Radford, E. Radford, 2013-04-18 The first complete encyclopaedia to feature the history and source of superstitions around the world First published in 1947 this encyclopaedia presents over 2 300 superstitions and lists them either individually or collectively under clear headings Discover the many superstitions that have existed throughout history in this fascinating volume      One Beat of a Butterfly's Heart Ronald Callander, 2014-10-19 In this book we are given a unique view of East

Africa of the 1950s not the stereotyped picture of wildlife safaris and leaping Masai but the emerging independence struggle of a new African nation from the viewpoint of a white police officer in an exceptionally detailed thoroughly readable firsthand account of a rare period of recent history It tells how an Australian veteran fresh from the Korean War became a colonial police officer in Tanganyika Territory later Tanzania after federation with the offshore islands of Zanzibar in 1964 The reader is taken on a journey which tourists in Africa never see from back alleys and police cells in the polyglot city of Dar es Salaam to snake infested camps on Uganda Ruanda border patrols and on police field force emergency operations from barracks at the foot of Kilimanjaro There is much here to discover about a mostly benign semi colonial period in Africa which lasted less than fifty years passing in one African's description as briefly as a butterfly's heartbeat where a few conscientious white administrators and their loyal African assistants managed vast regions of a desolate territory with remarkably selfless care and scarce resources where things worked most of the time but sometimes where chaos reigned It is about the country itself its ubiquitous animals and its people at close range including villagers criminals hunters witch doctors and colonial officials but most of all the African askari policemen who were the author's close and often only companions      Butterfly's Sisters

Yoko Kawaguchi,2010-11-30 In this fascinating and wide ranging book Yoko Kawaguchi explores the Western portrayal of Japanese women and geishas in particular from the mid nineteenth century to the present day She argues that in the West Japanese women have come to embody certain ideas about feminine sexuality and she analyzes how these ideas have been expressed in diverse art forms ranging from fiction and opera to the visual arts and music videos Among the many works Kawaguchi discusses are the art criticism of Baudelaire and Huysmans the opera Madama Butterfly the sculptures of Rodin the Broadway play Teahouse of the August Moon and the international best seller Memoirs of a Geisha Butterfly s Sisters also examines the impact on early twentieth century theatre drama and dance theory of the performance styles of the actresses Madame Hanako and Sadayakko both formerly geishas The Complete Wizard of Oz Collection by L. entertaining and informative book traces the history of butterfly collection in Britain from the 17th century when the study of natural history had its beginnings Laced with anecdotes and quotations the beautifully illustrated volume describes the equipment used and gives brief biographies of 101 deceased lepidopterists 58 illustrations 42 in color Nine Pints Rose George,2024-06-04 Los Angeles Times Book Prize Finalist A compelling chronicle of the science politics and business of blood The Wall Street Journal Blood carries life yet the sight of it makes people faint It is a waste product and a commodity pricier than oil It can save lives and transmit deadly infections Each one of us has roughly nine pints of it yet many don t even know their own blood type And for all its ubiquitousness the few tablespoons of blood discharged by 800 million women are still regarded as taboo menstruation is perhaps the single most demonized biological event Rose George author of The Big Necessity takes us from ancient practices of bloodletting to the breakthrough of the liquid biopsy which promises to diagnose cancer and other diseases with a simple blood test She introduces Janet Vaughan who set up the world s first system of mass blood donation during the Blitz and Arunachalam Muruganantham known as Menstrual Man for his work on sanitary pads for developing countries She probes the lucrative business of plasma transfusions in which the US is known as the OPEC of plasma And she looks to the future as researchers seek to bring synthetic blood to a hospital near you Spanning science and politics individual s stories and global epidemics Nine Pints reveals our life s blood in an entirely new light One of Bill Gates Recommended Summer Reading Titles Stellar An informative elegant and provocative exploration of the life giving substance

A wondrously well written work Booklist starred review Both fascinating and informative George packs her book with the kinds of provocative witty and rigorously reported facts and stories sure to make readers view the integral fluid coursing through our veins in a whole new way Kirkus Reviews starred review George charges down wholly unexpected avenues of medical history and global injustice leaving the reader by turns giddy and appalled And always always in awe of the writing Mary Roach author of Grunt The Curious Science of Humans at War A very good book The New York Times

The Aurelian Legacy - a History of British Butterflies and their Collectors Michael Salmon,2021-10-25 Although the collecting of butterflies is today an emotive subject it is impossible to separate a history of British butterflies from a history of their collectors without whose activities our knowledge of the identification occurrence distribution and variation of British butterflies would be much the poorer Liberally laced with contemporary quotations this book brings to life the past three hundred years of butterfly study with details of early societies collecting equipment biographies of 101 deceased lepidopterists with portraits where available as well as the chequered history in Britain of some 35 species of butterfly The colour plates include some of the finest butterfly illustrations ever

After They're Gone Peter Marren,2022-05-05 Wise challenging and offering some unexpected laughter in the dark this is a rational and insightful account of the sixth great extinction event Peter Marren is a brilliant writer and a national treasure PATRICK BARKHAM Thoughtful fascinating and very timely STEPHEN MOSS Important and thought provoking CAROLINE LUCAS GREEN PARTY MP Essential reading Marren makes a page turner out of Armageddon SIMON BARNES In his characteristic style Peter Marren has humanised the story of wildlife losses with humour and wit but also with his enormous knowledge and deep love for the living world MARK COCKER We are in the midst of an extinction event the sixth mass extinction on earth and one entirely caused by mankind All species become extinct sooner or later but we have accelerated that natural process several hundredfold and now it is happening right in front of our eyes Extinction has a terrifying finality to it And many species have already been lost to us forever there is little we can do about that What we can do however is reflect remember and ultimately acknowledge the unvarnished truth We must see the natural world as it is and not as we might want it to be Our trajectory is one that has benefited one species alone humankind For all other beings from mammals to fish from birds to insects and coral from plants to lichens and fungi the future for better or worse is in our hands

Heights and Depths George Hobson,2021-03-31 These poems make up the verbal equivalent of a synthetic cubist painting Many facets of reality are on display as the poems move through depths and heights of human experience The opening section presents a harsh evocation of the turbulence and violence in our world yet with hints of hope We are God s memories Preserved in his world Promised a future The second section is in a personal vein exposing not without humor the poet s struggles to find full self acceptance as he discovers himself inside God s love Section three in another register altogether evokes the beauty of intensely observed aspects of the natural world through which shines the mystery of physical reality Section four which includes a dramatic narrative account of a forest fire moves in the realm of memory its glories and its sorrows The last section fleshes out from a variety of angles the hints of hope in section one concluding with a startling at moments comical response to the wonder of the moon egg that suddenly appears in the night sky from behind backlit clouds and the poet asks Who laid it The imagery of these poems is original and vivid We are carried on a truly exciting unforgettable ride through a vast range of human experience Punch, 1898
