Fighting Talk Bob Jones,2013-08-16 From A Low Blow to Went the Distance a fascinating and lively examination of the regular use of terms from the boxing ring in our everyday language Have you ever stopped to notice how often your local newspaper or favourite magazine uses the terms On the Ropes The Gloves Are Off and Knockout Punch How often TV newsreaders will say that a politician has Thrown His hat in the Ring is a Big Hitter is Taking it on the Chin is Down for the Count or has the Killer Instinct Knight of the realm leading businessman colourful and controversial commentator and boxing aficionado Sir Robert Bob Jones certainly has Over a period of years he made careful note of how often terms cropped up and then retraced their etymological origins in boxing history The result is a lively entertaining and thought provoking miscellany of boxing terms that are now part of our everyday English language Some have strayed far from their original meanings others are more frequently in use now than at any other time Jones asks why that might be and his answers are well a knockout

Historical Dictionary of Boxing John Grasso, 2013-11-14 Boxing is one of the oldest sports in the world reaching back to the Ancient Greeks although it has become popular only in the past century or so But in some ways it is a rather complicated sport since to avoid unnecessary harm it has been endowed with rules to keep it clean referees to see the rules are obeyed and organizations to regulate the sport Boxing was once largely amateur although the professional bouts attracted the most attention but now it is also an Olympic sport And over the years there has been one champion after another who symbolized what boxing was all about such Joe Louis Mohammad Ali and Cassius Clay Naturally these champions are the focus of the Historical Dictionary of Boxing as well and they have the biggest entries in the dictionary section but they had to fight against someone and there are dozens and dozens of other boxers with smaller entries More of these boxers come from the United States than elsewhere but there are others from Europe Asia and Latin America and there are also entries on the major boxing countries as well Plus entries on the rules on the organizations and on the technical terminology and jargon you have to know just to follow the bouts The introduction provides a broad view of boxing s history while the chronology traces events from 688 B C to 2012 A D Not all that much has been written on boxing that is not ephemeral but much of that literature can be found in the bibliography This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the sport of boxing Third Man in the Ring Mike

Fitzgerald, Patrick J. Morley, 2013-02-01 Collects anecdotes from thirty three of boxing s most notable referees about their time in the ring their experiences with boxing stars and some of their individual achievements Primo Carnera Joseph S. Page, 2014-01-10 At over six and a half feet tall and nearly 300 pounds heavyweight champion Primo Carnera was a giant for his times but today the Ambling Alp is too often written off as an unskilled oaf and a product of the mob dealings that plagued boxing during the 1930s He may not have been a natural in the ring but he worked as hard as any boxer to learn his craft to be in top condition and he repeatedly showed that he was tougher than nails This biography details Carnera s early life and boxing career his success as a fighter as well as accusations of fight fixing his strengths and limitations in the ring and his later career as a wrestler A Dictionary of the English Language Joseph Emerson Worcester, 1860 New York

War of Intervention in Angola Adrien Fontanellaz,José Matos,Tom Cooper,2020-11-23 War of Intervention in Angola Volume 3 covers the air warfare during the II Angolan War fought 1975 1992 through narrating the emergence and operational history of the Angolan Air Force and Air Defence Force FAPA DAA as told by Angolan and Cuban sources Most accounts of this conflict better known in the West as the Border War or the Bush War as named by its South African participants tend to find the operations by the FAPA DAA barely worth mentioning A handful of published histories mention two of its MiG 21s claimed as shot down by Dassault Mirage F 1 interceptors of the South African Air Force SAAF in 1981 and 1982 and at least something about the activities of its MiG 23 interceptors during the battles of the 1987 1988 period On the contrary the story told by Angolan and Cuban sources not only reveals an entirely different image of the air war over Angola of the 1980s indeed it reveals to what degree this conflict was dictated by the availability or the lack of air power and shows that precisely this issue dictated the way that the commanders of the Cuban contingents deployed to the country whether as advisors or as combat troops planned and conducted their operations It is thus little surprising that the first contingent of Cuban troops deployed to Angola during Operation Carlota in late 1975 included a sizeable group of pilots and ground personnel who subsequently helped build up the FAPA DAA from virtually nothing They continued that work over the following 14 years sometimes in cooperation of Soviet advisors and others from East European countries eventually establishing an air force that by 1988 maintained what South African military intelligence and the media subsequently described as the most advanced air defense system in Africa Not only the air defense system in question but also the aircraft serving as its extended arms ultimately managed a unique feat in contemporary military history they enabled an air force equipped with Soviet made aircraft and trained along the Soviet doctrine to establish at least a semblance of aerial superiority over an air force equipped with Western made aircraft and operating under a Western doctrine Based on extensive research with help of Angolan and Cuban sources the War of Intervention in Angola Volume 3 traces the military build up of the FAPA DAA in the period 1975 1992 its capabilities and its intentions Moreover it provides a unique blow by blow account of its combat operations and experiences The volume is illustrated with 100 rare photographs half a dozen maps and 15 color profiles thus providing a unique source of reference on
