Rational Living:

A New Guide to Rational Living Albert Ellis, Robert Allan Harper, 1975 Two psychotherapists describe the nature and success of their rational emotive approach to solving mental and emotional problems and present actual case histories A Guide to Rational Living Albert Ellis Ph. D, 1975-08 Direct get to the heart of the problem methods to teach you what you do to needlessly upset yourself and make yourself emotionally stronger by the creators of the most popular forms of therapy in the world Michael of Ephesus: On Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics 10 with Themistius: On Virtue, 2018-12-13 The two texts translated in this volume of the Ancient Commentators on Aristotle series both compare the happiness of the practical life which is subject to the hazards of fortune with the happiness of the life of philosophical contemplation which is subject to fewer needs The first is Michael of Ephesus 12th century commentary on Book 10 of Aristotle's Nicomachean Ethics written alongside his commentaries on Books 5 and 9 to fill gaps in the Neoplatonists commentaries from the 6th century He recognizes that lives of practicality and philosophy may be combined and gives his own account of the superiority of the contemplative The second is Themistius text On Virtue written in the 4th century AD He was an important teacher and commentator on Aristotle an orator and leading civil servant in Constantinople His philosophical oration is here argued to be written in support of the Emperor Julian's insistence against the misuse of free speech by a Cynic Heraclius who had satirised him Julian had previously criticised Themistius but here he combines his political and philosophical roles in seeking to mend relations with his former pupil Feel the Way You Want to Feel ... Advances in Personality Assessment J. N. Butcher, C. D. Spielberger, Charles D. Spielberger, 2013-12-19 First published in 1987 This is Volume 6 of Advances in Personality Assessment and includes articles on personality in the U S Foreign Office the interview questionnaire technique assessment of shame and guilt assessment of cognitive affective interactions in children and holistic health amongst others Grief Healing: Dr. John M. Gullo, 2016-08-15 Dr John Gullo effectively discloses his fifty one year soul mate relationship with his wife Sylvia in a compelling manner Upon marriage his wife Sylvia had four children aged six to thirteen Dr Gullo's personal and vast professional experience leaves no doubt as to his knowledge and expertise in efficiently dealing with and resolving excruciating grief This book does not nibble at the edges of grief it goes to the heart Proven practical methods allow you to become emotionally stronger Competent sought after answers to grief backed by hundreds of research studies in rational emotive behavior therapy are provided in down to earth language A Study of Dogen Masao Abe, 1992-01-01 This work analyzes Dogen's formative doubt concerning the notion of original awakening as the basis for his unique approach to nonduality in the doctrines of the oneness of practice and attainment the unity of beings and Buddha nature the simultaneity of time and eternity and the identity of life and death Back cover Rationality and the Pursuit of Happiness Michael E. Bernard, 2010-10-26 This book reveals how the principles of rational living identified by Albert Ellis one of the world's most influential and popular psychologists can be used by anyone to achieve lifelong happiness Reveals the 11 principles of rational living that when put into practice can consistently increase levels of personal happiness Includes selected excerpts from Ellis writings revealing the difference between the psychological architectures of emotional unhappiness and human happiness Presents verbatim transcripts of private counseling sessions as well as public lectures and demonstrations with people addressing a wide range of personal issues Offers insights into how rationality can be used by anyone to reduce the intensity of negative emotions to increase the frequency of positive emotions and to promote life satisfaction Radical Approaches to Social Skills Training Peter Trower, 2013-12-16 Originally published in 1984 one of the few facts that emerged clearly in the beleaguered field of psychology and mental health at the time was the extent of poor social skills in psychiatric patients the mentally handicapped and problem adolescents As a result during the 1970s social skills training espoused as a form of behaviour therapy seemed to offer great promise based on the notion that social skills like any other skills are learnt and can be taught if lacking However in evaluating social skills training many investigators found that skills did not endure and generalise This book attempts a major re assessment of social skills training It examines the underlying paradigms which are shown to be fundamentally behaviourist Such paradigms it is argued severely constrain the aims and method of current types of training

Thus the book develops what is termed an agency approach based on man as a social agent who actively constructs his own experiences and generates his own goal directed behaviour on the basis of those constructs This new model is developed in both theoretical and practical ways in the main body of the book and should even today be of great interest to all those involved with social skills training Assessment Strategies for Cognitive-Behavioral Interventions Philip C. Beutler, Karen Simon, 1989-06-30 This Handbook covers all the many aspects of cognitive therapy both in its practical application in a clinical setting and in its theoretical aspects Since the first applications of cognitive therapy over twenty years ago the field has expanded enormously This book provides a welcome and readable overview of these advances
