Del Vecchio, 2017-02-27 Three classic novels by John M Del Vecchio about Vietnam Cambodia and the aftermath of war A classic combat novel and National Book Award finalist The 13th Valley follows the terrifying Vietnam combat experiences of James Chelini a telephone systems installer who finds himself an infantryman in the North Vietnamese Army infested mountains of the I Corps Tactical Zone Spiraling deeper and deeper into a world of conflict and darkness this harrowing account plunges Chelini into jungle warfare and traces his evolution from semi pacifist to all out combat crazed soldier The seminal novel on the Vietnam experience The 13th Valley is a classic that illuminates the war in Southeast Asia like no other book Some reviewers have called For the Sake of All Living Things the most terrifying book they have ever read This saga follows a rural Cambodian family father Chhoun his beautiful daughter Vathana and his young son Samnang who becomes the Khmer Rouge's yotha Met Nang from the mid sixties through the escalation of the civil war into the horrors of the holocaust and finally to the country's quest for rebirth Documenting their story is American Special Forces Captain John Sullivan who served with the Military Equipment Delivery Team and who has fallen in love with Vathana Carry Me Home brings the troops back to America a nation confused and divided by the wars in Southeast Asia In this poignant epic Del Vecchio transports a group of soldiers to their final battlefield the home front High

Meadow Farm in the fertile hill country of central Pennsylvania becomes their salvation In Vietnam they had been brothers in arms Now in the face of personal tragedy and bureaucratic deception they create an even deeper allegiance one of the spirit and of the land This is the remarkable story of the veterans struggle to find one another and themselves In its scope breadth and brilliance Carry Me Home is much more than a novel about Vietnam vets it is a testament to history and hope to hometowns and homecomings to love and loss and to faith and family It is an inspiring and unforgettable novel about America itself

Malicroix Henri Bosco,2020-04-07 Fans of the style of William Faulkner will want to read Henri Bosco four time nominee for the Nobel Prize in Literature Available in English for the first time Malicroix tells the story of a recluse living in the French countryside unraveling how he came to a life of solitude Henri Bosco like his contemporary Jean Giono is one of the regional masters of modern French literature a writer who dwells above all on the grandeur beauty and ferocious unpredictability of the natural world Malicroix set in the early nineteenth century is widely considered to be Bosco s greatest book Here he invests a classic coming of age story with a wild mythic glamour A nice young man of stolidly unimaginative good bourgeois stock is surprised to inherit a house on an island in the Rh ne in the famously desolate and untamed region of the Camargue The terms of his great uncle s will are even more surprising the young man must take up solitary residence in the house for a full three months before he will be permitted to take possession of it With only a taciturn shepherd and his dog for occasional company he finds himself surrounded by the huge and turbulent river always threatening to flood the island and surrounding countryside and the wind battering at his all too fragile house shrieking from on high And there is another condition of the will a challenging task he must perform even as others scheme to make his house their own Only under threat can the young man come to terms with both his strange inheritance and himself

Del Vecchio,2012-07-04 A work that has served as a literary cornerstone for the Vietnam generation The 13th Valley follows the strange and terrifying Vietnam combat experiences of James Chelini a telephone systems installer who finds himself an infantryman in territory controlled by the North Vietnamese Army Spiraling deeper and deeper into a world of conflict and darkness this harrowing account of Chelini s plunge and immersion into jungle warfare traces his evolution from a semipacifist to an all out warmonger The seminal novel on the Vietnam experience The 13th Valley is a classic that illuminates the war in Southeast Asia like no other book Studies of Travel Edward Augustus Freeman,1893 The Poetry of Li He Robert Ashmore,2023-06-19 Li He 790 816 holds a place in China s poetic history somewhat outside the mainstream but in every generation of readers there have been those who have found his intense and often cryptic lyrical visions irresistibly fascinating and utterly without parallel He is renowned particularly for his lyrical reimaginings of song traditions from the ancient past and his premature death along with the otherworldly quality of many of his works led later readers to view him as the emblematic cursed poet whose fascination with ancient history with ghosts and with celestial and demonic beings seemed to presage the brevity of his own existence Li He s style and diction are often idiosyncratic and even hermetic and his work presents daunting challenges to readers wishing to follow the flights of his imagination or simply to construe the basic sense of his language This volume presents close translations of all of Li He s poetry in facing page format with the original texts with explanatory notes on literary and historical references and difficult points of interpretation along with endnotes briefly discussing textual variants and other technical matters Taken together these features will be a welcome aid to readers wishing to explore Li He s poetic worlds first hand Barham Beach Julia Ditto Young,1908
