The Jewelers' Circular ,1917 Song of the Ogeechee Jerry A. Maddox,2002-06-10 Song of the Ogeechee is based on a true story about two cousins who were like brothers born to families of affluent cotton planters in early 19th century Georgia who encountered set backs and ordeals caused by the Civil War followed by other hardships during the Reconstruction period It continues after this period to tell how they overcame problems and responded to adverse conditions to be recognized for their efforts in a world that was busy with industrial progress and social change The Allen cousins were born in Burke County near Midville not far from the Ogeechee River Dr Young John Allen spent his life in China and when he died was well known throughout China Korea Japan and America for his achievements as a Methodist missionary in China from 1860 to 1907 Capt John P Allen spent his life in Dawson and Terrell County Georgia and when he died was well known throughout the South as a member of the Immortal Six Hundred and as a pioneer citizen and reputable jeweler in Dawson The author attempts to tell this story for the first time to relate the amazing account of heritage and inherited talent in the Allen family through the symbol of a silver chalice passed on to descendants from 1857 and the magic of the Ogeechee River the Indian name for River of Songs

Manufacturing Time Amy Glasmeier,2000-08-10 Since the large scale manufacture of personal timepieces began industry leadership has shifted among widely disparate locations production systems and cultures This book recounts the story of the quest for supremacy in the manufacture of watches from the cottage industries of Britain to the preeminence of Switzerland and later the United States to the high tech plants of Japan and the sweatshops of Hong Kong Glasmeier examines both the strategies adopted by specific firms and the interplay of such varying influences as technological change cyclical economic downturns war and national trade policies In so doing she delineates a cohesive framework within which to address such broader questions as how sustained regional economic development takes place or starts and then stops how decisions made by corporations are structured by internal and external forces and the ways industrial cultures with different strategic learning capabilities facilitate or thwart the pursuit of technological change
