Rationalism and Humanism in the New Europe Christopher Macy,1973-01-01 Rationalism and Humanism in the New Europe Rationalist Press Association. Annual Conference,1973 Rationalism and Humanism in the New Europe Rationalist Press Association,1973 Getting Over Europe Zoran Milutinović,2011 Preliminary Material Acknowledgments Introduction Cosmopolitan nationalism In a search of a slav mission authenticity and barbarity The Gentlemen The prophets of Europe s downfall and rebirth Oh to be a European What did Rastko Petrovi learn in Africa The great mechanism passes through Vi egrad Misunderstading is the rule understanding is a miracle Epilogue Barbarians Dramatis personae in order of appearance Bibliography Index Bibliographic Guide to Conference Publications ,1976 Vols for 1975 include publications cataloged by the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library with additional entries from the Library of Congress MARC tapes The Next Development of Mankind Lancelot Whyte,2017-09-29 This searching examination of human development provides new perspectives on the moral political scientific emotional and intellectual divisions of our time A physicist by profession Whyte looked beyond the boundaries of specialization for creative ways to approach the basic problem facing modern Western civilization Why are we so competent technically and yet unable to order our own affairs socially and personally He takes the reader with him on a journey that is nothing less than a new interpretation of the general development of human consciousness Whyte s thesis is that the current stage of human development makes not only necessary but inevitable constructing a unitary method of thought to overcome the dualism of the modern Western mind He argues that the deepest troubles of Western civilization are due in large part to excessive reliance on the ancient Greek postulates of permanence and invariance as an ordered form of thought resulting in an extreme mechanistic anti humanism What culminated in two world wars Whyte argued is a European dissociation or lesion This dissociation represents an achievement in terms of rational mastery of the natural and human worlds unique social dynamism and differentiation and the flowering of individuality But the price was high disordering of thought emotion and will conflict between our deliberate and spontaneous conscious and unconscious energies unstable polarization between a delusive unchanging ideal world and the reality of human transience and limitation Whyte chooses nine thinkers to illustrate this historical and evolutionary movement including Heraclitus Marx and Freud and the resulting rignettes are a synthesis of knowledge that suggest as well a reorientation of thought feeling and action for the future Lewis Mumford wrote of The Next Development of Mankind The book has intense and immediate value both for the practical person and for the theoretic thinker Sixty years a Gathering of Infidels Bill Cooke,2004-07 No Marketing Blurb A History of Europe, 1500-1815 James Edward Gillespie,1928 Organization Studies and Posthumanism François-Xavier de Vaujany,Silvia Gherardi,Polyana Silva,2024-04-05 This book aims at exploring the reception of critical posthumanist conversations in the context of Management and Organization Studies It constitutes an invitation to de center the human subject and thus an invitation to the ongoing deconstruction of humanism The project is not to deny humans but to position them in relation to other nonhumans more than humans the non living world and all the missing masses from organizational inquiry What is under critique is humanism s anthropocentrism essentialism exceptionalism and speciesism in the context of the Anthropocene and the contemporary crisis the world experiences From climate change to the loss of sense at work to the new geopolitical crisis to the unknown effects of the diffusion of AI all these powerful forces have implications for organizations and organizing A re imagination of concepts theories and methods is needed in organization studies to cope with the challenge of a more than human world The Mysticism of Johann Joseph Von Görres as a Reaction Against Rationalism Sister Mary Gonzaga,1920 The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review ,1914 The Oxford Handbook of Jewish Studies Martin Goodman,Jeremy Cohen,David Sorkin,2002 This volume on Jewish studies presents surveys of today s interests and directions in the humanities and social sciences It covers the main areas taught and researched as part of Jewish studies in universities throughout the world especially in Europe the US and Israel Rational Landscapes and Humanistic Geography Edward Relph,2015-07-30 This book first published in 1981 explores why it is that the modern built environment while successfully providing material comfort and technical efficiency none the less breeds despair and depression rather than inspires hope and commitment The source of this paradox where material benefits appear to have been gained only at the expense of intangible values and qualities is found in humanism the persistent and powerful belief that all problems can be solved through the use of human reason But humanism has become increasingly confused rationalistic callously devoted to efficiency and authoritarian These confusions and contradictions together with the anti nature stance of humanism and its failure to teach humane behaviour lead the author to conclude that humanism is best rejected Such rejection does not advocate the inhuman and anti human but requires instead a return to the humility that lies at the origin of humanism a respect for objects creatures environments and people This environmental humility is explored in the context of individuality of settings ways of seeing landscapes appropriation and ways of building places This title will be of interest to students of human geography Christian Responsibility and Communicative Freedom Wolfgang Huber,2012 The public role of religion continues to be a complex and controversial topic In a career spanning nearly five decades Wolfgang Huber has written extensively on the role of Christian ethics in societies across the globe This collection provides an introduction to his thought and access to some of his most important and thought provoking essays Huber continues to engage issues of both local and global importance at institutions in a number of countries Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 5 The Rise of Animals and Descent of Man, 1660-1800 John Morillo,2017-11-22 The Rise of Animals and the Descent of Man illuminates compelling historical connections between a current fascination with animal life and the promotion of the moral status of non human animals as ethical subjects deserving our attention and respect and a deep interest in the animal as agent in eighteenth century literate culture It explores how writers including well known poets important authors who mixed art and science and largely forgotten writers of sermons and children's stories all offered innovative alternatives to conventional narratives about the meaning of animals in early modern Europe. They question Descartes' claim that animals are essentially soulless machines incapable of thought or feelings. British writers from 1660 to 1800 remain informed by Cartesianism but often counter it by recognizing that feelings are as important as reason when it comes to defining animal life and its relation to human life. This British line of thought deviates from Descartes by focusing on fine feeling as a register of moral life empowered by sensibility and sympathy but this very stance is complicated by cultural fears that too much kindness to animals can entail too much kinship with them, fears made famous in the later reaction to Darwinian evolution. The Rise of Animals uncovers ideological tensions between sympathy for animals and a need to defend the special status of humans from the rapidly developing Darwinian perspective. The writers it examines engage in complex negotiations with sensibility and a wide range of philosophical and theological traditions. Their work anticipates posthumanist thought and the challenges it poses to traditional humanist values within the humanities and beyond. The Rise of Animals is a sophisticated intellectual history of the origins of our changing attitudes about animals that at the same time illuminates major currents of eighteenth-century British literary culture.

Provincializing Europe Dipesh Chakrabarty, 2009-06-05

First published in 2000, Dipesh Chakrabarty's influential Provincializing Europe addresses the mythical figure of Europe that is often taken to be the original site of modernity in many histories of capitalist transition in non-Western countries. This imaginary Europe, Dipesh Chakrabarty argues, is built into the social sciences. The very idea of historicizing carries with it some peculiarly European assumptions about disenchanted space, secular time, and sovereignty. Measured against such mythical standards, capitalist transition in the third world has often seemed either incomplete or lacking. Provincializing Europe proposes that every case of transition to capitalism is a case of translation as well: a translation of existing worlds and their thought categories into the categories and self-understandings of capitalist modernity. Now featuring a new preface in which Chakrabarty responds to his critics, this book globalizes European thought by exploring how it may be renewed both for and from the margins.

Islam in Global Politics Bassam Tibi, 2012-03-12

Reaching beyond traditionally politicized scholarship to provide a unique perspective on the place of religion and culture in global and local politics, this book examines the impact of Islam on civilizational relations between different groups and polities. Bassam Tibi takes a highly original approach to the topic of religion in world politics, exploring the place of Islam in society and its frequent distortion in world politics to the more radical Islamism. Looking at how this becomes an immediate source of tension and conflict between the secular and the religious, Tibi rejects the clash of civilizations theory and argues for the revival of Islamic humanism to help bridge the gap. Chapters expand on inter-civilizational conflict in global politics, dialogue between religious and secular East and West, western concepts of Islamism, euro-Islam, and the Islamic diaspora in Europe. Islamic humanism as a tool for bridging civilizations Shedding new light on the highly topical subject of Islam in politics and society this book is an essential read for scholars and students of international politics Islamic studies and conflict resolution Guardians of the Humanist Legacy: The Classicism of T.S. Eliot's Criterion Network and its Relevance to our Postmodern World Jeroen Vanheste, 2007-07-30 In recent scholarly work T S Eliot has usually been associated with cultural elitism and political conservatism or even with proto fascism and anti Semitism This book proposes a different view During the Interbellum Eliot and his review The Criterion were part of an international network of intellectuals that shared an open minded Europeanness Authors like T Mann Benda Ortega y Gasset Curtius and Hofmannsthal emphasized their common European roots and shared cultural legacy Their classicism stands in the European tradition of humanism and has remained highly relevant Classicist ideas about literature education and human culture in general continue to inspire contemporary humanist thinkers as the second part of this book demonstrates by discussing the work of Ferry Todorov Steiner Scruton Toulmin and others
