Cultural Technologies Göran Bolin, 2012 The essays in this volume discuss both the culture of technology that we live in today and culture as technology Within the chapters of the book cultures of technology and cultural technologies are discussed focussing on a variety of examples from varied national contexts The book brings together internationally recognised scholars from the social sciences and humanities covering diverse themes such as intellectual property server farms and search engines cultural technologies and epistemology virtual embassies surveillance peer to peer file sharing sound media and nostalgia and much more It contains both historical and contemporary analyses of technological phenomena as well as epistemological discussions on the uses of technology

Re-reading Popular Culture Joke Hermes, 2008-04-15 Re-reading Popular Culture is an entertaining investigation of the meanings and value of popular culture today It explores the theme of cultural citizenship by combining textual analysis and media reception theory to analyze popular culture Includes such contemporary issues as the rewriting of masculinity after the success of feminism and the layers of meaning in semi public and private talk of multiculturalism and ethnicity Traces its topics across a variety of media forms and texts including sports detective fiction and police series and children's television and games Clearly and accessibly written for the student scholar and general reader

The Oxford Handbook of Digital Technology and Society Simeon Yates, Ronald E. Rice, 2020-06-01 Required reading for anyone interested in the profound relationship between digital technology and society Digital technology has become an undeniable facet of our social lives defining our governments communities and personal identities Yet with these technologies in ongoing evolution it is difficult to gauge the full extent of their societal impact leaving researchers and policy makers with the challenge of staying up to date on a field that is constantly in flux The Oxford Handbook of Digital Technology and Society provides students researchers and practitioners across the technology and social science sectors with a comprehensive overview of the foundations for understanding the various relationships between digital technology and society Combining robust computer aided reviews of current literature from the UK Economic and Social Research Council's commissioned project Ways of Being in a Digital Age with newly commissioned chapters this handbook illustrates the upcoming research questions and challenges facing the social sciences as they address the societal impacts of digital media and technologies across seven broad categories citizenship and politics communities and identities communication and relationships health and well being economy and sustainability data and representation and governance and security Individual chapters feature important practical and ethical explorations into topics such as technology and the aging digital literacies work home boundary machines in the workforce digital censorship and surveillance big data governance and regulation and technology in the public sector The Oxford Handbook of Digital Technology and Society will equip readers with the necessary starting points and provocations in the field so that scholars and policy makers can effectively assess future research practice and policy

Mediating Politics: Newspapers, Radio, Television and the Internet Neil Washbourne, 2010-04-16 For anyone interested in the relationship between politics and mass media this is a key book Neil Washbourne combines a compendious knowledge of modern forms of communication with an astute and sophisticated analysis of contemporary politics Mediating Politics is theoretically subtle and empirically detailed offering a new perspective on a vital topic Professor John Street University of East Anglia UK In the vast field that political communication has become Neil Washbourne's book stands out Admirable and helpful work for both students and scholars new to the topic Professor Liesbet van Zoonen Erasmus University Rotterdam How is politics reported in the media How does the relationship between the media and political organizations affect the political messages that are conveyed How do members of the public access and make sense of political messages This book critically analyses the complex relationship between media and politics beginning with a discussion of what is meant by the mediating of politics The author outlines the ways in which political messages are formulated broadcast and received as well as examining the ways in which the media and political organisations are linked to one another The author also analyses the relationship between the media and Globalisation De regulation of the media Apathy of audiences Illustrated throughout with case studies from the US UK and from across the world the book also explores Celebrity politicians How different national media systems encourage or discourage political engagement How young people engage with the media and politics How the Internet has affected the organization of politics and news media Mediating Politics is key reading for media communication cultural and political studies students Communication Yearbook 24 William Gudykunst,2012-03-22 Communication Yearbook 24 originally published in 2001 comprises essays that address the current status of theory and research in each division and interest group of the International Communication Association ICA It focusses on the following questions What are the parameters of the division interest group and what is the relationship of the division within other groups What are the major theories used and what research is there to support these theories What are the major lines of research and what are the main issues with which scholars must cope in the twenty first century Crossing Over Harold M. Foster,2013-09-05 Primary text for secondary English language arts methods courses

Takes a meaning centered approach to integrated English language arts curriculum and instruction Includes teaching of film television and new technologies Seducing America Roderick P. Hart,1999 These feelings have become television s distinctive currency postmodern tokens for a manifestly uncertain world Hart explores the considerable costs of this legacy for governance and urges that it be supplanted by a New Puritanism a set of community based attitudes badly needed in the nation at present Noam Chomsky: On Power, Knowledge and Human Nature P. Wilkin,1997-04-30 Noam Chomsky is among the most influential contemporary thinkers Peter Wilkin looks in particular at the philosophical basis of his social and political thought especially his ideal about power knowledge and human nature He shows how Chomsky s ideas can help to defend naturalism as in social and political thought Chomsky s critical writings of social inquiry and his normative ideas on libertarian socialism and human emancipation are interpreted as synthesising a number of important ideas and approaches at a time when these ideas have fallen out of favour The Routledge Companion to Religion and Popular Culture

John C. Lyden,Eric Michael Mazur,2015-03-27 Religion and popular culture is a fast growing field that spans a variety of disciplines This volume offers the first real survey of the field to date and provides a guide for the work of future scholars It explores key issues of definition and of methodology religious encounters with popular culture across media material culture and space ranging from videogames and social networks to cooking and kitsch architecture and national monuments representations of religious traditions in the media and popular culture including important non Western spheres such as Bollywood This Companion will serve as an enjoyable and informative resource for students and a stimulus to future scholarly work Framing Friction Mary S. Mander,1999 In a culture where the media provide a steady diet of stories of conflict this collection is among the first to study the phenomenon of conflict itself as well as its relationship with the media Mary S Mander s introduction provides an intellectually rich foundation for this diverse exploration of the nature and implications of studying media and social conflict Contributors address such topics as the black press and the black community industrial and institutional control of television programming and media depictions of police mediated hostage negotiation Framing Friction is both a comparison of current modes of communications research and a persuasive call to move beyond conceiving of conflict as a state of dysfunction These essays bring a new and invigorating perspective to the role of conflict describing it as a constructive rather than a destructive social force

Interrogating the Image Del Jacobs, 2009-09-22 Interrogating the Image argues that movies examining the role film and television plays in the lives of their audience have created changes both in the movies themselves and in their viewers and considers fourteen films where the moving picture is central to the narratives Three films discussed The Purple Rose of Cairo Pleasantville and The Truman Show offer frame breaking experiences for their characters that allow spectators to appreciate the ruptures between lived reality and media play delivering therapeutic payoffs that can be restorative reconstructive or rejective Other examples come from the worlds of cinema The Majestic Matinee Cinema Paradiso television Bamboozled Network Natural Born Killers Medium Cool and the sociopolitical realm where media dominates Being There Wag the Dog Bob Roberts Bulworth Meanwhile significant interpretive stances reflective reflexive critical and ironic are engendered and embraced by filmmakers and audiences who create and consume these works The result is a media saturated culture in transformation and best understood using cinema s interrogative resources
