Long Journey Home The:

The Long Journey Home Maudy G. Testro-Meijer, 2024-08-19 The story of Harry and Christine Meijer on its face is not unique Throughout history countless individuals have endured immense physical and psychological trauma as a result of war and authoritarian regimes These tyrannical leaders motivated by a desire for absolute control and subjugation of the population inflicted immense suffering upon civilian populations Born in a country under colonial rule Harry and Christine in their formative years were undoubtedly marked by a confluence of economic and cultural challenges However the true crucible of their lives emerged at the dawn of their adulthood when they were confronted with adversities of unimaginable magnitude Their narrative encompasses the reality of lingering PTSD suffered by Harry and Christine which significantly impacted their nine children during tumultuous migrations across three continents demanding constant adaptation to unfamiliar cultures and languages Despite facing these significant hardships the remarkable resilience and ultimate triumph over adversity stands as a powerful testament to the human spirit s capacity for perseverance Grounded in meticulous historical detail and enriched with poignant anecdotes this work offers readers the opportunity to glean novel insights into the hardships endured by millions in the South Pacific during World War II and also serves as a source of inspiration for overcoming their own challenges

The Long Journey Home Don Coldsmith, 2002-05-19 A Native American track star training for the Olympics in the early part of the 1900s meets 1912 gold medal winner Jim Thorpe and Bill Pickett the black cowboy who invented steer wrestling

THE LONG JOURNEY HOME (The Lanterncup Series) Marcus Tay, 2016-04-12 12 years old Author Marcus Tay The Lanterncup series 3 Ian and the Crystal Recovered Squad had made it alive to their destination the Shadow Clan territory They are highly vulnerable because they are not indigenous and seen as a threat But a big question is would Shadow Clan accept their gift the Lost Crystal of Len Soon Ian realizes they are under the control of The Haunter already and are too late They leave and start on the trek back to Yart But it is not easy due to The Haunter chasing after them In this novel there is a rising action that will lead to the last straw How far will they put their lives in danger for the sake of each other What is the price for a pure sacrifice How much can they withstand the forces of evil The trip back will be a very tough one

The Long Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs s Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison s Look Me in the Eye Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story A poet and teacher by profession Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own and her struggle to regain her sanity Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the fa ade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism misogyny repressed homosexuality and suicide She met her husband John Robison in college and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry Yet her husband s alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis and the eventual disintegration of their marriage took a tremendous toll on their family Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager and her younger son Chris who later renamed himself Augusten never completed high school When Margaret met Dr Rodolph Turcotte the therapist who was treating her husband she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness her shortcomings as a parent her difficult marriage her traumatic relationship with Dr Turcotte and her two now famous children Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family She also writes inspiringly about her hard earned journey to sanity and clarity An astonishing and enduring story The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth century family The Long Journey Home Pasquale De Marco,2025-08-10 In The Long Journey Home Pasquale De Marco embarks on a journey of self discovery and transformation Through a series of thought provoking essays Pasquale De Marco explores the challenges and triumphs we face along the path of life With wisdom and compassion Pasquale De Marco shares insights into the nature of the human experience From the depths of despair to the heights of joy Pasquale De Marco navigates the complexities of the human heart and mind This book is a guide for those who seek to live a more meaningful and fulfilling life It is a call to adventure a journey into the unknown and a promise of hope Pasquale De Marco draws upon personal experiences and ancient wisdom to illuminate the path of self discovery Each essay delves into a different aspect of the human journey offering practical tools and insights for navigating the challenges we face Whether you are seeking to overcome adversity find your purpose or simply live a more authentic life this book will provide guidance and inspiration It is a roadmap for the soul a companion for the weary traveler and a beacon of light in the darkness Through Pasquale De Marco s words you will discover the power within you to create a life of meaning and joy This book is an invitation to embark on a journey of self discovery and transformation It is a journey that will change your life forever If you like this book write a review The Long Journey Home Martha Dunn,2015-03-25 The memoirs of Martha Dunn a young German Red Cross nurse as she journeyed from Vienna to her home in the Black Forest during the immediate aftermath of World War II in Allied occupied Germany and Austria The Long Journey Home Andrew J. The Long Journey Home from Dak To Warren M. Denny, 2003-08-03 The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth War is not a game Combat wasn't this fantasy for him in real life This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade His platoon was very unlucky in the June November 1967 campaign as the Fire Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe to toe against a better prepared army and survive The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans While his observations may be controversial to some vets it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there
