Reaching Out To Children And Families Students Model Effective Community Service:

Reaching Out to Children and Families Michelle R. Dunlap, 2000 Guideline to effectively prepare students for community service projects African Americans and Community Engagement in Higher Education Stephanie Y. Evans, Colette M. Taylor, Michelle R. Dunlap, DeMond S. Miller, 2009-09-17 This book discusses race and its roles in university community partnerships The contributors take a collaborative interdisciplinary and multiregional approach that allows students agency staff community constituents faculty and campus administrators an opportunity to reflect on and redefine what impact African American identity in the academy and in the community has on various forms of community engagement From historic concepts of race uplift to contemporary debates about racialized perceptions of need they argue that African American identity plays a significant role In representing best practices recommendations personal insight and informed warnings about building sustainable and mutually beneficial relationships the contributors provide a cogent platform from which to encourage the difficult and much needed inclusion of race in dialogues of national service and community engagement The Future of Service-Learning Jean R. Strait, Marybeth Lima, 2023-07-03 As a new generation of practitioners engages with service learning at a time when higher education faces questions about learning outcomes and costs and in the context of such issues as globalization and the environment this book poses important questions about practice institutional sustainability and future directions Among these are What counts as service learning What value does it bring to institutions Is it appropriate for all students How is globalization impacting service learning Divided into three thematic parts this book successively covers institutional and administrative issues service learning as a springboard for research and presents new practices that address emerging challenges and changing student populations The contributors review how different institutional types have structured their service learning activities address the issue of centralization or decentralization propose better ways to form community partnerships consider promotion and tenure implications postulate framing service learning and community engagement as scholarship and examine service learning as a springboard for research Further chapters offer a new blueprint for funding to achieve sustainability examples of international service learning from a European perspective a case study and framework for using on line formats to extend the reach of a program raise the urgent issue of the experiences and contributions of underrepresented students and present the rationale and processes for developing effective student led evaluation of programs Michigan Journal of Community Service Learning, 2006 Intercultural Horizons Volume II Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2014-07-08 This volume features a collection of papers from the second annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in October 2012 in New York City USA The 2012 conference was the second in what is becoming an annual series of meetings and the present volume therefore is a companion to one issued last year by Cambridge Scholars Publishing Intercultural Horizons Best Practices in Intercultural Competence Development 2012 The papers included in this volume reflect a diversity of approaches both to intercultural education in the North American setting and to its application in service learning and related contexts in diverse cultural settings in other nations Our authors provide faculty and student perspectives primarily from the level of postsecondary education but including a look as well at intercultural education at the primary level Many of the papers focus in one way or another on issues of curriculum teaching and learning in relation to developing intercultural competence in students in North American colleges and universities particularly though not exclusively through the use of service learning All of the papers touch in one way or another on another important development now affecting almost all institutions of higher education in North America and increasingly in other nations worldwide that of the university's engagement with the community During the past thirty years such engagement has moved from the periphery to the core of many North American colleges and universities Similar efforts are now emerging among many Asian universities and in Europe as well The paper in this volume on the Polisocial initiative at the Politecnico di Milano in Italy is a good example of how the theme of university community engagement is taking hold in a city and nation facing similar intercultural and economic challenges to those in North America and serves as a preview of themes the International Center for Intercultural Exchange hopes to explore in its future conferences www.ticfie.com

Getting Involved, 2008-01-01 Getting involved in society means becoming a human person by doing something for others and thus being connected to mankind and society Youngsters who get involved give meaning to life and develop a feeling of agency But getting involved is not easy Getting involved is necessary for living together creating democracy and sustainability of a global world The paradox is that in a modern multicultural society getting involved is even more important than in a traditional more monocultural society Getting involved relates to various scientific orientations Political sociological psychological and pedagogical questions are at issue and all of these will be consulted in this volume The main perspective however remains the issue of identity development relating to getting involved and will therefore be psychological This book gives a broad overview of current research in the field of moral development and citizenship It shows the diversity of concepts research methodologies and educational practices The book also shows the influence of local social cultural and political contexts The book can help researchers teacher educators politicians and practitioners in finding new and better ways of supporting youngsters in their moral and civic identity development

Collective Efficacy Anthony H. Normore, Nancy Erbe, 2013-11-26 The impetus of this book builds on the collective synergy of international and interdisciplinary authors with focus on leadership development and growth Although professional disciplines are closely interconnected there's often a tendency to work in silos and isolation Diverse authors share a wealth of knowledge research and pragmatism that can Intercultural Horizons Lavinia Bracci, Nevin C. Brown, Eliza J. Nash, 2013-10-28 This volume features a collection of papers from the first annual Intercultural Horizons conference held in May 2011 in Siena Italy The 2011 conference was entitled Best Practices in Intercultural Competence Development and featured speakers and participants from over 15 countries including leaders in the field such as Janet Bennett of the Intercultural Communication Institute Alvino Fantini of the School for International Training Andrew Furco of the University of Minnesota and Carol Ma of the Center for Service Learning at Lingnan University Hong Kong The authors of these papers provide perspectives on intercultural communication and related issues from viewpoints as varied as the traditional researcher the teacher in fields as diverse as second language acquisition music and the culinary arts and the administrator of a specific program or at the senior level of a college or university Together they form a representative sample of the themes discussed during the 2011 conference The editors consider this first meeting to be the dawn so to speak of Intercultural Horizons which aspires to become a respected venue for scholars and practitioners to exchange ideas techniques and pedagogies on intercultural communication in years to come Black Feminist Writing Stephanie Y. Evans, 2024-09-01 Writing scholarly books is stressful and academic publishing can be intimidating especially for women queer folks and scholars of color Black Feminist Writing shows scholars how to prioritize their mental health while completing a book in race and gender studies Drawing on Black women's writing traditions as well as her own experience as the author and editor of nine university press books Stephanie Y Evans gives scholars tools to sustain the important work of academic writing particularly in fields routinely under attack by anti democratic forces Evans identifies five major areas of stress personal professional publishing related public and political Each chapter includes targeted discussion questions and tasks to help authors identify their unique stressors create priorities get organized and breathe Whether working on your first scholarly book or your tenth this robust heartfelt guide will help you approach writing as an ongoing practice of learning creating and teaching in ways that center wellness and collective self care Charting a New Course for Feminist Psychology Lynn H. Collins, Michelle R. Dunlap, Joan C. Chrisler, 2002-03-30 Feminist psychology is vigorous creative and increasingly activist This volume reflects women's diversity and incorporates strategies for social action and opportunities for political activism It anticipates trends and developments in the psychology of women and feminist psychology Chapters include those about women and self esteem leadership skills welfare reform spirituality and domestic violence The emphasis on social activism is unique Unusual and cutting edge research methodologies and techniques are also discussed This book will be of interest to clinicians and scholars aiming to enhance their expertise and awareness in this field The focus on contemporary research and future directions of the psychology of women will be a welcome sophisticated addition to a syllabus for graduate courses in the psychology of women Retail Racism Michelle R. Dunlap, 2021-09-15 Videos capturing everyday indignities and injury toward Black or Brown consumers have become media staples showing the complexity risk and traumas many shoppers encounter in retail restaurants and other marketplaces But each one quickly fades in the media spotlight In Retail Racism Michelle Dunlap helps readers understand the ongoing experiences of Black and Brown people as they navigate this reality Based on 19 in depth interviews with consumers across the country Dunlap aims to create a larger discussion that engages readers and empowers them to interrupt disrupt and ameliorate the inappropriate and racialized handling of consumers in America today In doing so Retail Racism is about not only shopping but also humane living in America including surviving and making sense of inequitable experiences what to do about them and the larger issues and contexts that surround the marketplace for Black and Brown people A portion of the author proceeds from book sales are automatically donated to The Florida Education Fund FEF a non profit organization established in 1984 to help provide opportunities for educational advancement Journal of the First-year Experience & Students in Transition ,2009 Handbook on Service Learning in Women's Studies and the Disciplines Karen Dugger,2008 Service-Learning Code of Ethics Andrea Chapdelaine,Ana Ruiz,Judith Warchal,Carole Wells,2005-05-15 Envisioning a system of higher education that meets community needs by cultivating in students a commitment to civic engagement the authors of Service Learning Code of Ethics equip readers with the necessary insight and tools for navigating the ethical dilemmas that arise during the service learning process Designed for administrators instructors and students the book is intended to stimulate meaningful reflection class discussion and values exploration Its aim is to promote the practice of service learning by underscoring its benefits to society and student development The authors offer a basic road map for practicing service learning that includes An overview of service learning and its role in American higher education A review of existing professional codes and ethics A proposed code of ethics and model for ethical decision making Hypothetical dilemmas and question sets that help guide the reader to an understanding of the broader issues involved in service learning Templates to measure progress in adhering to the service learning code A general guideline for risk management in service learning While the stated mission of many colleges and universities is to teach the democratic ideals of the nation build moral character and cultivate an educated and engaged citizenry most fall short of incorporating this goal into their curricular programs By reflecting critically upon service learning experiences Service Learning Code of Ethics makes a constructive argument for change Report on the White House Strategy Session on Improving Hispanic Student Achievement ,2000 Resources in Education ,2001-10 Family Involvement in Children's Education ,2001 Leadership in Early Childhood Jill Harrison,Heather Munn,Rebecca Thistle,Diana Harris,Louise Atkins,Lauren Whale,2022-04-06 Leadership can be a challenging and complex area of practice but this textbook will be your essential guide teaching you how to master this important skill and find your professional voice The book considers the challenges of leadership in the early years exploring both the theoretical aspects and the skills and tools needed to support and develop leadership and mentoring in practice You will be encouraged to critically reflect on practice in a global context looking at vignettes case studies and reflections from international settings which will equip you with valuable transferable leadership skills applicable to any situation in practice SAMHSA News ,2007 Promoting Health and Academic Success David A.
