Renewing Our Voice Code Of Good Practice For Ngos Responding To Hiv Aids:

Renewing Our Voice David Wilson, 2004 This book provides a common tool to advocate for evidence based programmes outlining the principles that underscore successful NGO HIV and AIDS work The principles set out in this Code are invaluable guidelines for organisational planning programme development implementation and evaluation advocacy efforts and resource allocation The Changing HIV/AIDS Landscape Elizabeth Lule, Richard Seifman, Antonio C.

David, 2009-01-01 HIV AIDS reverses life expectancy gains erodes productivity consumes savings and dilutes growth efforts threatening the realization of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs in Africa The report is the result of an extensive analytical and consultative process begun in 2006 that engaged more than 1 000 people from over 30 countries and many institutions mostly in Africa as well as UN agencies multilateral and bilateral donors and foundations The report reaffirms the Bank's commitment to combating HIV AIDS in Africa moving from its initial emergency response to the next phase including the goal to provide at least US 250 million annually and to create an Africa HIV AIDS Incentive Fund to enhance the evidence base promote the multisectoral response and provide technical support analysis and policy advice to countries World Disasters Report 2008 - Focus on HIV and AIDS, 2008 A Socio-Criminological Analysis of the HIV Epidemic Bruno

Meini, 2020-10-06 In the world of the 21st century epidemics are common biological and social occurrences with HIV perhaps emphasising this better than any other disease Medical scientific research has undoubtedly made significant steps forward meanwhile the social research field is still in its initial stages with many awaiting an equally auspicious response A Socio-Criminological Analysis of the HIV Epidemic offers a comprehensive analysis of the multifaceted socio-criminological dimensions of the HIV epidemic and positively contributes to the ongoing sociological debate on infectious diseases The author intends to create an independent epistemology of HIV to explicate the social forces that impact and determine the course and experience of the epidemic while also seeking to reframe the popular discourse on HIV to reflect sociological conceptualisations This latter step leads to the identification of the concept of social interaction as an appropriate tool for highlighting the complex social nature of this virus The unprecedented challenge posed by the epidemic for the international community calls for global cooperation aimed at evaluating the diverse aspects of the issues that many actors in this tragic drama must deal with Given its wide reaching international appeal this book is also recommended for those involved or interested in global health issues and infectious diseases It will be of particular interest to medical researchers health workers social scientists social workers policymakers humanitarian workers HIV and human rights activists and graduate students From microscope to kaleidoscope, 2008-01-01 What new understandings concerning children and significant others in their life worlds have become apparent because of the HIV AIDS pandemic This innovative book argues that new insights on education and psychosocial aspects surface when research in the realm of HIV AIDS is viewed through a positive psychology lens By converging in depth exploration and description the book pinpoints vital persons supporting children's wellbeing and posits changed roles due to pandemic related stressors The significance of different education role players children teachers caregivers community members is addressed in separate chapters using pioneering theory and empirical data that are integrated with dynamic case examples visual data and narratives Ebers hn s edited book emphasises supportive persons and networks as buffers children access to mediate their coping when confronted by HIV AIDS related stressors Throughout the links between psychosocial support changed roles and responsibilities and resilience in the advent of adversity are clearly and thoughtfully demonstrated A concluding chapter questions why and what happens to children s wellbeing when society fails to provide supportive networks and services

Humanitarian Programmes and HIV and AIDS Vivien Margaret Walden, Marion O'Reilly, Mary Yetter, 2007 This manual will help field staff to mainstream HIV and AIDS in humanitarian emergencies and explains both how HIV affects emergencies and how emergencies affect HIV as well as identifying the particular needs of potential vulnerable groups

Impact Measurement and Accountability in Emergencies Emergency Capacity Building Project, 2007 This pocket guide presents some tried and tested methods for putting impact measurement and accountability into practice throughout the life of a project It is aimed at humanitarian practitioners project officers and managers with some experience in the field and draws on the work of field staff NGOs and inter agency initiatives including Sphere ALNAP HAP International and People in Aid

Counseling People of African Ancestry Elias Mpofu, 2011-06-27 This volume advances a uniquely Afro centric sociocultural understanding of health maintenance and risk reduction in African cultural heritage populations It unites a diverse group of leading African and Africanist scholars in an exploration of common cultural values in African heritage communities and their practical applications in contemporary counseling The chapters highlight the prominent health issues faced in Africanist settings today and use real world experiences to illustrate core lessons for effective community action The approach spans complex cultural milieus from diversity counseling to conflict resolution Each chapter includes field based experiential tasks discussion boxes research boxes and case studies which serve as valuable resources in both coursework and casework Counseling People of African Ancestry is an essential primer for community health workers counselors and educators seeking a better understanding of African cultural heritage settings to promote community health well being and development

Evidence, Ethos and Experiment P. Wenzel Geissler, Catherine Molyneux, 2017-05 Medical research has been central to biomedicine in Africa for over a century and Africa along with other tropical areas has been crucial to the development of medical science At present study populations in Africa participate in an increasing number of medical research projects and clinical trials run by both public institutions and private companies Global debates about the politics and ethics of this research are growing and local concerns are prompting calls for social studies of the trial communities produced by this scientific work Drawing on rich ethnographic and historiographic material this volume represents the emergent field of anthropological inquiry that links Africanist ethnography to recent concerns with science the state and the culture of late capitalism in Africa

Landscapes of Activism Joel Christian Reed, 2018-07-09 AIDS activists are often romanticized as extremely noble and selfless However the relationships among HIV support group members highlighted in Landscapes of Activism are hardly utopian or ideal At first the group has everything it needs a thriving membership and support from major donors Soon the group undergoes an identity crisis over money and power eventually fading from the scene As government and development institutions embraced activist demands decentralizing AIDS care through policies of health systems strengthening civil society was increasingly rendered obsolete Charting this transition from subjects to citizens and back again reveals the inefficacy of protest and the importance of community resilience The product of in depth ethnography and focused anthropological inquiry this is the first book on AIDS activists in Mozambique AIDS activism s strange decline in southern Africa rather than a reflection of citizen apathy is the direct result of targeted state and donor intervention

Health in Diversity - Diversity in Health Katharina Crepaz, Ulrich Becker, Elisabeth Wacker, 2020-02-03 European public discourse often frames forced migration solely as a security issue and ignores the implications of societal diversity for health quality of life and well being in both Africa and Europe The present volume offers an interdisciplinary and international look at the relationship between refugees diversity and health including health care policies socio political framework conditions environmental factors the situation in refugee camps quality of life approaches and economical perspectives

Affectedness And Participation In International Institutions Jan Sändig, Jochen von Bernstorff, Andreas Hasenclever, 2020-06-09 Affectedness and Participation in International Institutions looks at the growing involvement of affected persons in global politics such as young climate activists indigenous movements and persons affected by HIV AIDS Since the early 2000s international organisations within various policy areas have increasingly recognised and involved affected persons organisations This has promised to address long standing legitimacy and democracy deficits of international policy making and norm setting Yet the powerful do not easily cede the terrain Some major states classic NGOs and intergovernmental organisations seek to curtail the influence of the newcomers The authors within this collection study these contestations from an interdisciplinary political science and international law perspective Based on evidence from a broad range of policy areas we address some of the crucial questions What does it mean to be affected How can affected groups meaningfully participate in international negotiations Whose voices do still remain excluded Ultimately the authors chart whether the rising involvement of the most affected will re shape global politics and social struggles on the ground Taking a dual political science and international law perspective Affectedness and Participation in International Institutions will be of great interest to scholars of civil society in global governance international law and international institutions This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Thematics

Un Análisis Socio-Criminológico de la Epidemia del VIH Bruno Meini,2022-03-01 En el mundo del siglo XXI las epidemias son sucesos biológicos y sociales comunes y el VIH quizás lo enfatice mejor que cualquier otra enfermedad Sin duda la investigación científica ha dado importantes pasos hacia adelante mientras tanto el campo de la investigación social se encuentra todavía en sus etapas iniciales y muchos esperan una respuesta igualmente auspiciosa Un Análisis Socio-Criminológico de la Epidemia del VIH ofrece un análisis integral de las dimensiones sociocriminológicas multifacéticas de la epidemia del VIH y contribuye positivamente al debate sociológico en curso sobre las enfermedades infecciosas El autor pretende crear una epistemología independiente del VIH para explicar las fuerzas sociales que impactan y determinan el curso y la experiencia de la epidemia al mismo tiempo que busca replantear el discurso popular sobre el VIH para reflejar las conceptualizaciones sociológicas Este último paso conduce a la identificación del concepto de interacción social como una herramienta adecuada para resaltar la compleja naturaleza social de este virus El desafío sin precedentes que plantea la epidemia para la comunidad internacional exige una cooperación global dirigida a evaluar los diversos aspectos de los problemas que muchos actores de este trágico drama deben abordar Dado su atractivo internacional de amplio alcance este libro también se recomienda para aquellos involucrados o interesados en problemas de salud global y enfermedades infecciosas Ser de particular interés para los investigadores médicos los trabajadores de la salud los científicos sociales los trabajadores sociales los encargados de formular políticas los trabajadores humanitarios los activistas del VIH y los derechos humanos y los estudiantes de posgrado
