ranging from academic papers to biographies and from newspaper reports to case studies and contemporary interviews In Volume II Bell and Armstrong examine the revival of Sheffield boxing after the decline of the 1950s and 1960s outlined in Volume I Instigated by two men from outside the city Brendan Ingle and Herol Graham this renaissance became known as the Ingle style which between 1995 and 2014 produced four world champions Naseem Hamed Johnny Nelson Junior Witter and Kell Brook These successes inspired others and raised Sheffield's profile as a boxing city which in the 1990s and 2000s produced two more world champions in Paul Silky Jones and Clinton Woods In this second volume Bell and Armstrong track the resurgence of boxing to the present day and consider how the game and its players have changed over time
