Reflections Of A Society Gambler On The Game Of Life:

Thoughts and Reflections on Modern Society with an Introduction on the Gradual Social Evolution of Primitive Man A. Featherman, 1894      Law in Society: Reflections on Children, Family, Culture and Philosophy Alison Diduck, Noam Peleg, Helen Reece, 2015-08-24 This collection written by legal scholars from around the world offers insights into a variety of topics from children's rights to criminal law jurisprudence medical ethics and more Its breadth reflects the fact that these are all elements of what can broadly be called law and society that enterprise that is interested in law's place or influence in different aspects of real lives and understands law to be simultaneously symbol philosophy and action It is also testament to the broad range of vision of Professor Michael Freeman in whose honour the volume was conceived The contributions are divided into categories which reflect his distinguished career and publications over 85 books and countless articles including pioneering work on children's rights domestic violence religious law jurisprudence law and culture family law and medicine ethics and the law as well as his enduring commitment to interdisciplinarity The volume begins with work on law in its philosophical cultural or symbolic realm Part I Law and Stories Culture Religion and Philosophy including its commitment to the normative ideal of rights Part II Law and Rights and then offers work on law as coercive state action Part III Law and the Coercive State and as regulator of personal relationships Part IV Law and Personal Living It continues with reflections on the importance of globalisation both of law and of doing family in personal and public life Part V Law and International Living before closing with two reflections on Michael Freeman's body of work generally including one from Michael himself Part VI Law and Michael Freeman      Esthetics of the Moment Thomas M. Kavanagh, 2015-11-16 The literature and art of the French Enlightenment is everywhere marked by an intense awareness of the moment The parallel projects of living in representing and learning from the moment run through the Enlightenment's endeavors as tokens of an ambition and a heritage imposing its only and ultimately impossible cohesion In this illuminating study Thomas M Kavanagh argues that Enlightenment culture and its tensions contradictions and achievements flow from a subversive attention to the present as present freed from the weight of past and future Examining a wide sweep of literary and artistic culture Kavanagh argues against the traditional view of the Age of Reason as one of coherent recognizable ideology expressed in a structured narrative form In literature he analyzes the moment at work in the inebriating lightness of Marivaux's repartee the new found freedom of Lahontan's and Rousseau's ideals of a consciousness limited to the present Diderot's championing of Epicurean epistemology Graffigny's portrayal of abrupt cultural displacement and Casanova's penchant for chance's redefining moment The moment in art theory and practice is explored in such forms as de Piles's defense of color Du Bos's foregrounding of perception Watteau's indulgence in a corporeal present Chardin's dismantling of mimesis and Boucher's and Fragonard's thematics of desire      The Gaming Table Andrew Steinmetz, 1870      Procedural Storytelling in Game Design Tanya X. Short, Tarn Adams, 2019-03-14 This edited collection of chapters concerns the evolving discipline of procedural storytelling in video games Games are an interactive medium and this interplay between author player and machine provides new and exciting ways to create and tell stories In each essay practitioners of this artform demonstrate how traditional storytelling tools such as characterization world building theme momentum and atmosphere can be adapted to full effect using specific examples from their games The reader will learn to construct narrative systems write procedural dialog and generate compelling characters with unique personalities and backstories Key Features Introduces the differences between static traditional game design and procedural game design Demonstrates how to solve or avoid common problems with procedural game design in a variety of concrete ways World s finest guide for how to begin thinking about procedural design

Gambling in the Nineteenth-Century English Novel Michael Flavin,2003-01-01 This text explores the theme of gambling in a range of 19th century English novels It examines the representation of gambling in the novels the role that gambling played in the lives of the novelists and gambling in the novels within the context of the development of Victorian society

Sporting with the Gods Michael Oriard,1991-02-22 Sporting with the Gods examines the rhetoric of game and play and sport in American culture from the time of the Puritans to the 1980s Focusing on writers and public figures who dominated public discourse Oriard shows how the trope of game and play in fiction and in religious social and economic writings can be used to graph changes in the religious and social climate from the Puritans through the Transcendentalists to the Social Darwinists and from the Beats and hippies to the New Age spiritualists of the present decade He also uses the trope to graph the shifting attitudes toward work and play in the game of business as the United States moved to industrial capitalism and then to a postindustrial society of consumerism and leisure The result is a history of this country from its inception through the lens of a single trope resonating with implications at every strata of American culture from back cover

British gambling prevalence survey 2007 Heather Wardle,National Centre for Social Research,Gambling Commission,2007-10-03 This report carried out by the National Centre for Social Research sets out the results of the British Gambling Prevalence Survey BGPS 2007 the second nationally representative survey of its kind the first was undertaken in 1999 Based on a random sample of just over 9 000 people the survey contains data on attitudes to gambling levels of participation and the prevalence of problem gambling The report will provide the Gambling Commission and the Government with some important benchmark information which will help assess the overall impact of the Gambling Act following its full implementation on 1st September 2007 Findings include that 68 per cent had participated in some form of gambling activity within the past year compared to 72 per cent in 1999 The most popular activities were the National Lottery Draw 57 per cent0 scratchcards 20 per cent horserace betting 17 per cent and playing slot machines 14 per cent Six per cent of the population used the internet to gamble in the past year
