Altsheler,2020-09-28 A tall well favoured youth coming from the farther South boarded the train for Richmond one raw gusty morning He carried his left arm stiffly his face was thin and brown and his dingy uniform had holes in it some made by bullets but his air and manner were happy as if escaped from danger and hardships he rode on his way to pleasure and ease He sat for a time gazing out of the window at the gray wintry landscape that fled past and then having a youthful zest for new things looked at those who traveled with him in the car The company seemed to him on the whole to lack novelty and interest being composed of farmers going to the capital of the Confederacy to sell food wounded soldiers like himself bound for the same place in search of cure and one woman who sat in a corner alone neither speaking nor spoken to her whole aspect repelling any rash advance Prescott always had a keen eye for woman and beauty and owing to his long absence in armies where both these desirable objects were scarce his vision had become acute but he judged that this lone type of her sex had no special charm Tall she certainly was and her figure might be good but no one with a fair face and taste would dress as plainly as she nor wrap herself so completely in a long brown cloak that he could not even tell the colour of her eyes Beautiful women as he knew them always had a touch of coquetry and never hid their charms wholly Prescott s attention wandered again to the landscape rushing past but finding little of splendour or beauty it came back by and by to the lone woman He wondered why she was going to Richmond and what was her name She too was now staring out of the window and the long cloak hiding her seemed so shapeless that he concluded her figure must be bad His interest declined at once but rose again with her silence and evident desire to be left alone Don Juan Richard Mansfield,1891 The Greatest Works of Joseph Alexander Altsheler Joseph Alexander Altsheler,2023-12-09 In The Greatest Works of Joseph Alexander Altsheler readers are invited to explore a comprehensive collection that showcases Altsheler's mastery in historical fiction and adventure storytelling This anthology includes his enduring narratives set against the backdrop of the American Civil War and pockets of American history demonstrating Altsheler's unique ability to blend meticulous research with thrilling plots and vibrant characterizations His prolific use of dramatization coupled with vivid descriptions allows readers to immerse themselves in the tumultuous events of the past offering both entertainment and an education in the historical context of 19th century America Joseph Alexander Altsheler was born in 1862 and raised in Kentucky a region that was deeply affected by the Civil War undoubtedly influencing his literary themes He worked as a journalist before turning to fiction a career path that honed his narrative skills Altsheler's extensive reading and interest in history prompted him to weave tales that often celebrate American ideals and the spirit of adventure providing readers with both engaging plots and moral reflections This anthology is essential for readers who appreciate historical narratives that are rich in detail and character development Altsheler's ability to engage with complex themes of loyalty and honor makes his work relevant today This compilation will enlighten both fans of historical fiction and newcomers seeking a deeper understanding of American heritage

The Works of the British Poets with Prefaces, Biographical and Critical, by Robert Anderson Robert Anderson,1795 A Complete Edition of the Poets of Great Britain ,1794 The Voice of the Century Massimo Zicari,2022-04-29 The fields of performance studies empirical musicology and the musicology of recordings have seen a tremendous development in recent years shedding new light on the recent history of our performing tradition and conveying essential information to music practitioners critics and audiences This innovative work considers the notion of bel canto and the manner in which this vibrant tradition lives in the records of Luisa Tetrazzini 1871-1940 one of the most celebrated sopranos ever Tetrazzini whose discographic career includes about 120 recordings belongs to that generation of inspirational performers who heralded the dawn of a new era of music appreciation alongside such iconic figures as Enrico Caruso Adelina Patti and Nellie Melba Drawing on a vast body of scholarship and a number of contemporary reviews Massimo Zicari establishes Tetrazzini's role in the Italian operatic tradition and its much disputed set of performing conventions His transcriptions of her recorded interpretations from Rossini Donizetti Bellini and Verdi will prove invaluable to singers and conductors interested in a tradition that goes back to legendary figures such as Jenny Lind and Maria Malibran The author also discusses her voice quality and technique tempo flexibility her use of vibrato and portamento features of musical performance that question several widely held normative views about aesthetics and interpretative tradition The volume includes eighty eight musical examples and its closing section consists of the vocal scores of thirteen operatic arias The musical material both examples and transcriptions is entirely original This unique approach seeks to combine an academic perspective with the making of the music in the hope that the plea for originality may be enhanced by models from the past The Apocalypse of Ruairi Roe

Mary McGowan,2005 On the thirtieth anniversary of his parents deaths when he was seven years old Ruairi Roes does what he always does on this day he takes out a photo of his mother and makes a wish that he will see her one more time On this anniversary God grants it Ruairi falls asleep A little girl leads him to a place called the depository where the angel Sirreal is waiting to meet him At the top of the building is the library guarded by the Keeper Bookbook which contains all the Books of Life of each of the Inhabitants Seeing Ruairi there they rebel and seek out their own Book of Life They tear the waxen seals off unleashing their whole life stories as Ruairi planned them However some of them abandon their lives when they read the final pages and return to their rooms in the Depository Others such as the dwarfs decide not to read the last pages and go on a quest to find a place called The Red Pavilion traveling through strange towns such as Morbeg Dorbeg and its Parliament of Hats the country of the Belly Rumlbers Colonel Bombois and the Rusty Knight and Obscuranta where decent souls are persecuted and skeletons are partially re fleshed to make their spirits suffer and finally imprisonment in the City of the Jinn At the same time Ruairi is being shown terrible visions as Bellybulb the devil battles to deceive and discourage him on his journey Only when the dwarfs fall into the Pool of the Spirits where Ruairi meets his mother is the real meaning of the Red Pavilion revealed and Ruairi s apocalypse is ended The Marriage between Perfume and the Lyric Stage Mary May

Robertson,2023-09-22 But what is this scent of balmy air What this ray of light in my tomb I seem to see an angel amid a scent of roses sings Florestan in Fidelio Beethoven s only opera The role of scents smells fragrances and odours in opera has long been neglected just as how much opera and its stars have influenced the world of perfumery from the nineteenth century to the present day In the first book length study on the topic Professor Mary May Robertson explores the relationship between opera perfumes and their respective protagonists in order to map out the previously undiscussed connection between the two Through compelling close readings of librettos and rigorous research through thousands of bottles of perfume the reader will come to appreciate and recognise the influences and exchanges between operas and perfumes and their ultimate marriage in the previously unrecognised genre of Operatic Perfumes which is to say perfumes named after operas composers and their divas The Works of the English Poets from Chaucer to Cowper ,1810 Catalog of
