Master the Marathon Ali Nolan,2021-09-14 A must have for any woman targeting the distance Runner s World A no nonsense interactive guide that empowers all women at all levels to run their strongest best marathon ever As recently as 1966 women were forbidden to run in the marathon Professionals including doctors believed it was physically impossible and dangerous for women to run more than a mile and a half But as with many other barriers women have faced over time we fought our way in Today women make up almost half of the marathoning population Yet most marathon training manuals are written by men And while these men are experts when it comes to how men can and should train women need training programs tailored to our bodies to our unique strengths and weaknesses so that we can avoid injuries and run at our peak The programming in this book was created by a woman specifically for women Master the Marathon is a comprehensive guide to marathon training for women at all levels of running beginner intermediate and advanced The book takes you through everything you need to know to be prepared for the 26.2 miles of the marathon including detailed training plans strength training programs building your mental awareness of your physical body nutrition guidance on finding the best marathon for you identifying and avoiding potential injuries inspirational advice and other unexpected pieces of wisdom Both incredibly practical and deeply motivating Master the Marathon will help you unlock the strength and determination inside you to embark on the spectacular journey that is the marathon Improving Sports Performance in Middle and Long-Distance Running Joanne Fallowfield, David M. Wilkinson, 1999-10-25 This text addresses the physiological demands of middle and long distance running and presents the reader with research on running physiology It explores the limitations to running performance and the methods used to monitor it The Longest Race Ed Ayres, 2013-08-20 Chronicles the author's running of the iconic JFK fifty mile ultramarathon while also examining the author's thoughts about how the skills necessary for marathon running can also be applied to the human race's survival on the planet Modern Training and Physiology for Middle and Long-Distance Runners John Davis, 2013-05-14 Explains the practical aspects of exercise physiology and modern coaching including energy systems the aerobic and anaerobic thresholds VO2 max running economy muscle fibers and more In addition it covers how these ideas should inform both your day to day workouts and the underlying philosophy that forms the foundation of your training program Long Distance Running and Training Alfred A. Shrubb, 1909 14 Minutes Alberto Salazar, John Brant, 2013-04-09 In 2007 after collapsing on a practice field at the Nike campus champion marathoner Alberto Salazar's heart stopped beating for 14 minutes Over the crucial moments that followed rescuers administered CPR to feed oxygen to his brain and EMTs shocked his heart eight times with defibrillator paddles He was clinically dead But miraculously Salazar was back at the Nike campus coaching his runners just nine days later Salazar had faced death before but he survived that and numerous other harrowing episodes thanks to his raw physical talent maniacal training habits and sheer will as well as he strongly believes divine grace In 14 Minutes Salazar chronicles in spellbinding detail how a shy skinny Cuban American kid from the suburbs of Boston was transformed into the greatest marathon runner of his era For the first time he reveals his tempestuous relationship with his father a former ally of Fidel Castro his early running life in high school with the Greater Boston Track Club his unhealthy obsession to train through pain the dramatic wins in New York Boston and South Africa and how surviving 14 minutes of death taught him to live again The Looniness of the Long Distance Runner Russell Taylor, 2001 The Looniness of the Long Distance Runner is one comparatively unfit 39 year old Londoner's humorous account of his attempt to run the New York marathon from scratch. He chose the pre Thanksgiving race in the Big Apple to avoid adding to his ordeal by having to train during the British winter. Inspired by the charity running of friends, Russell Taylor set himself the challenge of doing what Pheidippides first had done. But to spare himself the post event trauma of trying to extract money from the reluctant grasp of his sponsors, he decided to write a book about his experiences and donate the royalties to charity instead. This book follows our intrepid road runner from the treadmills of a north London gymnasium via his first tentative fun run to the mean streets of the Bronx, Queens and Manhattan. Along the way we encounter indescribably tasteless isotonic drinks, sweaty singlets, sports injuries, personal bests, split times, anxious queuing for the public toilets and an unfeasibly large quantity of bananas. We also discover what lurks within the breast of the endurance athlete: an unreasonable hatred of his fellow runner except the nubile females of the species; a contempt for the idiocy of stadium announcers; and a strange fear of spectators who line the route inanely shouting 'Keep Going' by way of encouragement. The narrative is interspersed by jocular reviews of films about running, not least The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner, and a tongue-in-cheek description of the history of the marathon from its Ancient Greek origins to its modern day revival as an Olympic event. Written with considerable panache and a self-deprecating sense of humour, this illuminating tale of obsessive and foolhardy sporting endeavour will make entertaining reading for, in descending order of athletic accomplishment, manic ultra marathon runners, dedicated pavement pounders, occasional joggers and the simply curious alike.

A Study Guide for Grace Paley's "The Long-Distance Runner" Gale, Cengage Learning, The Long Distance Runner's Guide to Injury Prevention and Treatment Brian J. Krabak, Grant S. Lipman, Brandee L. Waite, 2017-10-03. For any runner who loves hitting the pavement and conquering half, full and ultra marathons, getting injured is a terrifying and often heartbreaking setback. Yet almost three quarters of long distance runners will suffer from a serious injury several times in their athletic career. Although it may be impossible to completely avoid injury, The Long Distance Runner's Guide to Injury Prevention and Treatment is a vital source to help those who love to run understand some of the most common causes of injuries and learn how to best avoid and treat athletic ailments. In this book, expert editors and long time runners Brian Krabak and Grant Lipman combine valuable insights, tips and tactics from over a dozen medical professionals who specialize in treating endurance athletes. With chapters on important and diverse topics such as proper nutrition, muscular ailments, skeletal injuries, medical illnesses caused by racing and proper recovery, The Long Distance Runner's Guide to Injury Prevention and Treatment is a must have on the shelf of every harrier.

The Science and Practice of Middle and Long Distance Running Richard Blagrove, Philip Hayes, 2021-03-29. The popularity of distance running as a sport and a recreational activity is at an all time high. Motivated by the desire to achieve a personal best, remain healthy or simply complete an event, distance runners of all ages and abilities actively seek out advice from experienced coaches and sport scientists. Fishpool,Michael Spilling,2011-08-15 Provides an introduction to training for long distance running covering such topics as choosing running shoes balancing dietary needs using warm up exercises protecting oneself from injury and running schedules with different levels of difficulty The Loneliness of the Long-Distance Runner Alan Sillitoe,2016-04-19

Nine classic short stories portraying the isolation criminality morality and rebellion of the working class from award winning bestselling author Alan Sillitoe The titular story follows the internal decisions and external oppressions of a seventeen year old inmate in a juvenile detention center who is known only by his surname Smith The wardens have given the boy a light workload because he shows talent as a runner But if he wins the national long distance running competition as everyone is counting on him to do Smith will only vindicate the very system and society that has locked him up The Loneliness of the Long Distance Runner has long been considered a masterpiece on both the page and the silver screen Adapted for film by Sillitoe himself in 1962 it became an instant classic of British New Wave cinema In Uncle Ernest a middle aged furniture upholsterer traumatized in World War II now leads a lonely life His wife has left him his brothers have moved away and the townsfolk treat him as if he were a ghost When the old man finally finds companionship with two young girls whom he enjoys buying pastries for at a caf the local authorities find his behavior morally suspect Mr Raynor the School Teacher delves into a different kind of isolation that of a voyeuristic teacher who fantasizes constantly about the women who work in a draper s shop across the street When his students distract him from his lustful daydreams Mr Raynor becomes violent The six stories that follow in this iconic collection continue to cement Alan Sillitoe s reputation as one of Britain s foremost storytellers and a champion of the condemned the oppressed and the overlooked This ebook features an illustrated biography of Alan Sillitoe including rare images from the author s estate

A World History of Long Distance Running (1880-2002) Roberto L. Quercetani, 2002 Track and Field Athletics is the most universally known and practised of all sports Its modern forms first emerged for the most part around 1860 in Great Britain and USA Its coming of age was accelerated with the revival of the Olympic Games Athens 1896 and the foundation of the IAAF International Amateur Athletic Federation in Berlin 1913 The latter is the governing body of the sport with over 200 affiliated countries still with the same letterhead which now stands for International Association of Athletics Federations Long distance running has always been a very important section of the sport This book recounts the history of the two longest distances on the track programme 5000 and 10000 metres Each chapter covers a given period and brings back to life the outstanding figures in their multiform human competitive and technical aspects Women s long distance running has a relatively short history which is also related in detail As in most of RLQ s works throughout the book one finds interesting asides devoted to sundry episodes emanating from the myriad of aspects of this most varied of sports
