Plummer, 2010-02-24 This is an illustrated history of the extraordinary Anglo American Wheelwright family In 1636 an outspoken Puritan Reverend John Wheelwright left his native Lincolnshire and headed for the new Boston Bay Colony His stay in Massachusetts would be short lived Persecuted and banished Reverend John went on to found two New England towns and a dynasty which now spans six continents The Wheelwrights have produced explorers engineers clerics consuls and a family of cannibals There are philanthropists philanderers psychoanalysts scientists soldiers and sailors A sea captain became a pirate A lawyer became a gold digging sportsman and a kidnapped child was transformed from Puritan to Catholic mother superior The Wheelwright s story complete with black sheep and skeletons a plenty spans four centuries Hundreds of illustrations and family charts drawn from years of research bring 580 pages of this most remarkable family s history to life Ecotherapy Howard Clinebell,2013-12-19 Here is a trailblazing book on issues of vital interest to the future of humankind Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth sheds light on humankind s most serious health challenge ever how to save our precious planet as a clean viable habitat As a guide for therapists health professionals pastoral counselors teachers medical healers and especially parents Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth highlights readers strategic opportunities to help our endangered human species cope constructively with the unprecedented challenge of saving a healthful planet for future generations Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth introduces readers to an innovative approach to ecologically grounded personality theory spirituality ecotherapy and education The book shares the author s well developed theories and methods of ecological diagnosis treatment and education so professionals and parents our most influential teachers can rise to the challenge of saving our planet Readers will find that the book helps them accomplish this goal as it explores an expanded ecologically grounded theory of personality development the missing dimension in understanding human identity formation outlines a model for doing ecologically oriented psychotherapy counseling medical healing teaching and parenting describes life saving perspectives for making one s lifestyle more earth caring demonstrates the importance of hope humor and love suggests how these earthy approaches may be utilized in a variety of social contexts and cultures A systematic theory and practice guidebook Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth fills a wide gap in both the counseling and therapy literature and the ecology literature It offers an innovative model for fulfilling the ecological circle between humans and nature with three action dimensions These are self care by being intentionally nurtured by nature spiritual enrichment by enjoying the transcendent Spirit in nature and responding by nurturing nature more responsibly and lovingly The theories and practical applications presented in the book come together to explore long overlooked issues at the boundary between human health and the health of the natural environment Psychotherapists health professionals and teachers pastoral counselors and other clergy who counsel and teach laypersons who are parents and grandparents and individuals and groups interested in environmental issues will find Ecotherapy Healing Ourselves Healing the Earth essential for approaching the long neglected earthy roots of the total human mind body spirit organism Advanced Autogenic Training and Primal Awareness James Endredy,2016-07-18 A step by step guide to optimize health reconnect with Nature and access the vast knowledge of the universe through autogenic training Provides step by step instructions for 40 autogenic and primal mind techniques Explains how to add healing affirmations and visualizations to autogenic practice as well as work with colors and chakras Includes techniques to restore our primal connection to the world of Nature through practices such as Forest Bathing Nature's Breath and Feeling in the Dark Developed by German doctor Johannes Schultz in the early 20th century autogenic training teaches you how to use the mind body connection to influence and regulate the body's normally involuntary autonomic functions by passively tapping into your central and peripheral nervous systems Often used for stress relief autogenic training can also be used for asthma chronic pain migraines constipation anxiety panic attacks and a host of other conditions In this book James Endredy takes autogenic training to a new level revealing how to use AT practices to optimize health as well as reawaken your senses reconnect with Nature and tap into the vast knowledge and power of the universe Beginning with the 7 standard formulas of AT the author provides step by step instructions for 40 AT and primal mind techniques He explains how to add specific healing affirmations and visualizations to your AT practice as well as how to work with colors and the chakras He offers advanced trainings to rekindle your primal touch sensitivity experience enhanced sight and hearing and awaken your primal sense of smell He reveals how to use AT to restore our primal connection to the world of Nature through practices such as Forest Bathing Nature's Breath and Primal Fire Connection Drawing on more than 25 years of experience living and working with indigenous cultures including the Huichol Iroquois Sioux Maya and Hopi Endredy shows how much like a vision quest this unique combination of AT and primal mind awareness offers rites of passage sorely missing from modern life It gives you the tools to go deeper into your physiological being to directly experience how we relate to the world and to reconnect with the ancient wisdom within each of us

The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers

James Karman, 2011-10-12 The 1930s marked a turning point for the world Scientific and technological revolutions economic and social upheavals and the outbreak of war changed the course of history The 1930s also marked a turning point for Robinson Jeffers both in his career as a poet and in his private life The letters collected in this second volume of annotated correspondence document Jeffers rising fame as a poet his controversial response to the turmoil of his time his struggles as a writer the growth and maturation of his twin sons and the network of friends and acquaintances that surrounded him The letters also provide an intimate portrait of Jeffers relationship to his wife Una including a full account of the 1938 crisis at Mabel Dodge Luhan's home in Taos New Mexico that nearly destroyed their marriage

Deep California Craig

Chalquist, 2008-06 California has been invaded by three imperial powers Spain Mexico and the United States Deep California examines in depth the lingering psychological traumas and motifs emanating from that long history of conquest These unhealed events have not been left in the past they recur symbolically again and again growing in intensity as the overbuilt land and its distracted occupiers unconsciously but definitively demonstrate that environmental justice and social justice can no longer be thought of as separate Pacing crusaders and colonizers from county to county along El Camino Real Deep California studies the lingering impact of continuous oppression of people and places as images and themes of displacement and exile filter down into architecture agriculture politics art culture psychology and even folklore and dream Yet within the shadows cast over California also dwell resistance humor irony tragedy and hope for more heartfelt and soulful connections to this story rich land of the sundown sea History is an inadequate term for such a sweeping and deep discovery of how the past informs the present This work deserves to be read widely by all Californians and Americans and taken to heart and the hard lessons applied to all places we inhabit on this stolen land Lesley Thomas author of Flight of the Goose Far Eastern Press 2005 A monumental and much needed study in depth of the conquest occupation traumatization and animation of the mission cities and counties of coastal California places which have worked their way into our unsuspecting psyches Linda Buzzell MA MFT co editor of Ecotherapy Healing with Nature in Mind Sierra Club Books 2009 Natural State Steven Gilbar,1998-04-28 This is the first anthology of nature writing that celebrates California the most geographically diverse state in the union Readers be they naturalists or armchair explorers will find themselves transported to California s many wild places in the company of forty noted writers whose works span more than a century Divided into sections on California s mountains hills and valleys deserts coast and elements earth wind and fire the book contains essays diary entries and excerpts from larger works including fiction As a prelude to the collection editor Steven Gilbar presents two California Indian creation myths one a Cahto narrative and the other an A juma wi story as told by Darryl Babe Wilson Familiar names appear in these pages John Muir Robert Louis Stevenson John McPhee M F K Fisher Gretel Ehrlich but less familiar writers such as Daniel Duane Margaret Millar and John McKinney are also included Among the gems in this treasure trove are Jack Kerouac on climbing Mt Matterhorn Barry Lopez on snow geese migration at Tule Lake Edward Abbey on Death Valley Henry Miller on Big Sur and Joan Didion on the Santa Ana winds Gary Snyder s inspiring Afterword reflects the spirit of environmentalism that runs throughout the book Natural State also reveals the many changes to California s landscape that have occurred in geological time and in human terms More than a book of nature writing this book is superb writing about nature

Sandplay: the Image Speaks for Itself Lenore Steinhardt,2025-09-18 Every sandtray is filled with symbolic meaning the key is learning what there is to read and how to read it This book emphasizes the importance of visual imagery and meticulous observation to interpret sandplays allowing practitioners to find the authentic meanings in clients sandplay expression before applying theory or referring to a patient s history It also explores the impact of the environment on creative work both in the therapist s studio and externally Detailed case studies exemplify the themes of each chapter from practical considerations such as restricted budgets the sand trays and the physical objects in the sand tray to the conceptual interactions between developmental play myth human experience art and nature and the symbolic representations that form sandplay journeys Whether you re an experienced sandplay therapist or just starting your training this book will guide you in reading the symbolic elements of your clients work that support their therapeutic journey Citizen Scientist Mary Ellen Hannibal,2016-09-06 A San Francisco Chronicle Best Book of the Year Intelligent and impassioned Citizen Scientist is essential reading for anyone interested in the natural world A Nautilus Award Winner in Ecology and Environment Award winning writer Mary Ellen Hannibal has long reported on scientists efforts to protect vanishing species But it was only through citizen science that she found she could take action herself As she wades into tide pools spots hawks and scours mountains she discovers the power of the heroic volunteers who are helping scientists measure and even slow today s unprecedented mass extinction Citizen science may be the future of large scale field research and might be our last best hope for solving myriad environmental predicaments Library Journal our planet s last best hope Inspired by the likes of marine biologist Ed Ricketts Hannibal records starfish die offs meets the geeks who track deforestation and plans a web based supercommunity of citizen scientists to counter what many are calling the sixth great extinction A cogent call to action Nature Hannibal s use of details verges on the sublime East Hampton Star A celebration of nonexperts contributions to science Scientific American
