Li Zhensheng, Red-color News Soldier Zhensheng Li, Robert Pledge, Christy Johnson, Ciara Ennis, California Museum of Photography, University of California, Riverside, 2007 The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield, 2011-05-27 In The Cruel Radiance Susie Linfield challenges the idea that photographs of political violence exploit their subjects and pander to the voyeuristic tendencies of their viewers Instead she argues passionately that looking at such images and learning to see the people in them is an ethically and politically necessary act that connects us to our modern history of violence and probes the human capacity for cruelty Grappling with critics from Walter Benjamin and Bertolt Brecht to Susan Sontag and the postmoderns and analyzing photographs from such events as the Holocaust China's Cultural Revolution and recent terrorist acts Linfield explores the complex connection between photojournalism and the rise of human rights ideals In the book's concluding section she examines the indispensable work of Robert Capa James Nachtwey and Gilles Peress and asks how photography should respond to the increasingly nihilistic trajectory of modern warfare A bracing and unsettling book The Cruel Radiance convincingly demonstrates that if we hope to alleviate political violence we must first truly understand it and to do that we must begin to look Citizen Publications in China Before the Internet S. Jiang, 2015-06-16 This book presents the first panoramic study of mainland citizen publications in China before the Internet This recent history of citizen publications contributes to the reclamation of a lost past of resistance It is an exercise in remembering a past that has been marginalized by official history and recovering ideas obliterated by state power Animation in China Sean

Macdonald, 2015-11-06 By the turn of the 21st century animation production has grown to thousands of hours a year in the People's Republic of China PRC Despite this and unlike American blockbuster productions and the diverse genres of Japanese anime much animation from the PRC remains relatively unknown This book is an historical and theoretical study of animation in the PRC Although the Wan Brothers produced the first feature length animated film in 1941 the industry as we know it today truly began in the 1950s at the Shanghai Animation Film Studio SAFS which remained the sole animation studio until the 1980s Considering animation in China as a convergence of the institutions of education fine arts literature popular culture and film the book takes comparative approaches that link SAFS animation to contemporary cultural production including American and Japanese animation Pop Art and mass media theory Through readings of classic films such as Princess Iron Fan Uproar in Heaven Princess Peacock and Nezha Conquers the Dragon King this study represents a revisionist history of animation in the PRC as a form of postmodernism with Chinese characteristics As a theoretical exploration of animation in the People s Republic of China this book will appeal greatly to students and scholars of animation film studies Chinese studies cultural studies political and cultural theory Patrolling the Revolution Elizabeth J. Perry, 2007-08-24 This pioneering study explores the role of working class militias as vanguard and guardian of the Chinese Revolution The book begins with the origins of urban militias in the late nineteenth century and follows their development to the present day Elizabeth J Perry focuses on the institution of worker militias as a vehicle for analyzing the changing yet enduring impact of China s revolutionary heritage on subsequent state society relations She also incorporates a strong comparative perspective examining the influence of revolutionary militias on the political trajectories of the United States France the Soviet Union and Iran Based on exhaustive archival research the work raises fascinating questions about the construction of revolutionary citizenship the distinctions among class community and creed the open ended character of revolutionary movements and the path dependency of institutional change All readers interested in deepening their understanding of the Chinese Revolution and in the nature of revolutionary change more generally will find this an invaluable contribution Maoism Julia Lovell, 2019-09-03 WINNER OF THE 2019 CUNDILL HISTORY PRIZE SHORTLISTED FOR THE BAILLIE GIFFORD PRIZE FOR NON FICTION 2019 SHORTLISTED FOR THE NAYEF AL RODHAN PRIZE FOR GLOBAL UNDERSTANDING SHORTLISTED FOR DEUTSCHER PRIZE LONGLISTED FOR THE 2020 ORWELL PRIZE FOR POLITICAL WRITING Revelatory and instructive a beautifully written and accessible book The Times For decades the West has dismissed Maoism as an outdated historical and political phenomenon Since the 1980s China seems to have abandoned the utopian turmoil of Mao s revolution in favour of authoritarian capitalism But Mao and his ideas remain central to the People s Republic and the legitimacy of its Communist government With disagreements and conflicts between China and the West on the rise the need to understand the political legacy of Mao is urgent and growing The power and appeal of Maoism have extended far beyond China Maoism was a crucial motor of the Cold War it shaped the course of the Vietnam War and the international youth rebellions that conflict triggered and brought to power the murderous Khmer Rouge in Cambodia it aided and sometimes handed victory to anti colonial resistance movements in Africa it inspired terrorism in Germany and Italy and wars and insurgencies in Peru India and Nepal some of which are still with us today more than forty years after the death of Mao In this new history Julia Lovell re evaluates Maoism as both a Chinese and an international force linking its evolution in China with its global legacy It is a story that takes us from the tea plantations of north India to the sierras of the Andes from Paris s fifth arrondissement to the fields of Tanzania from the rice paddies of Cambodia to the terraces of Brixton Starting with the birth of Mao s revolution in northwest China in the 1930s and concluding with its violent afterlives in South Asia and resurgence in the People's Republic today this is a landmark history of global Maoism In the House of the Hangman volume 6 John Bloomberg-Rissman, 2016-12-31 A marathon dance mix consisting of thousands of mashed up text and image samples In the House of the Hangman tries to give a taste of what life is like there where it is impolite to speak of the noose It is the third part of the life project Zeitgeist Spam If you can't afford a copy ask me for a pdf Curating Revolution Denise Y. Ho, 2018 Curating Revolution examines how Mao era exhibitions shaped popular understandings of and participation in the political campaigns of China's Communist revolution Memory, Subjectivity and Independent Chinese Cinema Qi Wang, 2014-09-19 Memory Subjectivity and Independent Chinese Cinema provides a historically informed examination of independent moving image works made between 1990 and 2010 in China Showcasing an evolving personal mode of narrating memory documenting reality and inscribing subjectivity in over sixteen selected works that range from narrative film and documentary to experimental video and digital media even including a multimedia avant garde play this book presents a provocative portrait of the independent filmmakers as a peculiarly pained yet active group of historical subjects of the transitional post socialist era Through a connected investigation of cultural and cinematic concepts including historical consciousness personal memory narrative performance subjectivity spatiality and the body Wang weaves a critical narrative of the formation of a unique post socialist cultural consciousness that enables independent cinema and media to become a highly significant and effective conduit for historical thinking in contemporary China Covering directors such as Zhang Yimou Chen Kaige Jia Zhangke Jiang Wen Lou Ye Meng Jinghui Wang Bing Wang Guangli Duan Jinchuan Cui Zi'en Shi Tou and Tang Danhong this book is essential reading for all students and scholars in Chinese film Historical Dictionary of the Chinese Communist Party Lawrence R. society and culture highlighting many changes in daily life employment and the economy Kraus also situates this very nationalist outburst of Chinese radicalism within a global context showing that the Cultural Revolution was mirrored in the radical youth movement that swept much of the world and that had imagined or emotional links to China's red guards Yet it was also during the Cultural Revolution that China and the United States tempered their long hostility one of the innovations in this period that sowed the seeds for China's subsequent decades of spectacular economic growth

Out of China Robert Bickers, 2017-03-30 SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2018 WOLFSON HISTORY PRIZE The extraordinary and essential story of how China became the powerful country it is today Even at the high noon of Europe's empires China managed to be one of the handful of countries not to succumb Invaded humiliated and looted China nonetheless kept its sovereignty Robert Bickers major new book is the first to describe fully what has proved to be one of the modern era's most important stories the long often agonising process by which the Chinese had by the end of the 20th century regained control of their own country Out of China uses a brilliant array of unusual strange and vivid sources to recreate a now fantastically remote world the corrupt lurid modernity of pre War Shanghai the often tiny patches of extra territorial land controlled by European powers one of which unnoticed had mostly toppled into a river the entrepôts of Hong Kong and Macao and the myriad means through armed threats technology and legal chicanery by which China was kept subservient Today Chinese nationalism stays firmly rooted in memories of its degraded past the quest for self sufficiency a determination both to assert China's standing in the world and its outstanding territorial claims and never to be vulnerable to renewed attack History matters deeply to Beijing's current rulers and Out of China explains why Utopian Ruins Jie Li, 2020-10-26 In Utopian Ruins Jie Li traces the creation, preservation, and elision of memories about China's Mao era by envisioning a virtual museum that reckons with both its utopian yearnings and its cataclysmic reverberations. Li proposes a critical framework for understanding the documentation and transmission of the socialist past that mediates between nostalgia and trauma, anticipation and retrospection, propaganda and testimony. Assembling each chapter like a memorial exhibit, Li explores how corporeal traces—archival documents, camera images, and material relics—serve as commemorative media. Prison writings and police files reveal the infrastructure of state surveillance and testify to revolutionary ideals and violence, victimhood, and complicity. Photojournalism from the Great Leap Forward and documentaries from the Cultural Revolution promoted faith in communist miracles while excluding darker realities, whereas Mao memorabilia, factory ruins, and memorials at trauma sites remind audiences of the Chinese Revolution's unrealized dreams and staggering losses.

The Art of Resistance Shelley Drake Hawks, 2017-11-20 The Art of Resistance surveys the lives of seven painters: Ding Cong (1916–2009), Feng Zikai (1898–1975), Li Keran (1907–89), Li Kuchan (1898–1983), Huang Yongyu (b. 1924), Pan Tianshou (1897–1971), and Shi Lu (1919–82) during China's Cultural Revolution (1966–1976), a time when they were considered counterrevolutionary and were forbidden to paint. Drawing on interviews with the artists and their families and on materials collected during her visits to China, Shelley Drake Hawks examines their painting styles, political outlooks, and life experiences. These fiercely independent artists took advantage of moments of low surveillance to secretly paint by candlelight. In doing so, they created symbolically charged art that is open to multiple interpretations. The wit, courage, and compassion of these painters will inspire respect for the deep emotional and spiritual resonance of Chinese art.

Domination or Empowerment? Esther G. Cen, 2023-09-12 This book argues that Paul, as God's accountable steward, seeks not to dominate the Corinthians but to empower them to mature in their understanding and conduct themselves appropriately under the cruciform authority of Jesus Christ. It invites readers to revisit the merely negative notion of power in deconstructionist power discourses and reconsider the importance of good uses of power in building up a faith community.
