Jones,2002-06-03 A Grammar of Christian Faith is a two volume set that aims to confront the widespread disarray in the language and practices of Christian faith today As a grammar it explains how Christian faith provides special ways of speaking and acting that make sense of human life by giving it meaning practicality and hope It advances the thesis that learning how to speak Christian language in worship and life is crucial to learning how to be a Christian Rather than supposing that Christian language and theology need continual updating in order to be relevant to the world Jones urges the church to recover anew how Christian concepts and understanding are intended to form Christian life in all its rich depths Construing theology as confessional theology in the context of the church Jones understands the church as that liberative and redemptive community called into being by the Gospel of Jesus Christ to witness in word and deed the triune God for the benefit of the world The full range of doctrinal themes that are deemed essential to the witness of the church are explored including clear explanations of why they are essential and how they are to be understood In pursuit of a truthful and beneficial witness of the church the work centers on a trinitarian understanding of God in which God freely and lovingly interacts with the world as Creator Reconciler and Redeemer The work throughout affirms the belief that the gracious triune God is the Ultimate Companion who will redeem all creation The Sound of Life's Unspeakable Beauty Martin Schleske,2020-04-14 Christianity Today Book Award in Culture and the Arts 2021 In the final analysis music is prayer cast into sound One of the greatest luthiers of our time reveals the secrets of his profession and how each phase of handcrafting a violin can point us toward our calling our true selves and the overwhelming power and gentleness of God's love Schleske explains that our world is flooded with metaphors parables and messages from God But are we truly listening Do we really see Drawing upon Scripture his life experiences and his insights as a master violinmaker Schleske challenges readers to understand the world ourselves and the Creator in fresh ways The message of this unique book is mirrored in sensitive photographs by Donata Wenders whose work has appeared in prominent newspapers and magazines including The New York Times Rolling Stone and Esquire as well as museums and galleries throughout the world Like a Child Rev.
