The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Fall of the Argosi Sebastien de Castell,2021-10-14 A brilliant story of adventure wit and philosophy from the origins of the SPELLSLINGER series to enrapture devotees as well as newcomers alike New to the ways of the Argosi the tribe of wandering philosophers who seek to defeat evil by wit and guile Ferius Parfax encounters a hideous plague the Red Scream Highly contagious caught by the hearing of a deadly verse it turns its victims into mindless monsters that destroy all human life they come into contact with With the help of a deaf boy whom she has saved from two horrifying victims of the plague she sets out to find the source of the Red Scream and overcome its terrifying power Along the way she is joined by another Argosi Rosie who purports to be so much wiser and more adept than Ferius but who turns out to have her own dark secrets Peopled with extraordinary characters and gut wrenching drama Ferius s story teaches her hard lessons about the limits of the Argosi s ways Readers will delight not just in this amazing masterclass in plot pacing and narrative drive but in the seemingly bottomless well of wit thought and wisdom that the story brings up and that has changed lives down the ages It takes the reader on a journey like no other Paperbound Books in Print ,1971-07 Proceedings of the Koninklijke Nederlandse Akademie van Wetenschappen. Series B,

Palaeontology, geology, physics, and chemistry ,1985 The Westminster Review ,1874 The Foreign Quarterly Review ,1874 Flirting with Death Corinne Masur,2018-05-20 This volume covers a much neglected topic the avoidance by psychotherapists and psychoanalysts of the topic of their own mortality and that of their patients All too often the psychotherapist or psychoanalyst who is ill is unable to confront this reality in the presence of her patient and fails to prepare the patient for the most permanent goodbye death This volume includes nine essays which consider why the psychotherapist and psychoanalyst may find illness mortality retirement and termination so difficult This volume is a collection of essays by psychoanalysts covering the denial of death amongst psychotherapists and psychoanalysts and the effect on clinical practice the effect of early childhood confrontation with mortality on the professional development of psychoanalysts illness in the analyst the death of patients and termination and retirement as symbolic harbingers of death Authority in Byzantium Pamela Armstrong,2016-12-05 Authority is an important concept in Byzantine culture whose myriad modes of implementation helped maintain the existence of the Byzantine state across so many centuries binding together people from different ethnic groups in different spheres of life and activities Even though its significance to understanding the Byzantine world is so central it is nonetheless imperfectly understood The present volume brings together an international cast of scholars to explore this concept The contributions are divided into nine sections focusing on different aspects of authority the imperial authority of the state how it was transmitted from the top down from Constantinople to provincial towns how it dealt with marginal legal issues or good medical practice authority in the market place whether directly concerning over the counter issues such as coinage weights and measures or the wider concerns of the activities of foreign traders authority in the church such as the extent to which ecclesiastical authority was inherent or how constructs of religious authority ordered family life the authority of knowledge revealed through imperial patronage or divine wisdom the authority of text though its conformity with ancient traditions through the Holy scriptures and through the authenticity of history exhibiting authority through images of the emperor or the Divine The final section draws on personal experience of three great authorities within Byzantine Studies Ostrogorsky Beck and Browning

Celestial Wonders in Reformation Germany Ken Kurihara, 2015-10-06 Celestial phenomena were often harnessed for use by clerics in early modern Germany Kurihara examines how and why interest in these events grew in this period how the clergy exploited these beliefs and the role of sectarianism in Germany at this time

Heavenly Sustenance in Patristic Texts and Byzantine Iconography Elena Ene D-Vasilescu, 2018-10-22 This book examines ideas of spiritual nourishment as maintained chiefly by Patristic theologians those who lived in Byzantium It shows how a particular type of Byzantine frescoes and icons illustrated the views of Patristic thinkers on the connections between the heavenly and the earthly worlds The author explores the occurrence and geographical distribution of this new type of iconography that manifested itself in representations concerned with the human body and argues that these were a reaction to docetist ideas The volume also investigates the diffusion of saints cults and demonstrates that this took place on a North South axis as their veneration began in Byzantium and gradually reached the northern part of Europe and eventually the entirety of Christendom

Stemmata Latinitatis Nicholas Salmon, 1796

Hesychasm and Art Anita Strezova, 2014-09-01 Although many of the iconographic traditions in Byzantine art formed in the early centuries of Christianity they were not petrified within a time warp Subtle changes and refinements in Byzantine theology did find reflection in changes to the iconographic and stylistic conventions of Byzantine art This is a brilliant and innovative book in which Dr Anita Strezova argues that a religious movement called Hesychasm especially as espoused by the great Athosite monk St Gregory Palamas had a profound impact on the iconography and style of Byzantine art including that of the Slav diaspora of the late Byzantine period While many have been attracted to speculate on such a connection none until now has embarked on proving such a nexus The main stumbling blocks have included the need for a comprehensive knowledge of Byzantine theology a training in art history especially iconological semiotic and formalist methodologies extensive fieldwork in Macedonia Bulgaria Serbia Greece Turkey and Russia and a working knowledge of

Greek Old Church Slavonic Macedonian Russian Serbian Latin as well as several modern European languages French German Russian and Italian These are some of the skills which Dr Strezova has brought to her topic Professor Sasha Grishin AM FAHA Adjunct Professor of Art History School of Literature Languages and Linguistics The Australian National University
