Carpentry and Building in Late Imperial China Ruitenbeek,2021-09-13

This is a study of the world of carpenters and joiners discussing both the technical and the ritual and religious aspects of building The heart of the book is an annotated translation of the fifteenth century carpenter s manual Lu Ban jing Numerous illustrations further enhance the value of this book Architecture, Ritual and Cosmology in China Xuemei Li,2023-05-31

Drawing on the author s extensive fieldwork in the Dong areas in southwest China this book presents a detailed picture of the Dong s buildings and techniques with new insights into the Dong s cosmology and rituals of everyday life meshed with the architecture and the symbolic meanings It examines how the buildings and techniques of the Dong are ordered and influenced by the local culture and context The timber bridges and drum towers are the Dong s most prominent architectural monuments Usually built elaborately with multiple roofs these bridges and drum towers were designed and maintained by the local carpenters who also built the village suspended houses in an oral tradition carried down from father to son or to apprentice They were funded entirely by the local people and the bridges tend to be built in places without great pressure of traffic or another bridge already existing close by Why does such great expense go into the Dong s buildings with elaboration How were they built And what do they mean to their users and builders This book is an anthropological study on the Dong s architecture and technique and it aims to contribute a discourse on the interdisciplinary research area It is suitable for graduate and postgraduate readers Educational Innovation Through Technology Qingtang Liu,Jing Lei,Liming

Zhang,Yantao Wei,2025-08-19 The volume CCIS 2600 constitutes the refereed post conference proceedings of the 13th International Conference of Educational Innovation through Technology EITT 2024 Macau China during November 8 10 2024 The 17 revised full papers and 7 short papers presented in these proceedings were carefully reviewed and selected from 78 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections AI Powered Educational Innovation Tech Enhanced Curriculum Teaching Innovations and AI driven Learning Analytics Assessment Reconstruction Designs of Lost Ancient Chinese Machinery Hong-Sen Yan,2007-11-18

South pointing chariots walking machines and the astronomical mechanical clock are all used as illustrated examples in this fascinating and unique study of lost machinery in ancient China This is the first book of its kind combining creative mechanism design methodology with mechanical evolution and variation theory to set out how some ancient designs can be recreated Furthermore the book reflects on how age old wisdoms could stimulate stunning new machinery in the future Euclid in China Engelfriet,2021-11-01

As part of the Jesuits programme of introduction to European culture in 1607 the Elements of Euclid 300 BC were translated for the first time into Chinese The translation of this epoch making ancient Greek textbook on deductive geometry meant a confrontation of contemporary Chinese and European cultures Part I of Peter Engelfriet s work deals mainly with the European and Chinese backgrounds part II with linguistic and textual matters In part III the manner in which learned Chinese tried to integrate this new knowledge into their own Chinese mathematical and cultural traditions comes to the fore This fascinating work explores in depth and at various levels the circumstances and mechanisms that shaped the transmission of a key work of science from one language and cultural context onto another Consequently it offers often surprising insights into the ways of intercultural exchange and misunderstandings Coming to Know Nancie Atwell,1990 Grade level 3 4 5 6 7 8 p e i s t

International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Cultures of Knowledge ,2011-11-14 Looking at knowledge transmission as a cultural feature this book isolates and examines the individual factors that affect knowledge in the making and created uniquely Chinese cultures of knowledge The volume is organized into four sections Internode Imperial Court Agora and Scholarly Arts Each has a theoretical introduction followed by two core contributions from experts in Chinese history The section concludes with a reflection by a historian of Western Technology who scrutinizes each sphere and identifies the points that reflect universal technological experience The combination of broadly sketched theoretical introductions and detailed core contributions provides an unparalleled insight into pre modern Chinese history from the Song to early Qing dynasty revealing Chinese attitudes towards innovation and invention

Chinese Studies in the Netherlands ,2013-12-09 The Netherlands have a long and proud history in Chinese studies This volume collects not only articles that trace the historical development of Chinese studies in the Netherlands from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present and beyond but also studies that deal with Dutch research in specific disciplines within Chinese studies Chinese studies in the Netherlands originated from the needs of the Dutch colonial administration in the Dutch East Indies but developed a strong philological emphasis in the first part of the twentieth century to turn increasingly towards disciplinary research on modern and contemporary China in the last few decades Contributors include Leonard Bluss Maghiel van Crevel Barend ter Haar Albert Hoffst dt Wilt Idema Mark Leenhouts Oliver Moore Frank Pieke and Rint Sybesma My Wife is a Ghost Wang Cai,2020-09-09 Since I was a child my fate had been strange The fortune teller said that this was basically death In order to let this little life of mine breathe a little more Grandpa made a ghost bride out of the girl he married from a young age I did survive but with this damned girl pestering me everyday it s practically a fate worse than death The Fear of Witchcraft and Witches in Imperial China Barend Ter Haar,2025-01-27 In historical surveys of witches and witchcraft the Chinese case is surprisingly absent This book intends to fill that gap Traditional China had at least two different strands of fear directed at women and sometimes also men The fear of witches harming people through figurines remained limited to individual social and personal conflicts for instance between women competing for the attention of their partner or a carpenter and his customers There was usually a clear winning party The fear of witches using animal or demon familiars to harm members of their own community indiscriminately led to social exclusion or worse The Confusions of Pleasure Timothy Brook,1998 The Ming dynasty was the last great Chinese dynasty before the Manchu conquest in 1644 During that time China not Europe was the centre of the world The author examines the changing landscape of life over the three centuries of Ming 1368 1644 Venture Into Cultures Carla Diane Hayden,1992 Identifies resources for children and adults and presents ideas for programs about seven cultural groups

Henri Bertin and the Representation of China in Eighteenth-Century France John Finlay,2020-07-09 This is an in depth study of the intellectual technical and artistic encounters between Europe and China in the late eighteenth century focusing on the purposeful acquisition of information and images that characterized a direct engagement with the idea of China The central figure in this story is Henri L onard Bertin 1720 1792 who served as a minister of state under Louis XV and briefly Louis XVI Both his official position and personal passion for all things Chinese placed him at the center of intersecting networks of like minded individuals who shared his ideal vision of China as a nation from which France had much to learn John Finlay examines a fascinating episode in the rich history of cross cultural exchange between China and Europe in the early modern period and this book will be an important and timely contribution to a very current discussion about Sino French cultural relations This book will be of interest to scholars in art history visual culture European and Chinese history author David Wang posits a theory the New Virtualism which links current trends in computational design with long standing Chinese philosophical themes The book also assesses twentieth century Chinese architecture through the lenses of positivism consciousness phenomenology and linguistics structuralism and poststructuralism Illustrated with over 70 black and white images this book establishes philosophical baselines for assessing architectural developments in China past present and future

Singing on the River Igor Iwo Chabrowski,2015-08-25 Singing on the River by Igor Chabrowski based on Sichuan boatmen s work songs haozi explores the little known world of mentality and self representation of Chinese workers from the late 19th century until the outbreak of the Second Sino Japanese War 1937 Chabrowski demonstrates how river workers constructed and interpreted their world work and gender in context of the dissolving social cultural and political orders Boatmen asserted their own values bemoaned exploitation and imagined their sexuality largely in order to cope with their low social status Through studying the Sichuan boatmen we gain an insight into the ways in which twentieth century nonindustrial Chinese workers imagined their place in the society and appropriated without challenging them the traditional values

Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World Stephen H. Whiteman,2023-04-25 Courts and societies across the early modern Eurasian world were fundamentally transformed by the physical technological and conceptual developments of their era Evolving forms of communication greatly expanded mobility the spread of scientific knowledge and the emergence of an increasingly integrated global economy all affected how states articulated and projected visions of authority into societies that in turn perceived and responded to these visions in often contrasting terms Landscape both reflected and served as a vehicle for these transformations as the relationship between the land and its imagination and consumption became a fruitful site for the negotiation of imperial identities within and beyond the precincts of the court In Landscape and Authority in the Early Modern World contributors explore the role of landscape in the articulation and expression of imperial identity and the mediation of relationships between the court and its many audiences in the early modern world Nine studies focused on the geographical areas of East and South Asia the Islamic world and Europe illuminate how early modern courts and societies shaped and were shaped by the landscape including both physical sites such as gardens palaces cities and hunting parks and conceptual ones such as those of frontiers idealized polities and the cosmos The collected essays expand the meaning and potential of landscape as a communicative medium in this period by putting an array of forms and subjects in dialogue with one another including not only unique expressions such as gardens paintings and manuscripts but also the products of rapidly developing commercial technologies of reproduction especially print The volume invites a deeper and more nuanced understanding of the complexity with which early modern states constructed and deployed different modes of landscape for different audiences and environments Contributors Robert Batchelor Seyed Mohammad Ali Emrani John Finlay Caroline Fowler Katrina Grant Finola O Kane Anton Schweizer Larry Silver Stephen H Whiteman

The Oxford History of Science Iwan Rhys Morus,2022-12-29 Histories you can trust The first part of the book tells the story of science in both East and West from antiquity to the Enlightenment from the ancient Mediterranean world to ancient China from the exchanges between Islamic and Christian scholars in the Middle Ages to the Chinese invention of gunpowder paper and the printing press from the Scientific Revolution of sixteenth and seventeenth century Europe to the intellectual ferment of the eighteenth century The chapters that follow focus on the increasingly specialized story of science since end of the eighteenth century covering experimental science in the laboratory from Michael Faraday to CERN the exploration of nature from intrepid Victorian explorers to twentieth century primatologists the mapping of the universe from the discovery of Uranus to Big Bang theory the impact of evolutionary ideas from Lamarck Darwin and Wallace to DNA and the story of theoretical physics from James Clark Maxwell to Quantum Theory and beyond A concluding chapter reflects on how scientists have communicated their work to a wider public from the Great Exhibition of 1851 to the internet in the early twenty first century
