Reflections A Thematic Reader:

Reflections William Hazzard Barnwell, Julie Price, 1985-03 Vain Rhetoric Gary D. Salyer, 2001-06-01 The Book of Ecclesiastes like many ancient and modern first person discourses generates ambivalent responses in its readers The book's rhetorical strategy produces both acceptance of and suspicion towards the major positions argued by the author Vain rhetoric aptly describes the persuasive and dissuasive properties of the narrator's peculiar characterization It also describes how the Book of Ecclesiastes with its abundant use of rhetorical questions constant gapping techniques and other strategies from the arsenal of ambiguity is a stunning testimony to the power of the various strategies of indirection to communicate to the reader something of his or her own rhetorical liabilities and limitations as well as those of the religious community in general The Technique of the Novel - A Handbook on the Craft of the Long Narrative Thomas H.

Uzzell, 2013-04-18 Many of the earliest books particularly those dating back to the 1900s and before are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive We are republishing these classic works in affordable high quality modern editions using the original text and artwork The Opacity of Narrative Peter Lamarque, 2014-03-25 What is narrative What is distinctive about the great literary narratives In virtue of what is a narrative fictional or non fictional In this important new book Peter Lamarque one of the leading philosophers of literature at work today explores these and related questions to bring new clarity and insight to debates about narrative in philosophy critical theory and narratology He highlights opacity as a feature of literary narratives and examines the implications for our understanding of fictional worlds and fictional characters Throughout he challenges received views about narrative questioning the indispensability of narrative in an individual's self-conception and the importance of both truth and emotion as measures of literary greatness He reflects on the non-fiction novel arguing that it does not weaken the distinction between fiction and non-fiction The book offers a compelling and original account of these and other issues making a critical contribution to topical and wide-ranging debates

Reflections on Mood Birgit Breidenbach, 2020-04-19 This study explores the concept of Stimmung in literary and philosophical texts of the modern age Signifying both mood and attunement Stimmung speaks to the categories of affective experience and aesthetic design alike The study locates itself in the nexus between discourses on modernity existentialism and aesthetics and uncovers the pivotal role of Stimmung in 19th and 20th century European narrative fiction and continental philosophy The study first explores the philosophical and aesthetic origins and implications of Stimmung to then discuss its role in the narrative fiction of three key authors of modern literature Fyodor Dostoevsky Samuel Beckett and Thomas Bernhard These readings demonstrate a significant shift towards an aesthetic of affective intensity and immediacy in which the experience of the reading process takes centre stage as each author develops an aesthetic philosophy of Stimmung in their own right Through its focus on the concept of Stimmung the study thus unearths a fundamental link between existentialist concerns and narrative practice in modern literature

Reflections on Mind and the Image of Reality Jason Brown, 2017-05-24 This collection of brief essays and still briefer commentaries is a personal reflection on some topics that have been thematic in the development of my theoretical work These essays are not meant to extend the theory into yet uncharted territory but rather to draw out some of its implications for clinical neuroscience philosophy of mind and everyday life The point of view guiding these reflections can be found in prior works but the discerning reader will not fail to see a departure from current models of mind and brain based on circuit board diagrams modular and computational theories that conflict with a processual account in which the mind brain is more like a living organism This perspective which is often at odds with common sense and folk psychology has particular relevance to our concepts of the self the inner life subjective time adaptive process and the world represented in perception

Fictional Worlds and Philosophical Reflection Garry Hagberg, 2022-01-31 This edited collection investigates the kinds of philosophical reflection we can undertake in the imaginative worlds of literature Opening with a look into the relations between philosophical thought and literary interpretation the volume proceeds through absorbing discussions of the ways we can see life through the lens of literature the relations between philosophical saying and literary showing and some ways we can see the literary past philosophically and assess its significance for the present Taken as a whole the volume shows how imagined contexts can be a source of knowledge a source of conceptual clarification and a source of insight and understanding And because philosophical thinking is undertaken after all in words a heightened sensitivity to the precise employments of our words particularly philosophically central words such as truth reality perception knowledge selfhood illusion understanding falsehood can bring a clarity and a refreshed sense of the life that our words take on in fully described contexts of usage And in these imagined contexts we can also see more acutely and deeply into the meaning of words about words metaphor and figurative tropes verbal coherence intelligibility implication sense and indeed the word meaning itself Moving from a philosophical issue into a literary world in which the central concepts of that issue are in play can thus enrich our comprehension of those concepts and in the strongest cases substantively change the way we see them With a combination of conceptual acuity and literary sensitivity this volume maps out some of the territory that philosophical reflection and literary engagement share Correlations in Rosenzweig and Levinas Robert Gibbs,1994-10-03 Robert Gibbs radically revises standard interpretations of the two key figures of modern Jewish philosophy Franz Rosenzweig author of the monumental Star of Redemption and Emmanuel Levinas a major voice in contemporary intellectual life who has inspired such thinkers as Derrida Lyotard Irigaray and Blanchot Rosenzweig and Levinas thought in relation to different philosophical schools and wrote in disparate styles Their personal relations to Judaism and Christianity were markedly dissimilar To Gibbs however the two thinkers possess basic affinities with each other The book offers important insights into how philosophy is continually being altered by its encounter with other traditions
