Play and Early Literacy Development James F. Christie,1991-01-01 This book overviews the sociolinguistic and psychological approaches to studying play and literacy It offers research studies that relate different aspects of play to emergent reading and writing behaviors The use of certain language structures storybook reenactments literacy activities during play and notions of reality and pretense are considered It also presents applied research on how manipulation of play environments teacher involvement in play and play training can promote literacy growth Laurie's Graduated series of reading lesson books James Stuart Laurie,1866 Self and Story in Early Childhood Hugh Crago,2022-09-22 Our children grow up into a world of stories in books on screens but what do they make of the stories we offer them What do they think and feel as they listen to a parent read a picture book What if a story confuses or upsets them Over the past fifty years

several intelligent committed mothers undertook the onerous task of recording exactly what their children said and did in response to the stories they shared Some of their records extended over five years or even longer Their research done without funding or academic supervision offers us unparalleled insight into children s minds long before they learn to speak let alone learn to read In Self and Story in Early Childhood Hugh Crago draws on his unusual combination of expertise in literary studies developmental psychology and psychotherapy to re examine the startling implications of this neglected body of evidence He highlights how much children can achieve without formal teaching but with the supportive presence of a trusted adult who will participate with them in the story experience This book will be of great interest to scholars of developmental psychology early literacy and narratology as well as to professionals working with preschoolers Most of all it will fascinate parents who themselves share stories with their child

Reading Step by Step , Two Books Are Better Than One! Shari Frost,2016-06-03 Today s early literacy programs are more demanding than ever No longer is it sufficient to teach letters letter sounds sight words and simple texts in kindergarten through second grade Children are expected to read and comprehend texts in a variety of genres with increasing complexity Then they must integrate the ideas and concepts from those texts into their own writing Two Books are Better Than One Reading and Writing and Talking and Drawing Across Texts in K 2 helps teachers meet those demands Each chapter contains an anchor lesson focused on a different way of connecting texts including by theme characters perspective structure or genre The lessons feature research based and common core aligned strategies interactive read alouds shared reading and writing scaffolded small group reading accountable talk close reading and opinion narrative and explanatory writing Each anchor lesson features two high quality children s books and each chapter is rounded out with a list of other recommended book pairs to support you in creating your own lessons
