Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company A Checklist of Painters, C1200-1994 Represented in the Witt Library, Courtauld Institute of Art, London Witt Library, 1995 The Witt Library of the Courtauld Institute of Art London is one of the world's greatest art history libraries It contains some 17 million illustrations of the work of painters draughtsmen and engravers of the Western tradition all of whom have been indexed by name dates and nationality This new second edition of the Checklist of Painters is a transcription of the Witt index as it currently exists The names of 66 000 artists their dates and their nationality or school are reproduced in alphabetical order The Checklist of Painters is probably the most exhaustive work of its kind in existence it now lists all painters known by art historians to have lived and worked from the year 1200 to 1994 10 Years of New Zealand Painting in Auckland, 1958-1967 Gordon H. Brown, Auckland City Art Gallery, Hamish Keith, 1968 English, Colonial, Modern and Maori Anna Crichton, 2014-11-24 How and why do works make their way into a public art collection Who decides what will be hung on the walls placed on plinths displayed in cases These important but seldom discussed questions lie at the heart of this cultural biography of the 70 years during which the Robert McDougall Art Gallery was Christchurch's civic art gallery The book explains how the collection came together how it developed and how the public and artists and critics reacted to it The book is presented in three parts each of which has its own introduction It provides an analytical framework in detail and in context by defining terms and explaining particular recurrent concepts These include and indeed highlight selection and presentation cultures derived from the core museological functions of collection and display These together with the framework's other concepts are related to mainstream methodology in the social sciences particularly political science The latter is especially relevant to the study of a public art gallery owned and funded by the public and its elected representatives and controlled by these representatives and their appointed agents Furthermore the framework explores the concept of post colonial tensions between heritages specifically indigenous transplanted and autochthonous ones The significance of this becomes more apparent when the concepts used in relevant previous studies of specific public art galleries in New Zealand are reviewed There is also a strong emphasis on the development of a public Maori art collection It is a story too of vivid and influential personalities the directors and curators who fought for the gallery and the artists represented in it But the book is more than just the story of a single gallery's collection it shines a light on concerns and patterns that will be familiar to galleries everywhere and provides a unique perspective on New Zealand's cultural development over much of the twentieth century New Zealand
