Redruff The Partridge Of Don Valley:

Redruff, the Partridge of Don Valley, 1994      Tales of the Don Charles Sauriol, 1984-11-15 I remember them as though they had happened yesterday So writes author naturalist Charles Sauriol in reference to his many memorable experiences within Toronto's Don River Valley From Scout outings in 1920 to pioneer cottaging train excursions maple syrup making beekeeping and countless other activities the author's long association with the Don makes for fascinating reading in this sequel to his earlier book Remembering the Don Tales of the Don provides for Toronto residents and visitors alike a picture window through which they may see the valley as it was years ago A vital part of a great city's heritage has been preserved thanks to Charles Sauriol's foresight tenacity and unshakeable love of subject Once again The King of the Don Valley in his quaint and refreshing way has written a book that will delight his sizeable following and undoubtedly gain for him many new readers

Home Feelings Jody Mason, 2019-12-18 Literature literacy and citizenship took on new and contested meanings in early twentieth century Canada particularly in frontier work camps In this critical history of the reading camp movement Jody Mason undertakes the first sustained analysis of the organization that became Frontier College in 1919 Employing an interdisciplinary approach Home Feelings investigates how the reading camp movement used fiction poetry songs newspapers magazines school readers and English as a second language and citizenship manuals to encourage ideas of selfhood that were individual and intimate rather than collective Mason shows that British Canadian settlers desire to define themselves in relation to an expanding non British immigrant population as well as a need for immigrant labour put new pressure on the concept of citizenship in the first decades of the twentieth century Through the Frontier College one of the nation's earliest citizenship education programs emerged drawing on literature's potential to nourish home feelings as a means of engaging socialist and communist print cultures and the non British immigrant communities with which these were associated Shifting the focus away from urban centres and postwar state narratives of citizenship Home Feelings tracks the importance of reading projects and conceptions of literacy to the emergence of liberal citizenship in Canada prior to the Second World War

Remembering the Don 2-Book Bundle Charles Sauriol, 2016-09-19 More than just a Parkway the Don Valley is a vital natural habitat in Toronto's city core Naturalist Charles Sauriol was a key player in its preservation Here Sauriol shares a history of the Don Valley from earlier times when the Mississauga First Nation encamped along the river teeming with salmon to cottaging to the naturalists who worked to save the Don Valley This two book bundle includes Remembering the Don A Rare Record of Earlier Times Within the Don River Valley A tribute to the earlier days of the Don River Valley Mississauga First Nation camped along a Don River teeming with salmon red coated militia regiments and courageous pioneers Tales of the Don From Scout outings in 1920 to pioneer cottaging the author's long association with the Don makes for fascinating reading in this sequel to Remembering the Don

Wild Animals I Have Known a collection of short stories published in 1898 was Ernest Thompson Seton s most popular work and one of the most popular fiction books of its day The stories are largely independent of each other with each one following the life of a different animal They explore themes of survival in a world populated by humans and other creatures and the challenges that each animal faces in its efforts to thrive Each story touches on the duality between the beauty and brutality of the natural world The collection as a whole illustrates recurring themes of triumph and tragedy while painting a picture of the great freedom and grave danger that animals face every day of their lives In his 1903 essay Real and Sham Natural History naturalist John Burroughs blamed this book in particular for founding the genre of stories he called Nature Fakers sparking a controversy that raged for years and only ended when President Theodore Roosevelt publicly sided with Burroughs in September 1907 While the book s anthropomorphization of animals through Seton s use of English words to represent the animals language was one of the characteristics at the center of its controversy Wild Animals I Have Known was among the first literary works written with the intent to evoke a sense of empathy rather than fear for these wild animals by showing that even for predators survival in the wild is never easy This book is part of the Standard Ebooks project which produces free public domain ebooks The Canadian Teacher ... Gideon E.
