Unattainable Bride Russia Ellen Rutten, 2010-03-08 Throughout the twentieth century and continuing today personifications of Russia as a bride occur in a wide range of Russian texts and visual representations from literature and political and philosophical treatises to cartoons and tattoos Invariably this metaphor functions in the context of a political gender allegory which represents the relationships between Russia the intelligentsia and the Russian state as a competition of two male suitors for the former s love In Unattainable Bride Russia Ellen Rutten focuses on the metaphorical role the intelligentsia plays as Russia s rejected or ineffectual suitor Rutten finds that this metaphor which she covers from its prehistory in folklore to present day pop culture references to Vladimir Putin is still powerful but has generated scarce scholarly consideration Unattainable Bride Russia locates the cultural thread and places the political metaphor in a broad contemporary and social context thus paying it the attention to which it is entitled as one of Russia s modern cultural myths

Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks, 2017-04-20 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language

Russian Postmodernist Fiction Mark Naumovich Lipovet'skiĭ, 1999 Critically surveys 20th century Russian literature to develop a specific understanding of Russian postmodernism looking at work by Aksyonov Bitov Erofeev Pietsukh Popov Sokolov and Tolstaya Also grapples with some central issues of the critical debate and draws on both Bakhtinian and chaos theory to describe postmodern poetics as a dialogue with chaos The appendix provides biographical sketches and primary and secondary bibliographies Paper edition unseen 25 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Testimonies of Russian and American Postmodern Poetry Albena Lutzkanova-Vassileva, 2014-12-18

This book challenges the belief in the purely linguistic nature of contemporary poetry and offers an interpretation of late twentieth century Russian poetry as a testimony to the unforeseen annulment of communist reality and its overnight displacement by a completely unfathomable post totalitarian order Albena Lutzkanova Vassileva argues that because of the sudden invalidation of a reality that had been largely seen as unattained and everlasting this shift remained secluded from the mind and totally resistant to cognition thus causing a collectively traumatic psychological experience The book proceeds by inquiring into a school of contemporary American poetry that has been likewise read as cut off from reality Executing a comparative analysis Vassileva advances a new understanding of this poetry as a testimony to the overwhelming and traumatic impact of contemporary media which have assailed the mind with far more signals than it can register digest and furnish with semantic weight
