Reflections On The Economic Transition:

Economic Transition and Political Legitimacy in Post-Mao China Feng Chen, 1995-09-14 Tracing the role of ideas in Chinese economic reform from 1978 to the present this book explores the conversion of China's policymakers to capitalist economic thinking Chen argues that the reform process has created a gap between the legitimacy of the leadership which remains rooted in Marxist Leninist ideology and the practice of reform which has abandoned such ideological constraints Through a systematic survey of party documents and resolutions official publications leaders speeches academic journals and newspapers Chen shows how Chinese policymakers reconceptualized the ownership system and adjusted related policies Focusing on a number of economic policy issue areas such as state economy rural reform privatization and income distribution he analyzes in depth the implications of this gap for the current Chinese leadership and the future of China's political development

Reflections on the Economy of Rwanda Augustin Ndirabatsire, 2022-06-16 The performance figures achieved by the Rwandan economy for the past three decades demonstrate an exceptional growth in real GDP They are of real interest for economists because Rwanda has been in a state of almost perpetual war during that time whether through internal conflict or through international wars conducted directly or through proxies and militias This book examines the accuracy of these figures and asks why despite such growth Rwanda remains a country of marked inequality and poverty

Development and Investment in Infrastructure in Developing Countries: A 10-Year Reflection Innocent Musonda, Erastus Mwanaumo, Adetayo Onososen, Retsepile Kalaoane, 2024-12-20 Development and Investment in Infrastructure in Developing Countries A 10 Year Reflection includes the contributions to the 10th International Conference on Development and Investment In infrastructure DII 2024 Livingstone Zambia 24-26 July 2024 The papers discuss evaluate and devise ways of maximising the benefits of infrastructure development and achieve outputs that will inform policy and wider development goals This Open Access book is invaluable to leaders researchers practitioners and stakeholders involved or interested in infrastructure development in developing countries

Demystifying the Chinese Economy Justin Yifu Lin, 2012 An insightful account of the remarkable transition of the Chinese economy from impoverished backwater to economic powerhouse

Managing Workforce Development in the 21st Century: Global Reflections and Forward Thinking in the New Millennium Henry O'Lawrence, 2016 The book begins with the premise that workforce education is a global issue and is becoming increasingly competitive It is important for the reader to understand the concept of work historically as well as its meaning and implications to individuals Understanding this history leads to better instruction education and training which can solve many human performance problems in the workplace Workforce Education Occupational Training Instruction or Career Education Vocational Education or Technical Education is used interchangeably throughout this book The concept of today's workforce development is universal As a college professor I believe I have an ethical obligation to promote learning to ensure health and safety to protect the public and private trust and to promote the transfer of learning A second premise of this book is that there are common issues and problems in the workplace This book provides in a single volume the knowledge base common to all work settings for today s students regardless of their specialty Thus the book was designed for students to think globally and to understand how to be and what it takes to be competitive in the global economy

The Future of Local Economic Development Ines Newman,2013-09-13 This book looks at the future role of local economic development Once New Labour came to power in 1997 they sought a third way between the new right agenda of Thatcherism with its attempts to reduce the role of the local state and foster a free market and the left s attempts to take more control over the local economy in the interest of workers In July 2007 Gordon Brown s government published the Review of Sub national Economic Development and Regeneration This book argues that competitiveness and neo liberalism or increased market domination over an ever wider range of social relations have in reality dominated New Labour s policies Yet a number of contradictions remain as New Labour continues to seek a reduction in poverty and regional and local disparities The book analyses the changes that will result from further market domination under the Sub national Review but also the opportunities that will arise for local economic development agents particularly those with a concern for social justice It looks specifically at regional and sub regional strategy making partnership networking and building institutional capacity local labour market policy and policy towards cities An additional feature of the book is that several authors draw on international comparisons This book was published as a special issue of Local Economy

Land Use: Reflection On Spatial Informatics Agriculture And Development Mrityunjay M. Jha And R.B. Singh,2008 With reference to India

African Development Perspectives: A Holistic Reflection T A Ngwana,2024-01-05 Africa remains a continent that is yet to achieve its full potentials despite an abundance of resources and a rich cultural pedigree There have been various attempts to dissect the impediments to the continent s progress in its march towards development and true independence Consequently this book moves away from mere identification of challenges to proffering solutions The ideas put forward about African development in this book draw from a multiplicity of backgrounds They are also offered through the prism of the lived experiences of contributors who are keen on engendering an African solution that weaves global dynamics into Africa s cultural context and did not shy away from identifying themselves as global citizens from Africa The compelling read is a critical appraisal of germane issues in Africa s quest for development which speaks truth to both the powerful and the powerless within and beyond Africa on why prioritising Africa s development is as pressing as the Global climate catastrophe

Reflections and Extensions on Key Papers of the First Twenty-Five Years of Advances Jerome A. Katz,Andrew C. Corbett,2018-12-14 Written and edited by some of the world s leading entrepreneurship academics this anniversary volume showcases three of the most influential chapters from the series along with author reflections as well as new papers showing how these classic ideas connect and energize leading edge contemporary research in entrepreneurship and related fields

Economic Development Strategies and the Evolution of Violence in Latin America W. Ascher,N.

Mirovitskaya,2016-01-19 Economic Development Strategies and the Evolution of Violence in Latin America explores the links between Latin American governments economic policies and the nature and dynamics of inter group violence Based on the patterns of ten countries the contributions to this volume trace the remarkable transformation from open ideological conflict to the explosion of social seemingly apolitical violence the upsurge of urban crime and the confrontations over natural resources and drugs across the region spanning from Mexico to Argentina The variations in economic success and in conflict prevention and transformation can guide policymakers development professionals and activists committed to conflict sensitive development      Development Economics in the Twenty-First Century Claudia Sunna, Davide Gualerzi,2015-12-14 Development Economics has been identified as a homogeneous body of theory since the 1950s concerned both with the study of development issues and with the shaping of more effective policies for less advanced economies Development Economics in the Twenty First Century brings together an international contributor team in order to explore the origins and evolution of development economics This book highlights the different elements of high development theory through a precise reconstruction of the different theoretical approaches that developed between the 1950s and the 1970s These include the theory of balanced and unbalanced growth theory the debate on international trade the concept of dualism dependency theory structuralism and the analysis of poverty and institutions The chapters highlight the relevance and usefulness of these analyses for the contemporary theoretical debate on development issues Comparative perspectives are explored and analysed including those of Keynes Hirschman Krugman and Stiglitz The chapters situate development economics within current debates among economists and historians of economic thought providing a platform for future research This book is suitable for researchers and students with an interest in Development Economics the History of Economic development and the Economics of Developing Countries      The China-led Belt and Road Initiative and its Reflections Mehdi Parvizi Amineh,2022-07-12 This book analyzes the origins and the impacts of China s Belt and Road Initiative BRI on diplomacy economy trade investment finance and security among selected host countries and regions in Asia Africa and the European Union By examining the geopolitical economy of BRI activities it concisely describes the impact of the rise of China and its BRI policy strategy on the reshaping of world order and global governance This volume explores the BRI by addressing several key questions including Why did the Chinese leadership set up the BRI What are the activities of BRI projects in the participating countries and related regions What are the challenges to the successful implementation of the BRI in the various countries and regions Moreover through its analysis of the abovementioned questions it provides novel contributions to the ongoing scholarly debates between Chinese and non Chinese scholars among others the debate surrounding the rise of China and its impact on global governance Featuring an extensive variety of expert contributors this study will be an essential reading for students and scholars of International Relations and Global Political Economy as well as Chinese politics and those with an interest in the Belt and Road Initiative more broadly      History and Political Economy Tony

Aspromourgos, John Lodewijks, 2004-08-02 This book brings together a collection of essays in honour of Peter Groenewegen one of the most distinguished historians of economic thought His work on a wide range of economic theorists approaches a level of near insuperability

Targeting Regional Economic Development Stephan J. Goetz, Steven Deller, Tom Harris, 2009-03-25 Targeting regional economic development TRED has a long and rich tradition among academic economists and in the world of economic development practitioners This book builds on a series of workshops and papers organized by The Northeast Regional Center for Rural Development NERCRD at the Pennsylvania State University and the Rural Policy Research Centre RUPRI at the University of Missouri Through the coordinated efforts of NERCRD and RUPRI a network of university based researchers and Extension education specialists was developed and provides the foundation of this new edited volume For the first time in a single book Goetz Deller and Harris present an innovative approach through a collection of chapters discussing industry targeting and the relevance of TRED as an important analytical tool for practical targeting purposes The papers present issues surrounding community economic development clusters in industry and rural communities and the role of agglomeration economies The book provides the reader with insights into not only the theoretical foundations of targeting as well as empirical methods but also approaches for using the community level analysis to affect policy directions

The Theory and Experience of Economic Development Mark Gersovitz, Carlos F. Diaz-Alejandro, Gustav Ranis, Mark R. Rosenzweig, 2012-08-06 This volume first published in 1982 is a collection of original essays written to honour Professor W Arthur Lewis 1979 co winner of the Nobel Prize in economics The authors an international group of distinguished scholars address a varied set of specific issues reflecting Professor Lewis research interests covering topics which include technological change in agriculture analyses of unemployment and income distribution the role of government policy in the development process the historical record of development and the relationship between developed and developing nations The book will be of interest to both the academic researcher and practicing professionals in the international organisations and national governments and are particularly appropriate to graduate courses in economic development cost benefit analysis and economic history

International Development Anna Lanoszka, 2025-07-09 International Development Strategies and Legacies of Socio Economic Development examines the multifaceted challenges and strategies underlying socio economic progress in a globally interconnected world Grounded in a thorough historical and theoretical framework this book explores the evolution of developmental strategies from post colonial challenges the growing influence of international organizations and the role of state policies to the impacts of global market integration and demands for environmental sustainability It scrutinizes the effectiveness of international organizations and foreign aid agencies the resilience of local strategies and the persistent disparities shaped by historical legacies extractive and inclusive state institutions deficit of individual rights systemic poverty gender inequality armed conflicts environmental hazards and food insecurity Through case studies and document driven insights it highlights the intersection of institutional frameworks economic imperatives and human agency in shaping developmental outcomes By integrating environmental and sustainability considerations with economic strategies the book underscores the necessity of inclusive policies that address structural barriers and promote human centered development This new edition has been thoroughly updated to include material on decolonization the various effects of the Covid 19 pandemic gender and sexual orientation based discrimination climate change migration and economic insecurity With a multi disciplinary approach taking into account politics international relations economics sociology cultural studies and the history of development this book is an invaluable resource for students and scholars as well as policy makers and practitioners working and researching in those fields

Critical Reflections on Cities in Southeast Asia Tim Bunnell, Lisa Barbara Welch Drummond, Ho Kong Chong, 2002 Critical Reflections draws together the multi disciplinary research of scholars working in on cities across Southeast Asia The fourteen essays collected in the volume are organised into three thematic sections re conceptualisation competition and intervention Collectively these reflections contribute to and interrogate the expanding urban and regional studies literature The volume constitutes a critical corrective to the existing literature which all too often seeks to diagnose contemporary urban trends everywhere from a small number of mostly Western paradigmatic cases Yet while acknowledging the increasing interconnectedness and shared global orientation of most cities in Southeast Asia the volume is wary of positing an equally generalising regional model Individually these essays attend to the diversity of contemporary urban experiences in Southeast Asia

A Reflection on Sraffa's Revolution in Economic Theory Ajit Sinha, 2021-06-02 This book presents a substantial collection of essays from a wide range of well respected scholars addressing several aspects of Piero Sraffa's economics in light of continuing controversies over the interpretation that should be placed on his work It moves beyond extant scholarship with an added emphasis on the philosophical dimension of Sraffa's seminal work Production of Commodities by Means of Commodities Contributors probe new ways of thinking about the political economy of Sraffa and in doing so alongside the comments to each contribution by other scholars provide a cutting edge debate and discussion on non mainstream economic theory This book will be of interest to academics and advanced graduate students in economics with additional interest from scholars in philosophy and the methodology of science

Critical Reflections on Regional Competitiveness Gillian Bristow, 2010-04-05 The book is structured into three parts Part 1 introduces the concept of regional competitiveness by tracing its origins and exploring its different meanings in regional economic development This will critically engage with political economy approaches to understanding the nature and dominance of the competitiveness discourse Part 2 interrogates the pursuit of regional competitiveness in policy and practice This critically evaluates the degree to which the pursuit of competitiveness is encouraging convergence in policy agendas in regions through an examination of key determinants of policy sameness and difference notably benchmarking and devolved governance Part 3 explores the limitations to regional competitiveness and explores whether and how its predominance in the policy discourse might be challenged by alternative agendas such as sustainable development and wellbeing This focuses on the developing qualitative character of regional development      Reflections on Finance Education and Society Chintaman Dwarkanath Deshmukh,1972
