Unusual Suspects Gilles Paquet,2022-08-10 Unusual Suspects Essays on Social Learning looks into the forces at work that have undermined critical thinking and sound intellectual inquiry in the world of public affairs in Canada have fostered reductive perspectives and destructive blockages to collaborative governance to emerge and have succeeded in blinding observers to the real sources of the present Canadian malaise blocking the road to imaginative repairs Part I deals frontally with the twilight of critical thinking that has led to a dramatic weakening of the critical examination of issues and the process of inquiry that has been significantly weakened by ever narrower perspectives Part II focuses on two mental prisons the obsessive and reductive insistence on a quantophrenic twist only that which can be quantified counts and the failure by crucial partners to live up to the requirements of their burden of office in circumstances when disloyalty considerably enfeebles the possibility of effective collaborative governance and the chance for organizations to succeed Part III suggests that it is not impossible to get rid of the blinders preventing the adoption of more synoptic approaches and the exploration of more imaginative designs to repair our organizations and institutions Ways to deal with the challenges facing the Canadian socio economy are hinted at and the work of a successful social architect showcased The conclusion makes the case for an approach that is both synoptic and guided by reasonableness against the dogmas of disciplines and skimpy rationality

Warren,2023-01-24 Character Made in the Image of God is a revelatory look at the true meaning of character Jesus Christ is described as the express image of the person of God in Hebrews 1 3 The words express image are a translation of the Greek word charakter. Hence we understand that the image of God is the character of God. We were all made in His image according to Genesis 1:26. Therefore the express purpose of our creation was to be the earthly representation of the character of God. In these pages you will discover what that means for us today.

Reliability and Alliance Interdependence Iain D. Henry, 2022-05-15. In Reliability and Alliance Interdependence, Iain D. Henry argues for a more sophisticated approach to alliance politics and ideas of interdependence. It is often assumed that if the United States failed to defend an ally then this disloyalty would instantly and irrevocably damage US alliances across the globe. Henry proposes that such damage is by no means inevitable and that predictions of disaster are dangerously simplistic. If other allies fear the risks of military escalation more than the consequences of the United States abandoning an ally then they will welcome, encourage and even praise such an instance of disloyalty. It is also often assumed that alliance interdependence only constrains US policy options but Henry shows how the United States can manipulate interdependence to set an example of what constitutes acceptable allied behavior. Using declassified documents, Henry explores five case studies involving US alliances with South Korea, Japan, the Republic of China, the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand. Reliability and Alliance Interdependence makes a substantial contribution to our understanding of how America's alliances in Asia function as an interdependent system.

The Black Hole of Public Administration Ruth Hubbard, Gilles Paquet, 2010. In The Black Hole of Public Administration, experienced public servant Ruth Hubbard and public administration iconoclast Gilles Paquet sound a wake up call to the federal public service. They lament the lack of serious play going on in Canada's public administration today and map some possible escape plans. They look to a more participatory governance model, open source governing or small government as a way to liberate our public service from antiquated styles and systems of governing.

Faith Negotiating Loyalties Stephen W. Martin, 2008. Faith Negotiating Loyalties draws readers into the world of Christian faith in South Africa and the question of loyalties in the new post-apartheid state. It carries out its investigation in two parts. Part one examines Christian faith and loyalty during the first nation building exercise following the South African War, positioning the creation and contestation of three Christianities corresponding to three nationalisms, each of which imagined South Africa in a particular way, shaping faith accordingly. The idea of an undifferentiated South African Christianity gives way to contesting and contested Christianities; nationalism gives way to nationalisms and faith emerges in tension with and in criticism of these loyalties. Part two discusses the American theologian H. Richard Niebuhr in South Africa. Three kinds of faith in his writings are set forth: social faith, racial faith and reconstructing faith. Contextualized within the South African story, Niebuhr's ideas suggest self and society as constituted by hybridities and suspended in a web of loyalties. Faith Negotiating Loyalties suggests the message for faith in a post-apartheid South Africa is the importance of negotiating covenants which allow for crossings, hybridities and contestations.

Exits, Voices and Social Investment Keith Dowding, Peter John, 2012-04-12. Examines how people's investment or stake in their communities affects the provision of public services.
