Bienvenido-Huertas, María Luisa de la Hoz-Torres, Antonio Jesús Aguilar Aguilera, 2024-06-19 This book presents contributions on teaching innovation in university architecture and building engineering studies The authors explain how the construction sector demands that future architects and building engineers have the knowledge and skills that allow them to meet the decarbonization objectives established by international organizations and that this causes the level of knowledge to be higher The contributors further discuss new technologies and the internationalization of studies presenting new challenges university studies must face This heterogeneity is represented in the chapters that make up this book developed by researchers from different countries The book is divided into three blocks i Active learning methodologies ii Innovative methodologies applied to learning process and iii Traditional vs Advanced Techniques The chapters of the book represent an advance in the current knowledge of teaching innovation techniques in university architecture and building engineering studies Architecture since 1991, 2000 Design Theory, Language and Architectural Space in Lewis Carroll

Caroline Dionne, 2023-07-31 This volume offers spatial theories of the emergent based on a careful close reading of the complete works of nineteenth century writer and mathematician Lewis Carroll from his nonsense fiction to his work on logic and geometry including his two short pamphlets on architecture Drawing on selected key moments in our philosophical tradition including phenomenology and sociospatial theories Caroline Dionne interrogates the relationship between words and spaces highlighting the crucial role of language in processes of placemaking Through an interdisciplinary method that relates literary and language theories to theories of space and placemaking with emphasis on the social and political experience of architectural spaces Dionne investigates Carroll's most famous children's books Alice's Adventures in Wonderland and Through the Looking Glass and What Alice Found There in relation to his lesser known publications on geometry and architecture The book will be of interest to scholars working in design theory design history architecture and literary theory and criticism Minutes, 1920 South America, Central America and the Caribbean 2003 Europa Publications, 2002 Introductory surveys cover topics of regional importance individual country chapters include analysis statistics and directory information plus information on regional organizations International Handbook of Contemporary Developments in Architecture Warren Sanderson, 1981-12-29 Product information not available

Medellín: environment urbanism society Michel Hermelin Arboux, Alejandro Echeverri Restrepo, Jorge Giraldo, 2012-01-01 In recent times what has become known as the case of Medellín has generated a growing interest in the international community These urban transformation that Medellín has experimented have become a focus of attention and reference for experts in many fields around the world The book Medellín Environment Urbanism and Society that now published the Center for Urban and Environmental Studies Urbam of EAFIT University is a testimony of the value given by our culture to the accomplishments of the city to the idea of the public sphere and the growing relationship between the technical sphere and the political sphere understood in the broad sense as a form of disciplinary knowledge and construction of civil society This book brings together a knowledge of the city from multiple perspectives knowledge that is without any doubt impressive for its extension and profundity as well as for its capacity to combine objective data with conceptual reflections about the scope and impact of the different perspectives concerning the theme of urban transformation and the different actors that have participated in such processes The book weaves a broad net over the city its history and development adopting a multidisciplinary vision I think that this will be the first step in creating a speech that might finally liberate itself from the strict disciplinary boundaries building a trans disciplinary perspective that can amplify the urban dimension of the city This is the beginning of a profound and complex reflection that is at the same time a project of knowledge and an instrument of action and participation
