Pictures from a Drawer Bruce Jackson,2009-08-21 For more than forty years Bruce Jackson has been documenting in books photographs audio recording and film inmates lives in American prisons In November 1975 he acquired a collection of old ID photos while he was visiting the Cummins Unit a state prison farm in Arkansas They are published together for the first time in this remarkable book The 121 images that appear here were likely taken between 1915 and 1940 As Jackson describes in an absorbing introduction the function of these photos was not portraiture their function was to fold a person into the controlled space of a dossier Here freed from their prison jackets and printed at sizes far larger than their originals these one time ID photos have now become portraits Jackson s restoration transforms what were small bureaucratic artifacts into moving images of real men and women Pictures from a Drawer also contains an extraordinary description of everyday life at Cummins prison in the 1950s written originally by hand and presented to Jackson in 1973 by its author a long time inmate R. B. Kitaj R. B. Kitaj,Marlborough New London Gallery,1963 R. B. Kitaj R.B. Kitaj,1974 R.B. Kitaj R. B. Kitaj,1975 The Wall Beside the Work Derek Pigrum,2021-06-23 This book is about the way artists generate an endless chain of substitute objects for something they can never quite find It explores the work involved in art with a focus upon finding gathering and assembling charged and auratic objects on the wall beside the work The author employs the term Das Gegenwerk or the work towards the work This concept avoids definitive closure and expands the notion of drafting and related practices to include qualitative research methods The multi mode transitional practices of Das Gegenwerk are devoid of any demand for a preconceived goal but instead hinge upon the provisional and indeterminate As such it is a far cry from the binary logic of the computer and the design cycle but is of interest to an audience engaged with both Das Gegenwerk hinges on our capacity to respond to the outside rather than the inwardness often attributed to creative agency A fundamental belief of the book is that by investigating and adapting the practices of expert practitioners we can gain an understanding of high level creativity It is neither a recipe nor a linear or cyclic approach Rather artistic creation is an interweave of transitional multi mode practices where the overriding emphasis is on the handling or habituation of transitional materials in physical place The author addresses the urgent need to provide a balance between the promise of new technology and our capacity to both respond to and work with what the world bestows
