Refugee Law and Policy Karen Musalo, Jennifer Moore, Richard A. Boswell, 2002 United States Migrant Interdiction and the Detention of Refugees in Guantánamo Bay Azadeh Dastyari, 2015-07-20 This book provides a thorough legal analysis of the United States Migrant Interdiction Program examining the United States compliance with its obligations under municipal and international law as it interdicts individuals at sea conducts status determinations and returns those interdicted to their home countries This book also examines the rights of the small number of refugees and individuals at risk of torture detained in Guantánamo Bay Cuba awaiting resettlement in third countries Policy makers students and scholars will benefit from this book's clarification of the legal obligations of nations engaged in extraterritorial status determination and detention as well as its blueprint for compliance with international human rights and refugee law As the first book of its kind devoted to the United States interdiction program this work represents an important contribution to scholarship in refugee law and policy US constitutional law international maritime law and international human rights law

International Refugee Law and Socio-Economic Rights Michelle Foster, 2007-07-12 Publisher Description The International Protection of Internally Displaced Persons Catherine Phuong, 2005-01-27 Despite the fact that there are up to 25 million internally displaced persons around the world their plight is still little known Like refugees internally displaced persons have been forced to leave their homes because of war and human rights abuses but they have not left their country This has major consequences in terms of the protection available to them This 2005 book aims to offer a clear and easily accessible overview of this important humanitarian and human rights challenge In contrast with other books on the topic it provides an objective evaluation of UN efforts to protect the internally displaced It will be of interest to all those involved with the internally displaced as well as anyone seeking to gain an overall understanding of this complex issue

The Maya of Morganton Leon Fink, 2024-10-22 In 2003 Leon Fink published his oral history of Guatemalan and Mexican migrants in Morganton North Carolina and their fight for unionization in a poultry processing plant In the following years Fink remained in touch with many of the people he profiled in the book and in 2022 he returned to Morganton to interview them and talk with their children new migrants in the area and community leaders particularly women Their conversations covered a wide range of topics including labor struggles and victories grassroots and electoral political organizing social activism especially on issues affecting undocumented migrants class mobility for second generation migrants and new cooperative worker owned institutions including a bookstore a textile factory and a preschool This revised and expanded edition of The Maya of Morganton reveals what Fink found on his return to Morganton documenting two decades of continuity and change in a new preface and chapter Together the new and original material present a comprehensive yet intimate examination of the migrant experience in western North Carolina The Refugees Convention 50 Years on Susan Kneebone, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2003 The authors of the essays in this collection all internationally recognised refugee scholars and practitioners look at the controversial hot topic of refugee rights They consider whether 50 years after its agreement the Refugees Convention can provide an adequate framework for protection In particular the authors address the effect of globalization upon the human rights of asylum seekers and refugees the efficacy of the Convention as an instrument of international law the role of the UNHCR whether NGOs are effective instruments for change and nationality and citizenship issues They also consider alternatives and options for solutions to the global refugee problem

Asylum-Seeker and Refugee Protection in Sub-Saharan Africa Cristiano d'Orsi,2015-08-11 It is not often acknowledged that the great majority of African refugee movement happens within Africa rather than from Africa to the West This book examines the specific characteristics and challenges of the refugee situation in Sub Saharan Africa offering a new and critical vision on the situation of asylum seekers and refugees in the African continent Cristiano d Orsi considers the international regional and domestic legal and institutional frameworks linked to refugee protection in Sub Saharan Africa and explores the contributions African refugee protection has brought to the cause on a global scale Key issues covered in the book include the theory and the practice of non refoulement an analysis of the phenomenon of mass influx the concept of burden sharing and the role of freedom fighters The book goes on to examine the expulsions of refugees and the historical role played by UNHCR in Sub Saharan Africa As a work which follows the persecution and legal challenges of those in search of a safe haven this book will be of great interest and use to researchers and students of immigration and asylum law international law human rights and African studies

The Rise of Revolution Monika Mandal,2017-12-22 This volume focuses on Guiding Principles on Internal Displacement and IDPs in South Asia The volume begins with an overview of Maoist rebels in 1996 as they launched a people s war to overthrow the monarchy and establish a socialist republic in Nepal Specifically it attempts to bring out the tensions between minority ethnic groups and low castes in the rural areas and the upper caste Hindus who still have a hold albeit tenuous over the country The work attempts to document and analyse the conflict which ended with a Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA in November 2006 and providing for the return and rehabilitation of all people displaced by the conflict Those from impoverished communities fled the fighting Maoist extortion and forced recruitment to district centres large cities such as Kathmandu Biratnagar Nepalgunj and across the border to India Apart from the question of filling in the gap in the existing literature on the People s War in Nepal the volume aims to raise certain questions relating to the situation of the Internally Displaced Persons in Nepal The study also focuses on the governmental measures the attitude of the host community and the struggle of the IDPs in a new environment that influenced and impacted upon their social and cultural life This volume is invaluable for scholars of South Asian Studies Nepal Strategic Studies Human Rights and IDPs Please note Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the Hardback in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka

The Top Books of the Year Refugee Law And Policy Cases And Materials Carolina Academic Press Law The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Refugee Law And Policy Cases And Materials Carolina Academic Press Law : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Refugee Law And Policy Cases And Materials Carolina Academic Press Law : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
