Rent A Pet And Other Animal Stories:

Rent-a-pet, 1995 Dog, Inc. John Woestendiek, 2010-12-30 What Stiff did for the dead and Fast Food Nation did for the burger Dog Inc does for the stranger than fiction world of commercial dog cloning It all began with a pit bull named Booger Former Miss Wyoming Bernann McKinney was so distraught over the death of her dog whom she regarded as her guardian and savior that she paid 50 000 to RNL Bio for the chance to bring her beloved companion back to life The result were five new Boogers the first successful commercial cloning of a canine delivered in 2008 along with a slew of compelling questions about the boundaries of science commerce and ethics Blending shocking investigative reporting with colorful anecdotes Pulitzer Prize winning John Woestendiek takes readers behind the scenes of this emerging industry But Dog Inc isn't just a book about pets Nor is it just a book about science Rather it's a fascinating look at how our emotional needs are bending the reaches of science and technology as well as a study of this uncharted territory With our pet obsession climbing to new heights and our scientific abilities even more so this combination raises a serious concern Are we crossing the boundary of controlling science in the name of science in the name of love in the name of merchandising or a blend of all three
