Raising an Active Reader Samantha Cleaver, 2020-05-18. This book will prove a valuable resource for parents, teachers, and librarians on the vital topic of reading aloud. Library Journal Starred Review. Parents and teachers know that reading aloud to children is important, and many parents of infants and toddlers read aloud to them daily. However, when children start to read on their own, parents often stop reading aloud. But these early elementary school years are actually a perfect time to build vocabulary and comprehension skills through reading aloud, and Active Reading: Raising an Active Reader makes clear the process of learning to read, how Active Reading fits into raising strong readers, and what adults can do to encourage strong language comprehension and vocabulary in children in grades K-3. This book extends on the ABCs of Active Reading: Ask Questions, Build Vocabulary, and make Connections, as they apply to older children for picture books, chapter books, and novels. It provides parents and teachers with examples, clear explanations, and ideas for making one-on-one or small group read aloud sessions a powerful way to build children's early literacy and language skills while creating a lifelong love of reading. English Learners at the Top of the Class Mayra C. Daniel, 2017-06-14. English Learners at the Top of the Class is a practice-oriented book that also contributes to the professional literature. It is written for teacher candidates and both new and experienced practicing teachers who want to design and deliver effective instructional paradigms across this country's diverse classrooms Chapter authors bring to this book their experiences as teachers at levels K-12 Many of them learned English as a second language and experienced life as an EL in U.S. classrooms They were all teachers who along the way began to work with ELs Their engagement with culturally diverse students led them to become teacher educators They are committed to preparing teachers who are energized to learn about their ELs' cultures and who want to make the schoolhouse a culturally responsive environment
