Reflections On The Nature Of Leadership:

Reflections on the Nature of Leadership Page Smith, 1985-07-01      The Art of Leadership Zach Kelehear, 2005-11-15 When we view art understanding comes in part as we engage in reflective practice Here author Zach Kelehear encourages school leaders and teachers to reflect on their own leadership capacities and to develop an art for leading schools Using the language of art criticism and critique with real life examples and case studies he helps readers to identify an eye for leadership with specific discussion in matters of school leadership and instructional supervision Drawing on the arts based research approach Kelehear embraces the language of art critique the elements of art and the principles of design The Art of Leadership Presents original art work from the lithographs of Joseph Norman and provides an example of art criticism from each work Describes a real life case study that involves the element or principle Helps readers connect the art interpretation with the leadership application Readers will gain A deeper appreciation for the critique of art An enlarged view of the art of school leadership and instructional supervision A better understanding of their own leadership art This book should be of interest to students practitioners and artists in K 12 and higher education      Reflections on Leadership and Career Development Manfred F. R. Kets de Vries, 2011-09-19 Views from the interface of psychoanalysis and organizational life In the books in this series Manfred Kets de Vries failed engineer entrepreneur manqué reluctant economist international management guru psychoanalyst wit and outdoorsman offers an overview of his work spanning four decades a period in which he has established himself as the leading figure in the clinical study of organizational leadership At a key point in his career working as he puts it in the twilight zone of economics management and psychoanalysis he decided to strike out on a little trodden path and bring the person back into the organization Now Kets de Vries occupies a unique position in the academic business world putting leaders and companies of the couch and working at the often intimate interface where the inner theater of the individual meets the outer world of the organization The second book in this series Reflections on Leadership and Career Development takes different perspectives on the intimate connection between the personality or inner theater of individuals and the organizational context in which they work how different personality types in positions of leadership or as members of management teams affect the functioning and success of organizations Kets de Vries looks at the way basic psychological processes operate on individual and corporate performance and analyzes them in the context of case studies of leaders and organizations He examines narcissism dysfunctional collusion between leaders and followers some new leadership archetypes and the roles that organizational therapists coaches or consultants can play in their interventions The book includes a lengthy study of Vladimir Putin as CEO of Russia Inc an assessment of the former Russian president's performance as an organizational leader The final part of the book examines the career life cycle and how executives cope or fail to cope with rites de passage like succession and retirement For the first time this book provides a glimpse of Manfred Kets de Vries own inner theater as the wellspring of his success as psychoanalyst mentor and inspiration to a generation of leaders Reflections on Leadership and Career Development offers a rare opportunity to observe Manfred on his own legendary couch a personal perspective not to be missed Paul McMorran HR Director TNK BP

Reflections of South African University Leaders: 1981 to 2014 Council on Higher Education, 2016-03-17 Much has been written about the ever growing demands on university leadership worldwide in the face of increasingly complex changes and challenges from within the academy and beyond However as we are reminded by Johan Muller in the Introduction to this book there are particular features of time and place that also throw up unique problems It is precisely time and place that make this set of reflections by university leaders quite remarkable and distinguishes it from the many biographies to be found in the literature on higher education leadership In the main this collection spans two decades the 1990s and 2000s of unprecedented levels of change in South African higher education Leaders in universities as well as those responsible for higher education policy in the government and associated statutory bodies had no neat script to work off nor manuals or prescripts of good leadership or practice Instead there was palpable excitement about collectively imagining and nurturing a new post apartheid higher education system which would contribute to the social and economic development needs of the country the deepening of democracy and which would also be globally relevant Most reflections touch on the coalface of leadership which is the face to face interactional dimension dealing with staff with students with council chairs What comes through clearly is the importance of what are sometimes called people skills In these accounts this is not simply presented as a human relations aptitude for a number of reasons first of which is the special nature of universities and their occupants More than one points out the special challenge of managing the talented people that are academics and their inbuilt distaste for bureaucracy their reluctance to be managed or told what to do The message here is consistently one of needing to be completely open with academics the importance of maintaining the distinction between collegial and executive management avoiding managerialism and the critical importance of winning and holding their trust The inspiration for this collection arose in late 2013 in the Council on Higher Education's CHE Monitoring and Evaluation Directorate the directorate responsible for conducting research on the higher education landscape and monitoring the state of the sector They noted that conditions besetting universities had grown increasingly complex both globally but more especially locally and the question arose how had this altered the challenges to university leadership over the period between the new political dispensation and the second decade of the new millennium More particularly how had leaders with a proven track record of visionary and strong leadership during this period faced these challenges How did they see the main changes that needed dealing with What challenges did these changes pose and how were they successfully overcome What did they think looking back were the main constituents of successful leadership and management What wisdom could be distilled for posterity The Directorate decided to invite a range of vice chancellors and senior academic leaders who had completed their terms of office to contribute to a project that set out to gather such reflections and compile them into a publication Reflections on Leadership and Institutions in Africa Kenneth Kalu, Toyin Falola, 2020-05-22

This book contains different reflections on leadership and institutions in Africa Drawing from different ideological and methodological orientations the book highlights how leadership and institutions have shaped and continue to shape the trajectory of Africa's political and economic development The book explores different epochs in Africa's history from the era of colonialism to the period of nationalist movements and up to post colonial Africa Essays in the volume engage with major actors and important institutions that defined each era By presenting various reflections and representations of leadership and institutions in Africa this book attempts to make the connection between leadership and institutions on the one hand and between these variables and Africa's development on the other Similar to most studies on Africa's political economy the book considers the role of external forces whether operationalized through direct interventions as was the case during the colonial era or through subtle imposition of policies as has been the new model in post colonial times Drawing from these lenses issues around Africa's dependency on external interventions neo colonialism neoliberalism and disregard for Africa's culture are explored and contextualized within the framework of leadership and institutions International Encyclopedia of Political Science Bertrand Badie, Dirk Berg-Schlosser, Leonardo Morlino, 2011-09-07 With entries from leading international scholars from around the world this eight volume encyclopedia offers the widest possible coverage of key areas both regionally and globally The International Encyclopedia of Political Science provides a definitive comprehensive picture of all aspects of political life recognizing the theoretical and cultural pluralism of our approaches and including findings from the far corners of the world The eight volumes cover every field of politics from political theory and methodology to political sociology comparative politics public policies and international relations Entries are arranged in alphabetical order and a list of entries by subject area appears in the front of each volume for ease of use The encyclopedia contains a detailed index as well as extensive bibliographical references Filling the need for an exhaustive overview of the empirical findings and reflections on politics this reference resource is suited for undergraduate or graduate students who wish to be informed effectively and quickly on their field of study for scholars seeking information on relevant research findings in their area of specialization or in related fields and for lay readers who may lack a formal background in political science but have an interest in the field nonetheless The International Encyclopedia of Political Science provides an essential authoritative guide

Henry Kissinger and the American Approach to Foreign Policy

Gregory D. Cleva, 1989 This analysis of Henry Kissinger's historical philosophy, statecraft and views on international politics reveals Kissinger to be a transitional figure who urged a conversion of American foreign policy from an insular to a continental approach      Christian Reflections on The Leadership Challenge James M. Kouzes, Barry Z.

Posner, 2009-04-20 Christian Reflections on The Leadership Challenge is a faith based companion to the best selling leadership book of all time The Leadership Challenge Grounded in Jim and Barry's time tested research Christian Reflections on The Leadership Challenge describes their Five Practices of Exemplary Leadership Model the Way Inspire a Shared Vision Challenge the Process Enable Others to Act and Encourage the Heart and offers practical guidance and inspiring examples about how Christian leaders can have a powerful impact in their workplaces communities and congregations by bringing their faith into their leadership In addition to Jim and Barry's foundational wisdom the book brings together five leaders who reflect on the Five Practices from a Christian perspective John C Maxwell David McAllister Wilson Patrick Lencioni Nancy Ortberg and Ken Blanchard share insights and stories culled from personal experience and the lives of other Christian leaders who have accomplished extraordinary things in churches communities classrooms and corporations Their thoughtful reflections on the role of faith in leadership will propel leaders and aspiring leaders      Human Interactions, Processes, and Contexts: Reflections on the Past and Envisioning the Future , 2014-01-31 This book is part of the Human and Organizational Learning ELP 25th Anniversary Celebration and explores the development of the field of Human and Organization Learning Various scholars that have participated with ELP cohorts over the 25 years of its existence share their unique perspectives and changes in views on organizational change leadership complexity organizational culture and individual and organizational learning      Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations

At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations.

ABOUT VOLUME THREE: The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition-based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared.

Contributors: Pal Ahluwalia, Timothy Gianotti, Alon Goshen Gottstein, Sallie B. King, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sender, Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR: All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces. Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments, polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media, and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning. As religion takes on new forms, the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured. Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it. This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy. It is a confluence of threats, challenges, and opportunities for all religions. This volume explores the contours of pressures, changes, and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing. By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures, The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so.

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE: The chapters collected in this book, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, address the subject of religious leadership. The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership. As such, it is also germane to religious thought, where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place. What does it mean to be a religious leader in today's world? To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations? And to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra
