Reinhold Wagnleitner argues that cultural propaganda played an enormous part in integrating Austrians and other Europeans into the American sphere during the Cold War In Coca Colonization and the Cold War he shows that Americanization was the result not only of market forces and consumerism but also of systematic planning on the part of the United States Wagnleitner traces the intimate relationship between the political and economic reconstruction of a democratic Austria and the parallel process of cultural assimilation Initially U S cultural programs had been developed to impress Europeans with the achievements of American high culture However popular culture was more readily accepted at least among the young who were the primary target group of the propaganda campaign The prevalence of Coca Cola and rock n roll are just two examples addressed by Wagnleitner Soon the cultural hegemony of the United States became visible in nearly all quarters of Austrian life the press advertising comics literature education radio music theater and fashion Hollywood proved particularly effective in spreading American cultural ideals For Europeans says Wagnleitner the result was a second discovery of America This book is a translation of the Austrian edition published in 1991 which won the Ludwig Jedlicka Memorial Prize ROY, "ROCKY" & RED RYDER; "HOPPY," DURANGO & MO[O]RE Dr. Jim Vickrey, Ph.D., reconstructs the history of one of cinema's greatest ruins Kinds of American Film Comedy Wes D. Gehring, 2024-02-14 This groundbreaking film study begins with a survey of American print humorists from eras leading up to and overlapping the advent of film including some who worked both on the page and on the screen like Robert Benchley Will Rogers Groucho Marx and W C Fields Six comic film genres are identified as outgrowths of a national tradition of Cracker Barrel philosophers personality comedy parody screwball comedy romantic comedy and dark comedy Whether it is Mark Twain or a parody film involving Steve Martin comedy is most often about blowing raspberries at the world and a reminder you are not alone A Certain Tendency of the Hollywood Cinema, 1930-1980 Robert B. Ray, 2020-07-21 Robert B Ray examines the ideology of the most enduringly popular cinema in the world the Hollywood movie Aided by 364 frame enlargements he describes the development of that historically overdetermined form giving close readings of five typical instances Casablanca It's a Wonderful Life The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance The Godfather and Taxi Driver Like the heroes of these movies American filmmaking has avoided commitment in both plot and technique Instead of choosing left or right avant garde or tradition American cinema tries to have it both ways Although Hollywood's commercial success has led the world audience to equate the American cinema with film itself Hollywood filmmaking is a particular strategy designed to respond to specific historical situations As an art restricted in theoretical scope but rich in individual variations the American cinema poses the most interesting question of popular culture Do dissident forms have any chance of remaining free of a mass medium seeking to co-opt them The Edward G. Robinson Encyclopedia Robert Beck, 2015-09-16 Edward G Robinson a 1930s cinema icon had an acting career that spanned more than 60 years After a brush with silent films he rose to true celebrity status in sound feature films and went on to take part in radio and television performances then back to Broadway and on the road in live theatre This work documents Robinson's every known public performance or appearance listing co-workers source material background and critical commentary The entries include feature films documentaries short subjects cartoons television and radio productions live theatre presentations narrations pageants and recordings Also included are entries relating to his life and career ranging from his wives to his art collection Five Came Back Mark Harris, 2015-02-24 One of The Hollywood Reporter's 100 Greatest Film Books of All Time One of the great works of film history of the decade Slate Now a Netflix original documentary series also written by Mark Harris the extraordinary wartime experience of five of Hollywood's most important directors all of whom put their stamp on World War II and were changed by it forever Here is the remarkable untold story of how five major Hollywood directors John Ford George Stevens John Huston William Wyler and Frank Capra changed World War II and how in turn the war changed them In a move unheard of at the time the U S government farmed out its war propaganda effort to Hollywood allowing these directors the freedom to film in combat zones as never before They were on the scene at almost every major moment of America's war shaping the public's collective consciousness of what we've now come to call the good fight The product of five years of scrupulous archival research Five Came Back provides a revelatory new understanding of Hollywood's role in the war through the life and work of these five men who chose to go and who came back Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski, 2008-08-27 In Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski rewrites an important part of the history of American cinema During the 1920s and 1930s film industry executives had centralized the mass production of feature pictures in a series of gigantic film factories scattered across Southern California while maintaining New York as the economic and administrative center But as Koszarski reveals many writers producers and directors also continued to work here especially if their independent vision was too big for the Hollywood production line

Larger Than Life R. Barton Palmer, 2010-06-30 The constellation of Hollywood stars burned brightly in the 1950s even as the industry fell on hard economic times Major artists of the 1940s James Stewart Jerry Lewis and Gregory Peck continued to exert a magical appeal but the younger generation of moviegoers was soon enthralled by an emerging cast led by James Dean and Marlon Brando They among others ushered in a provocative acting style the Method bringing hard edged realistic performances to the screen Adult oriented small budget dramas were ideal showcases for Method actors startlingly realized when Brando seized the screen in On the Waterfront But with competition from television looming Hollywood also featured film making of epic proportion Ben Hur and other cinema wonders rode onto the screen with amazing spectacle making stars of physically impressive performers such as Charlton Heston Larger Than Life offers a comprehensive view of the star system in 1950s Hollywood and also in depth discussions of the decade's major stars including Montgomery Clift Judy Holliday Jerry Lewis James Mason Marilyn Monroe Kim Novak Bing Crosby Gene Kelly Jayne Mansfield and Audrey Hepburn Backstory 2 Patrick McGilligan, 1991 Interviews with screenwriters Susan Hayward Kim R. Revolution Mark Harris, 2008 Documents the cultural revolution behind the making of 1967's five Best Picture nominated films including Guess Who's Coming to Dinner, The Graduate, Doctor Doolittle, In the Heat of the Night, and Bonnie and Clyde in an account that discusses how the movies reflected period beliefs about race, violence, and identity. 40,000 first printing.

Orson Welles, Shakespeare, and Popular Culture Michael A. Anderegg, 1999 Anderegg considers Welles's influence as an interpreter of Shakespeare for twentieth-century American popular audiences drawing on his knowledge of the abundant lowbrow popularity of Shakespeare in nineteenth-century America. Welles's three film adaptations of Shakespeare, Macbeth, Othello, and Chimes at Midnight, are examined. D.W. Griffith: Master of Cinema Ira H. Gallen, 2015-12-15 Exhaustively researched and accessibly written, D.W. Griffith: Master of Cinema is a remarkably comprehensive biography of the legendary director and his days creating his craft at the American Biograph Company between 1908 through 1913. Meticulously detailed, utilizing a wealth of archival documents and photographs, the book effectively details Griffith's place as a film pioneer. Even a casual film fan can see the lines being drawn from the techniques Griffith developed to modern cinematic experience. Ira Gallen's exploration of Griffith's family and his early life sets the stage for his career and gives great context for who he would become. His intricate details about early stage and film paint such a vivid and evocative picture of the time that you will be truly drawn into another world while reading it. Butterfly McQueen Remembered Stephen Bourne, 2008 From her memorable role in Gone With the Wind to her last big screen appearance opposite Harrison Ford in The Mosquito Coast, the details of McQueen's life are captured in this book.
