Reading Berlin 19:

Reading Maimonides' Philosophy in 19th Century Germany George Y. Kohler, 2012-05-03 This book investigates the re-discovery of Maimonides' Guide of the Perplexed by the Wissenschaft des Judentums movement in Germany of the nineteenth and beginning twentieth century. Since this movement is inseparably connected with religious reforms that took place at about the same time it shall be demonstrated how the Reform Movement in Judaism used the Guide for its own agenda of historicizing, rationalizing and finally turning Judaism into a philosophical enterprise of ethical monotheism. The study follows the reception of Maimonidean thought and the Guide specifically through the nineteenth century from the first beginnings of early reformers in 1810 and their reading of Maimonides to the development of a sophisticated reform theology based on Maimonides in the writings of Hermann Cohen more than a hundred years later. Birmanische Handschriften, 2000

Sacred Rhetorical Education in 19th Century America Michael-John DePalma, 2020-01-29 This book offers new insight into the ways rhetorical educators' religious motives influenced the shape of nineteenth-century rhetorical education and invites scholars of writing and rhetoric to consider what the study of religiously animated pedagogies might reveal about rhetorical education itself. The author studies the rhetorical pedagogy of Austin Phelps, the prominent preacher and professor of sacred rhetoric at Andover Theological Seminary and his theologically motivated adaptation of rhetorical education to fit the exigencies of preachers at the first graduate seminary in the United States. In disclosing how Phelps was guided by his Christian motives, the book offers a thorough examination of how professional rhetoric was taught, learned and practiced in nineteenth-century America. It also provides an enriched understanding of rhetorical theories and pedagogies in American seminaries and contributes to a deepened awareness of the ways religious motives can function as resources that enable the reshaping of rhetorical theory and pedagogy in generative ways. Exploring the implications of Phelps's rhetorical theory and pedagogy for future studies of religious rhetoric, histories of rhetorical education and twenty-first-century writing pedagogy, this book will be essential reading for scholars and students of rhetoric education, American history, religious education and writing studies. Radio Service Bulletin, 1937 The Genealogy of the Cleveland and Cleaveland Families, 1899

Genesis 1-11, Second Edition James Chukwuma Okoye, 2025-05-05 Genesis 1-11: A Narrative Theological Commentary combines critical acumen with concern for the theological message of Scripture. It is a commentary in two stages. First, the text is allowed to speak for itself using a narrative approach. Then, specific Jewish and Christian traditions flowing from the text are identified and the underlying hermeneutical moves analyzed. The Life of Hiuen-Tsiang Hwui Li, 1888
