Women in Western Australian History Patricia M. Crawford, 1983

Liberal Women Margaret FitzHerbert, 2004 In 2004 Liberal Women was shortlisted for the NSW Premier's History Awards When Menzies formed the modern Liberal Party out of the squabbling rabble of the UAP in 1944 he had to cede to the women's organisations formal representation and real power Liberal Women is the story of why It is a tale of strong vocal persistent women who carried the liberal flame across Australia in the first half of the 20th century while the men split and merged and talked and merged and split again It is the story of women who grasped the implications of the female suffrage that followed Federation in a way that no others did winning elections meant winning the female vote and delivering the female vote gave political power The Liberal women formed some of the most effective political organisations in the country Liberal Women is the first detailed account of these women as political pioneers as power brokers and factional warriors as candidates for office and as members of parliament Relying on extensive primary research much of it previously unpublished Margaret Fitzherbert describes their political organisations and activity amidst a wealth of biographical detail on women such as Enid Lyons Elizabeth Couchman Ivy Deakin Lady Margaret Forrest and Irene Longman

The Magnificent Life of Miss May Holman Australia's First Female Labor Parliamentarian Lekkie Hopkins, 2016-01-01 Throughout the 1930s May Holman was a household name and an inspiration to the women of her generation She made history in 1925 when at age thirty one she became Australia's first female Labor parliamentarian holding the seat of Forrest until her untimely death on the eve of the 1939 elections A woman who fought tirelessly for the rights of those in her electorate her accidental death received national coverage with thousands of Western Australian mourners lining the streets to pay tribute May Holman charted new territory for women but the barriers she encountered and her methods of overcoming them still resonate today Sisters in Peace Kate Laing, 2023-11-03 Is preparing for war the best means of preserving peace In Sisters in Peace Kate Laing contends that this question has never been solely the concern of politicians and strategists She maps successive generations of twentieth century women who were eager to engage in political debate even though legislative and cultural barriers worked to exclude their voices In 1915 during the First World War the Women's International Congress at The Hague was convened after alarmed and bereaved women from both sides of the conflict insisted that their opinions on war and the pathway to peace be heard From this gathering emerged the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom WILPF which to this day campaigns against militarism and nuclear weapons In Australia the formation of a section of WILPF connected political women to a worldwide network that sustained their anti war activism throughout the last century In examining the rise of WILPF in Australia Sisters in Peace provides a gendered history of this country's engagement with the politics of internationalism This is a history of WILPF women who committed to peace activism even as Australia's national identity and military allegiances shifted over time a history that has until now been an overlooked part of the Australian peace movement To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott, 2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity True North Brenda Niall, 2012-03-21 Through war love affairs children and old age the Duracks creative lives were always shaped by the enduring power of the Kimberley region With unprecedented access to hundreds of private family letters unpublished memoirs diaries and papers Brenda Niall gets to the heart of a uniquely Australian story A New History of Western Australia Tom Stannage, 1981 Papers by G C Bolton J E Thomas D Black J Hay M Aveling I M Crawford S J Hallam and N J Green separately annotated Western Australian Literature John A.
