Nuns Across the Orange: A History of the Pioneering Anglican Community of St Michael and All Angels, Bloemfontein Michael Sparrow, 2021-04-21 When Sister Emma and the five women who accompanied her from England crossed the Orange River early in 1874 they exchanged the comfortable mainstream of Anglican Church life for the rigours of pioneering new works in an undeveloped country Living conditions were primitive travel was hard and money was always in short supply The newly formed Community of St Michael and All Angels opened the first girls schools north of the Orange and the first hospital in the Free State At Kimberley Sister Henrietta achieved a world first through her successful campaign for the State Registration of nurses Four Sisters were besieged in Kimberley during the Anglo Boer War and in Bloemfontein their Mother House became a military hospital By faith and determination the Community recovered St Michael s School was raised to new standards of excellence while the Sisters expanded their mission to include Lesotho and the eastern Free State Decades of work with Bloemfontein s sick and deprived led to Sister Enid becoming known as Ma Mohau Mother of Mercy and to national acclaim in the 1970s as South Africa s Mother Teresa This book studies the development of the Community s religious life and charts the progress of their work among all races from their foundation until the death of the last Sister in 2016 Across the Orange their relative isolation from the strong centres of Anglicanism eventually contributed to their demise but not before they had established an enduring legacy The work they began in Lesotho is continued by the Community of the Holy Name while St Michael s School in Bloemfontein is recognised as one of the finest girls schools in South Africa A copious and critical Latin-English dictionary Peter Bullions,1862 A New Latin-English School Lexicon on the Basis of the Latin-German Lexicon of Dr. C.F. Social Case Work: The Indian Perspective Aneesh Kurian & Rambabu Botcha, The Tulip and the Pope Deborah Larsen, 2007-12-18 The story of novelist and poet Deborah Larsen's young womanhood The Tulip and the Pope is both an exquisitely crafted spiritual memoir and a beautifully nuanced view of life in the convent In midsummer of 1960 nineteen year old Deborah shares a cab to a convent She and the teenage girls with her passionate to become nuns heedless of all they are leaving behind smoke their last cigarettes before entering their new lives In the same artful prose that distinguished her novel The White Larsen's memoir lets us into the hushed life of the convent She captures the exquisite peace she found there as well as the extreme constriction of the rules and her gradual awareness of all that she is missing Eventually the physical world the lush tulip she remembers seeing as a girl the snow she tunneled in and even the mystery of sex begins to seem to her an alternative theater for a deep understanding and love of God Latin-English Dictionary for the Use of Junior Students John Tahourdin White, 1913 Inuit, Oblate Missionaries, and Grey Nuns in the Keewatin, 1865-1965 Frédéric B. Laugrand, Jarich G. Oosten, 2019-09-19 Over the century between the first Oblate mission to the Canadian central Arctic in 1867 and the radical shifts brought about by Vatican II the region was the site of complex interactions between Inuit Oblate missionaries and Grey Nuns interactions that have not yet received the attention they deserve Enriching archival sources with oral testimony Frédéric Laugrand and Jarich Oosten provide an in depth analysis of conversion medical care education and vocation in the Keewatin region of the Northwest Territories They show that while Christianity was adopted by the Inuit and major transformations occurred the Oblates and the Grey Nuns did not eradicate the old traditions or assimilate the Inuit who were caught up in a process they could not yet fully understand The study begins with the first contact Inuit had with Christianity in the Keewatin region and ends in the mid 1960s when an Inuk woman joined the Grey Nuns and two Inuit brothers became Oblate missionaries Bringing together many different voices perspectives and experiences and emphasizing the value of multivocality in understanding this complex period of Inuit history Inuit Oblate Missionaries and Grey Nuns in the Keewatin 1865 1965 highlights the subtle nuances of a long and complex interaction showing how salvation and suffering were intertwined
