Genreflecting Diana Tixier Herald, Samuel Stavole-Carter, 2019-05-24 Librarians who work with readers will find this well loved guide to be a treasure trove of information With descriptive annotations of thousands of genre titles mapped by genre and subgenre this is the readers advisor's go to reference Next to author genre is the characteristic that readers use most to select reading material and the most trustworthy consideration for finding books readers will enjoy With its detailed classification and pithy descriptions of titles this book gives users valuable insights into what makes genre fiction appeal to readers It is an invaluable aid for helping readers find books that they will enjoy reading Providing a handy roadmap to popular genre literature this guide helps librarians answer the perennial and often confounding question What can I read next Herald and Stavole Carter briefly describe thousands of popular fiction titles classifying them into standard genres such as science fiction fantasy romance historical fiction and mystery Within each genre titles are broken down into more specific subgenres and themes Detailed author title and subject indexes provide further access As in previous editions the focus of the guide is on recent releases and perennial reader favorites In addition to covering new titles this edition focuses more narrowly on the core genres and includes basic readers advisory principles and techniques United States Army

Combat Forces Journal , 1952 The Pleasures and Horrors of Eating Marion Gymnich, 2010-09-15 Browsing through books and TV channels we find people pre occupied with eating cooking and competing with chefs Eating and food in today's media have become a form of entertainment and art A survey of literary history and culture shows to what extent eating used to be closely related to all areas of human life to religion eroticism and even to death In this volume early modern ideas of feasting banqueting and culinary pleasures are juxtaposed with post 18th and 19th century concepts in which the intake of food is increasingly subjected to moral theological and economic reservations In a wide range of essays various images rhetorics and poetics of plenty are not only contrasted with the horrors of gluttony they are also seen in the context of modern phenomena such as the anorexic body or the gourmandizing le corps humain. It is this vexing binary approach to eating and food which this volume traces within a wide chronological framework and which is at the core not only of literature art and film but also of a flourishing popular culture. National Union Catalog, 1978 Includes entries for maps and atlases

The Captain's Table Richard Gordon, 2014-07-01 William Ebbs is made Captain of a luxury liner and quickly encounters the first night dinner the dangers of finding a woman in his room the embarrassing presence of the company's largest shareholder and a passenger overboard as well as blackmail This is a tale of nautical misadventure and mayhem packed with rib tickling humour.
