Renewing Christianity A History Of Church Reform From Day One To Vatican II:

Renewing Christianity Christopher M. Bellitto, 2001 This book follows the tide of reform and renewal in Church history and demonstrates that reform has always been an essential element of Christianity Indeed Christopher Bellitto emphasizes that reform should not be perceived as limited to the Reformation or Vatican II As one learns from the author's analysis the history of Christianity is little other than the history of reform This sweeping assessment of Church history is both remarkable and deep but is also highly readable Bellitto begins with an introduction to the subject of reform and follows that with chapters on the patristic period and Carolingian Renaissance the High Middle Ages 1050-1300 Avignon to Trent From Trent to Modernity and Vatican II He ends with a conclusion that draws together the recurring themes and patterns of reform activity in the Church In short this is a unique book on the subject of Church reform Renewing Christianity is useful to both scholars and non academics alike It is written in a learnedly popular style and would appeal to clergy seminarians academics graduate students or anyone interested in Church reform and renewal Church history or historical theology

Vatican II Massimo Faggioli, 2012 The death of John Paul II and the election of Benedict XVI constituted two important elements in the broad theological and cultural landscape of Catholicism This change of pontificate has also nourished the journalistic and political dispute about Vatican II its history and its legacy and not only the historiographical and theological debate But the research on Vatican II is already proceeding forward and beyond the state of knowledge about the Council reached at the end of the 90s For 21st century Catholics and theologians interested in understanding contemporary Catholicism in the light of Vatican II the intellectual undertaking is far from accomplished yet The book offers comprehensive presentation of the theological and historiographical debate about Council Vatican II The attempt to go beyond the clash of interpretations Vatican II as a rupture in the history of Catholicism on one side the need to read Vatican II in continuity with the tradition on the other is necessary indeed because the ongoing debate about Vatican II is largely misrepresented by the use of clashing interpretations as a tool for understanding the role of the council in present day Catholicism Padua and Venice Brigit Blass-Simmen, Stefan Weppelmann, 2017-11-20 Venice and Padua are neighboring cities with a topographical and geopolitical distinction Venice is a port city in the Venetian Lagoon which opened up towards Byzantium and the East Padua on the mainland was founded in Roman times and is a university city a place of Humanism and research into antiquity The contributions analyze works of art as aesthetic formulations of their places of origin which however also have an effect on and expand their surroundings International experts investigate how these two different concepts stimulated each other in the Early Modern Age and how the exchange worked Copts in Modernity, 2021-01-11 Copts in Modernity presents a collection of essays many of which contain unpublished archival material showcasing historical and contemporary aspects pertaining to the Coptic Orthodox Church The volume covers three main themes The first theme History gathers studies that look back to the nineteenth and late eighteenth centuries to understand the realities of the twentieth and twenty first the second theme Education Leadership and Service explores the role of religious education in the revival of the Church and how Coptic religious principles influenced the ideas of leadership and service that resulted in the Church's spiritual revival and the third theme Identity and Material Culture draws upon a broad range of material and visual culture to exemplify the role they play in creating and recreating identities This volume brings together the work of senior and early career scholars from Australia Europe Egypt and the United States

The Church in the Early Modern Age C. Scott Dixon, 2016-03-24 The years 1450 1650 were a momentous period for the development of Christianity They witnessed the age of Reformation and Counter Reformation perhaps the most important era for the shaping of the faith since its foundation C Scott Dixon explores how the ideas that went into the making of early modern Christianity re-oriented the Church to such an extent that they gave rise to new versions of the religion He shows how the varieties and ambivalences of late medieval theology were now replaced by dogmatic certainties where the institutions of Christian churches became more effective and modern staffed by well trained clergy Tracing these changes from the fall of Constantinople to the end of the Thirty Years War and treating the High Renaissance and the Reformation as part of the same overall narrative the author offers an integrated approach to widely different national social and cultural histories Moving beyond Protestant and Catholic conflicts he contrasts Western Christianity with Eastern Orthodoxy and examines the Church's response to fears of Ottoman domination

Surrender to Christ for Mission Philip Sheldrake, 2018-10-16 This multiauthor book celebrates the bicentenary of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate OMI founded by St Eugène de Mazenod and arises from an international conference on French spiritual traditions hosted by the Oblates in San Antonio Texas in November 2016 More broadly this book aims to make available to a wide readership the riches of the important family of French spiritual traditions originating between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries not least the emphasis on mission to the poor French traditions have been greatly underestimated in conventional histories of Christian spirituality but their spiritual wisdom offers much to today's believers

Inventing the Church Bénédicte Sère, 2025-11-11 Why is the official narrative of the history of the Catholic Church so discordant with the archival sources of the Middle Ages From the fifteenth century down to the present day the Church has constructed an identity and a past at odds with what the records show expanding the authority and power of the papacy in ways that have striking broader political implications This audacious and nuanced book explores how the Church has repeatedly invented and reinvented itself through a constant back and forth between narratives of the Middle Ages and modernity Bénédicte Sère excavates and traces this history through seven pivotal concepts in long standing debates over papal power and the nature of the Church Providing critical readings of the medieval sources on which later positions have been based she chronicles how the Church has officially interpreted and misinterpreted its own past in order to serve the needs of the present and to create a narrative for posterity Drawing on a wide range of classic and recent works published in French German Italian and English this book offers a bold reinterpretation of Church history and historiography Inventing the Church also speaks more broadly to questions concerning the interpretation of foundational documents the uses of history and the ways institutions interact with their own pasts The General Councils Christopher M. Bellitto, 2002 A succinct up to date and chronological history of the 21 general councils along with their major tasks achievements and failures and their impact on their times

Re-visioning the Church Neil Ormerod, 2014 According to longstanding tradition theology can be thought of as faith seeking understanding Ecclesiology then seeks to understand the theological reality we call church Re Visioning the Church the outcome of nearly two decades of research and writing towards constructing a systematic historical ecclesiology applies a social scientific and historical outlook to the story of the emergence development and ongoing mission and ministry of the church Establishing a critical framework for understanding the structures of the church the work is a wide scale exploration of the religious cultural and social dimensions of what it means to be the church and what structures and ministries form the fundamental parts of ecclesial life in its relationship to the kingdom The heart of the project is a detailed account of the history development and change across the centuries of the church that takes the story from the apostolic band of witnesses to the dramatic global event of the Second Vatican Council

THE ECUMENICAL IMPERATIVE AND FORMATION OF ECUMENICAL CONSCIOUSNESS AMONG PASTORAL WORKERS SEBASTIAN CHUKWUMA ANOKWULU, 2013-09 The idea of the Church as the instrument of unity had existed before Second Vatican Council but the Council made the search for unity explicitly an imperative From the Second Vatican Council emerged a more emphatic vision of the mission of the Church to the world in which ecumenism is no longer an option but an imperative From the time of the Council onward every Christian should positively respond to God's question to Cain Where is your brother Gen 4 9 The ecumenical imperative is primarily the responsibility of pastoral workers The book surveys in epochs the historical changes that has occurred in the Church up to Vatican II reviews reception along the ages of the Church pointing to the uniqueness of Vatican II and gives through biblical exegesis of conversion a fresh understanding that will help pastoral workers to be ever conscious and ready to serve as Church's instrument of unity wherever they are This book re awakens the spirit of the Decree on Ecumenism Unitatis Redintegratio offering it to be properly received by all who pray with Christ for unity Jn 17 21 It proposes pastoral suggestions on the practice of Ecumenism

Reformation Observances: 1517-2017 Philip D. W. Krey, 2017-08-09 The year 2017 marks the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation if that event is dated from the posting of Martin Luther's Ninety Five Theses Admittedly 2017 is an arbitrary and somewhat artificial milestone Nevertheless anniversaries can be special occasions that allow for an appreciation and evaluation of memorable persons and events As a number of Reformation anniversaries approach the historical significance of the Reformation merits increased attention Employing a variety of historiographical methods from intellectual history to postcolonial theory this volume demonstrates how four major traditions observed the Reformation Lutheran Anglican Reformed and Roman Catholic The foreword and preface place the essays into the contemporary and broader historical contexts in the history of reform Commemorations of the Reformation varied in different periods often influenced by immediate historical contexts How are those sixteenth century events which caused both renewal and conflict in church and society as well as divisions between those expressions to be viewed in the twenty first century in a setting broader than Europe

Introducing Nicholas of Cusa Bellitto, Christopher M.,Izbicki, Thomas M.,Christianson, Gerald,2004 A primer on the the vocabulary ideas and works of this leading Renaissance thinker of the fifteenth century who wrote on everything from papal politics to astronomy to interreligious dialogue

The 'Commentaries' of Pope Pius II (1458-1464) and the Crisis of the Fifteenth-Century Papacy Emily O'Brien,2015-10-05 Written in the mid fifteenth century Pope Pius II s Commentaries are the only known autobiography of a reigning pontiff and a fundamental text in the history of Renaissance humanism In this book Emily O Brien positions Pius expansive autobiographical text within that century s contentious debate over ecclesiastical sovereignty Presenting the Commentaries as Pius response to the crisis of authority legitimacy and relevance that was engulfing the Renaissance papacy she shows how the Commentaries function as both an aggressive assault on the papal monarchy s chief opponents and a systematic defense of Pius s own troubled pontificate and his pre papal career Illustrating how the language imagery and ideals of secular power inform Pius apologetic self portrait The Commentaries of Pope Pius II 1458 1464 and the Crisis of the Fifteenth Century Papacy demonstrates the role that Pius and his writings played in the evolution of the Renaissance papacy

Taming a Brood of Vipers Michael A. Vargas,2011-03-10 Winner of the 2013 La cor nica International Book Award given annually by the Modern Language Association Division on Medieval

Hispanic Languages Literatures and Cultures for the best monograph published on Medieval Hispanic Languages Literatures and Cultures Gamblers cheats womanizers and thieves and cranky reformers who wanted their old Order back flesh and blood men with complicated desires and knotty dispositions Opening a rich trove of sources the annual chapter acts of the Dominican Order s Province of Aragon Michael Vargas uncovers the costly successes and institutional weaknesses that contributed to the distressing realities of Dominican conventual life in the troubled fourteenth century Taming a Brood of Vipers finds Dominican friars engaged in activities very much at odds with our sense of the way it should have been but removing the moral overlay makes the conflict and apparent indiscipline in Dominican religious communities more intelligible and more appreciably human Feasting in a Famine of the Word Mark W. Birkholz, Jacob Corzine, Jonathan Mumme, 2016-02-16 The Lord warns of a famine of hearing the word of the Lord Amos 8 11 Has this warning come to pass in our day There is no shortage of preachers but how often do they miss the mark in actually delivering the word of God to their hearers leaving them hungry The authors of these essays seek to equip preachers with resources to offer their hearers a rich feast from the word of the Lord Writing from a Lutheran perspective contributors from across the globe provide a fresh approach to preaching These authors represent seasoned pastors and professors as well as young scholars All are actively preaching and teaching God s word on a regular basis This book covers a wide range of topics relating to preaching from the scriptural background and hermeneutical issues to historical examples of notable preachers and also practical guides to crafting and delivering a sermon These essays will assist preachers in proclaiming God s word in a manner that provides a feast for those living in a famine stricken world Canterbury Cousins Owen F. Cummings, 2007 Canterbury Cousins is an effort in ecumenical theology setting out to show how close the traditional Anglican theology of the Eucharist is to Roman Catholic theology Book jacket Martin Luther Alberto Melloni, 2017-12-20 The three volumes present the current state of international research on Martin Luther s life and work and the Reformation s manifold influences on history churches politics culture philosophy arts and society up to the 21st century The work is initiated by the Fondazione per le scienze religiose Giovanni XXIII Bologna in cooperation with the European network Refo500 This handbook is also available in German Medieval Education Ronald B. Begley, Joseph W. Koterski, 2009-08-25 This volume offers original studies on the subject of medieval education not only in the formal academic sense typical of schools and universities but also in a broader cultural sense that includes law liturgy and the new religious orders of the high Middle Ages Its essays explore the transmission of knowledge during the middle ages in various kinds of educational communities including schools scriptoria universities and workshops Church as Fullness in All Things Mark W. Birkholz, Jonathan Mumme, Richard J. Serina, Jr., 2019-06-25 What is Lutheran ecclesiology The Lutheran view of the church has been fraught with difficulties since the Reformation Church as Fullness in All Things reengages the topic from a confessional Lutheran perspective Lutheran theologians and clergy who are bound to the Holy Scriptures and the Lutheran Confessions explore the possibilities and pitfalls of the Lutheran tradition's view of the church in the face of contemporary challenges. The contributors also take up questions about and challenges to thinking and living as the church in their tradition while looking to other Christian voices for aid in what is finally a common Christian endeavor. The volume addresses three related types of questions faced in living and thinking as the church with each standing as a field of tension marked by disharmonized though perhaps not inherently opposite poles: the individual and the communal, the personal and the institutional, and the particular and the universal. Asking whether de facto prioritizations of given poles or unexamined assumptions about their legitimacy impinge the church, Lutherans seek the volume closes with Anglican, Reformed, and Roman Catholic contributors stating what their ecclesiological traditions could learn from Lutheranism and vice versa.
