What is Religion? Jeppe Sinding Jensen,2014-09-11 Religious belief is one of the most pervasive and ubiquitous characteristics of human society Religion has shadowed and illuminated human lives since primitive times shaping the world views of cultures from isolated tribes to vast empires Starting from the premise that religion is a concept which can be analysed and compared across time and cultures What is Religion brings the most up to date scholarship to bear on humankind s most enduring creation The book opens with a brief history of the idea of religion then divides the study of religion into four essential topics types representations practices and institutions and concludes with a final eye opening chapter on religion today Packed with case studies from a wide range of religions past and present What is Religion offers a very current comprehensive yet intellectually challenging overview of the history theories practices and study of religion Accessible wide ranging engaging and short What is Religion is written primarily for undergraduate students in the study of religion but it will also be invaluable for students of anthropology history psychology sociology and theology as well as anyone interested in how and why humans came and continue to be religious      Supernaturalism in Human Life Jacob Pandian,2002      The Master Plant Andrew Russell,Elizabeth Rahman,2020-06-03 Described as a master plant by many indigenous groups in lowland South America tobacco is an essential part of shamanic ritual as well as a source of everyday health wellbeing and community In sharp contrast to the condemnation of the tobacco industry and its place in contemporary public health discourse the book considers tobacco in a more nuanced light as an agent both of enlightenment and destruction Exploring the role of tobacco in the lives of indigenous peoples The Master Plant offers an important and unique contribution to this field of study through its focus on lowland South America the historical source region of this controversial plant yet rarely discussed in recent scholarship The ten chapters in this collection bring together ethnographic accounts key developments in anthropological theory and emergent public health responses to indigenous tobacco use Moving from a historical study of tobacco usage covering the initial domestication of wild varieties and its value as a commodity in colonial times to an examination of the transcendent properties of tobacco and the magic symbolism and healing properties associated with it the authors present wide ranging perspectives on the history and cultural significance of this important plant The final part of the book examines the changing landscape of tobacco use in these communities today set against the backdrop of the increasing power of the national and transnational tobacco industry The first critical overview of tobacco and its uses across lowland South America this book encourages new ways of thinking about the problems of commercially exploited tobacco both within and beyond this source region

The idea of the hero originates in myths from the distant past and has been applied to many different concepts in different societies cultures and historical time periods As a mythical signifier the meaning of the word hero changes according to the intentions of the user and this study examines some of the ways in which heroic myths have been created either to justify the actions of those in power or to produce an imaginary ideal to which the majority can aspire The warrior heroes of Greek legend fighting for individual glory and honour have little in common with the soldiers fighting in the wars of the twentieth century resulting in the creation of a new hero myth that of the patriotic dutiful and obedient soldier As a result of wars and the emergence of new states there is a need for new myths depicting heroes who fight and if necessary die in order to defend their nation Heroic myths are important for those seeking power and this study considers the extent to which Germanic myths played a part in the emergence of Hitler as a heroic leader In recent times the idea of the hero with which people most readily identify is the extreme altruist someone who is ready to risk their own life to save the life of another person The possible origins of and reasons for such behaviour are examined All humans possess the potential to act in ways which might be considered to be heroic even when this involves living an ordinary life with courage and endurance

2016 Günter Berghaus,2016-05-24 Volume 6 2016 is an open issue with an emphasis on Nordic countries Denmark Finland Lithuania Estonia Iceland Four essays focus on Russia two on music other contributions are concerned with Egypt USA and Korea Furthermore there are sections on Futurist archives Futurism in caricatures and Futurism in fiction

Diane Dubois takes a contextual approach to Northrop Frye's work and claims that it is best assessed in relation to his biographical circumstances In context and in specific details Dubois' book seeks to illuminate Frye's œuvre as a personal lifelong project This volume successfully situates Frye's work within the social political religious and philosophical conditions of the time and place of conception and writing Dubois ranges from Frye's critical utopia and views on criticism and education through the university church and William Blake to politics and the Canadian and academic milieu This book which is particularly good at tracing Frye's academic influences and his roots in Methodism and Canada will have a strong appeal to an international audience of general readers students teachers and specialists Frye is a key figure in the cultural and literary theory of the twentieth century and Dubois' accomplished discussion helps us to see his work anew Jonathan Hart author of Northrop Frye The Theoretical Imagination 1994 Interpreting Cultures 2006 Empires and Colonies 2008 and Literature Theory History 2011     The Politics of Storytelling Michael Jackson, 2013-09-12 Hannah Arendt argued that the political is best understood as a power relation between private and public realms and that storytelling is a vital bridge between these realms a site where individualized passions and shared perspectives are contested and interwoven Jackson explores and expands Arendt's ideas through a cross cultural analysis of storytelling that includes Kuranko stories from Sierra Leone Aboriginal stories of the stolen generation stories recounted before the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and stories of refugees renegades and war veterans Focusing on the violent and volatile conditions under which stories are told and are not told and exploring the various ways in which narrative reworkings of reality enable people to symbolically alter subject object relations Jackson shows how storytelling may restore existential viability to the intersubjective fields of self and other self and state self and situation     Claude Lévi-Strauss Maurice

Godelier, 2018-08-07 One of the world's leading anthropologists assesses the work of the founder of structural anthropology As a young man Maurice Godelier was Claude Lévi-Strauss's assistant Since then Godelier has drawn on this experience to develop a profound and intimate grasp on the writings of his former teacher one of the most influential thinkers of the twentieth century Meticulously researched Lévi-Strauss A Critical Study of His Thought will prove indispensable to students of Lévi-Strauss and to structural anthropologists more generally It is a compelling and comprehensive study destined to become the definitive work on the evolution of Lévi-Strauss's ideas at the heart of which lies his analysis of kinship and myth
