Repetition A Novel:

Repetition Peter Handke, 2020-01-28 Set in 1960 Nobel Prize winner Peter Handke's Repetition tells of Filib Kobal's journey from his home in Carinthia to Slovenia on the trail of his missing brother Gregor. He is armed only with two of Gregor's books: a copy book from agricultural school and a Slovenian-German dictionary in which Gregor has marked certain words. The resulting investigation of the laws of language and naming becomes a transformative investigation of himself and the world around him. Handke's eminence displayed in a substantial oeuvre of plays, novels, and poems is reaffirmed brilliantly by Repetition. Publishers Weekly

Repetition Vigdis Hjorth, 2026-03-03 Prize-winning novel by one of the foremost writers of her generation explores the horror and beauty of being sixteen years old. In a Norwegian November when it is dark at waking and dark at sleeping, a novelist in her sixties sits next to a teenaged girl at the opera and through their padded jackets feels a dreadfully familiar tension conducted from the parents seated on her far side. She thinks back to her sixteenth year: The year she first got drunk and the year she first had sex with a boy. A year of being circled by an anxious hawkish mother and at a notable distance her silent father. The year her family made an unspoken decision and an unspeakable sacrifice. Fiction and Repetition J. Hillis Miller, 1985-10-15 In Fiction and Repetition, one of our leading critics and literary theorists offers detailed interpretations of seven novels: Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights, Thackeray's Henry Esmond, Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles, and The Well-Beloved; Conrad's Lord Jim and Woolf's Mrs. Dalloway; and Between the Acts. Miller explores the multifarious ways in which repetition generates meaning in these novels: repetition of images, metaphors, motifs; repetition on a larger scale of episodes, characters, plots; and repetition from one novel to another by the same or different authors. While repetition creates meanings, it also, Miller argues, prevents the identification of a single determinable meaning for any of the novels; rather, the patterns made by the various repetitive sequences offer alternative possibilities of meaning which are incompatible. He thus sees undecidability as an inherent feature of the novels discussed. His conclusions make a provocative contribution to current debates about narrative theory and about the principles of literary criticism generally. His book is not a work of theory as such, however, and he avoids the technical terminology dear to many theorists; his book is an attempt to interpret as best he can his chosen texts. Because of his rare critical gifts and his sensitivity to literary values and nuances, his readings send one back to the novels with a new appreciation of their riches and their complexities of form. Repetition Peter Handke, 1988-06 Set in 1960, this novel tells of Filib Kobal's journey from his home in Carinthia to Slovenia on the trail of his missing brother Gregor. He is armed only with two of Gregor's books: a copy book from agricultural school and a Slovenian-German dictionary in which Gregor has marked certain words. The resulting investigation of the laws of language and naming becomes a transformative investigation of himself and the world around him. Telling It Again and Again Bruce F. Kavin, 2015 How do writers and filmmakers use repetition? It is useful when accenting an idea, but in this original and thought-provoking book, Bruce F. Kavin argues that it serves a more important function as a manipulator of our sense of time.

and of the timeless Brilliantly pitching the aesthetics of novelty against those of repetition Kavin shows that the connections and rhythm of repetition offer revelations about literature and film nature and memory and time and art Translation and Repetition Ma Carmen África Vidal Claramonte, 2023-07-13 Translation and Repetition Rewriting Un original Literature offers a new and original perspective in translation studies by considering creative repetition from the perspective of the translator This is done by analyzing so called unoriginal literature and thus expanding the definition of translation In Western thought repetition has long been regarded as something negative as a kind of cliché stereotype or automatism that is the opposite of creation On the other hand in the eyes of many contemporary philosophers from Wittgenstein and Derrida to Deleuze and Guattari repetition is more about difference It involves rewriting stories initially told in other contexts so that they acquire a different perspective In this sense repeating is often a political act Repetition is a creative impulse for the making of what is new Repetition as iteration is understood in this book as an action that recognizes the creative and critical potential of copying The author analyzes how our time understands originality and authorship differently from past eras and how the new philosophical ways of approaching repetition imply a new way of understanding the concept of originality and authorship Deconstruction of these notions also implies subverting the traditional ways of approaching translation This is vital reading for all courses on literary translation comparative literature and literature in translation within translation studies and literature

The J. Hillis Miller Reader Joseph Hillis Miller, Julian Wolfreys, 2005 This anthology exhibits the diversity inventiveness and intellectual energy of the writings of J Hillis Miller the most significant North American literary critic of the twentieth century From the 1950s onward Miller has made invaluable contributions to our understanding of the practice and theory of literary criticism the ethics and responsibilities of teaching and reading and the role of literature in the modern world He has also shown successive generations of scholars and students the necessity of comprehending the relationship between philosophy and literature Divided into six sections the volume provides more than twenty significant extracts from Miller's works In addition there is a new interview with Miller as well as a series of specially commissioned critical responses to Miller's work by a number of the leading figures in literary and cultural studies today Following a comprehensive critical introduction by the editor each section has a brief introduction directing the reader toward pertinent themes There is also a comprehensive bibliography and a chronology of Miller's professional life and activities This reader the first of Miller's work in English provides an indispensable overview and introduction to one of the most original critical voices to have emerged since the inception of the teaching of English and American literature in universities in the English speaking world Forms of Modern British Fiction Alan Warren Friedman, 2014-07-03 In Forms of Modern British Fiction six individualistic and strongminded critics delineate the age of modernism in British fiction Dating the age and the movement from later Hardy works through the deaths of Joyce and Woolf they present British fiction as a cohesive self contained unit of literary history Hardy appears as the first of the modern British novelists Lawrence as the central and Joyce and Woolf as the last The writers and the modern movement are framed by precursors such as Galsworthy and by successors Durrell Beckett and Henry Green the postmoderns The pattern of the essays suggests a growing self consciousness on the part of twentieth century writers as they seek not only to refine their predecessors but also to deny and sometimes obliterate them The moderns thus deny the novel itself a genre once firmly rooted in history and forms of social life Their works do not assume that comfortable mimetic relationship between the fictive realities of art and life Consequently there has now evolved a poetics of the novel that is virtually identifiable with modern fiction a poetics still highly problematical in its attempt to denote a medium in whose name eclectic innovativeness and incessant revitalizing are proclaimed

Forms of Modern British Fiction refines and advances the discussion of the modern novel and the world it and we inhabit The Modernist Novel Stephen Kern, 2011-06-23 Leading scholar Stephen Kern offers a probing analysis of the modernist novel encompassing American British and European works Organized thematically the book offers a comprehensive analysis of the stunningly original formal innovations in novels by Conrad Joyce Woolf Proust Gide Faulkner Dos Passos Kafka Musil and others Kern contextualizes and explains how formal innovations captured the dynamic history of the period reconstructed as ten master narratives He also draws briefly on poetry and painting of the first half of the twentieth century The Modernist Novel is set to become a fundamental source for discussions of the genre and a useful introduction to the subject for students and scholars of modernism and twentieth century literature

The Victorian Novel and the Problems of Marine Language Matthew P. M. Kerr, 2022 This book shows how prose writers in the Victorian period grappled with the sea as a setting a shaper of plot and character as a structuring motif and as a source of metaphor

Resisting Novels (Routledge Revivals) Lennard J. Davis, 2014-06-27 By making friends with signs Lennard Davis argues we are weakening the bond that anchors us to the social world the world of action and binding ourselves to the ideological For the reader this power of the novel needs to be resisted But there is a double resistance at work the novel is also a defensive structure positioning us against alienation and loneliness the dehumanising symptoms of modern life While discussions surrounding ideology in novels traditionally concentrate on thematics in this study first published in 1987 Davis approaches the subject through such structural features as location character dialogue and plot Drawing on a wide range of novels from the seventeenth century to the present day and on psychoanalysis as well as philosophy Resisting Novels explores how fiction works subliminally to resist change and to detach the reader from the world of lived experience This controversial critique will engage students and academics with a particular interest in literary theory

Repetition in Performance Eirini Kartsaki, 2017-08-23 This book explores repetition in contemporary performance and spectatorship It offers an impassioned account of the ways in which speech movement and structures repeat in performances by Pina Bausch Anne Teresa De Keersmaeker Lone Twin Theatre Haranczak Navarre and Marco Berrettini It addresses repetition in relation to processes of desire and draws attention to the forces that repetition captures and makes visible What is it in performances of repetition that persuades us to return to them again and again How might we unpack their complexities and come to terms with their demands upon us While considering repetition in relation to the difficult pleasures we derive from the theatre this book explores ways of accounting for such experiences of theatre in memory and writing The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel Tim

Lanzendörfer,2015-11-19 The Poetics of Genre in the Contemporary Novel investigates the role of genre in the contemporary novel taking its departure from the observation that numerous contemporary novelists make use of popular genre influences in what are still widely considered to be literary novels it sketches the uses the work and the value of genre It suggests the value of a critical look at texts genre use for an analysis of the contemporary moment From this it develops a broader perspective suggesting the value of genre criticism and taking into view traditional genres such as the bildungsroman and the metafictional novel as well as the kinds of amalgamated forms which have recently come to prominence In essays discussing a wide range of authors from Steven Hall to Bret Easton Ellis to Colson Whitehead the contributors to the volume develop their own readings of genre s work and valence in the contemporary novel Postmodernism, Twenty-First Century

Culture, and American Fiction Matt Graham,2024-07-19 Postmodernism s end is a complex and contentious topic Yet one overarching consensus emerges the postmodern has been surpassed This book poses a thought experiment challenging this position what if postmodernism persists within the twenty first century Rather than designate a new epoch or coherent movement this book interrogates the fragmented contradictory and counterintuitive endurance of postmodern aesthetics within post Cold War America An alternative use of postmodern aesthetics becomes possible when they are decoupled from their twentieth century historical location Collectively these repetitions posit a postmodern continuum contrasting the widely called for succession of postmodernism via this decoupling When postmodern aesthetics are no longer unconsciously repeated within their cultural moment this emergent shift within a period after postmodernism presents an alternative historical positioning and use After their cultural vanguard postmodern aesthetics become a confrontation of the chaotic realism of an inescapable post Cold War capitalism tapping into this cultural zeitgeist through literature Modernist Time

Ecology Jesse Matz,2018-12-03 A new view of the way modernist fiction writers tried to solve the problem of time Do our fictions transform time Do they cultivate the temporal environment Such was the hope or the fantasy at work in many modernist novels for which time was not only the major subject but also an object of reparative aspiration Aimed at a kind of stewardship of time these fictions constitute a practice of modernist time ecology an effort to restore those landscapes of time that have been thrown into crisis by modernity In Modernist Time Ecology Jesse Matz redefines temporal experimentation in central writers like Proust Mann Woolf Ellison and Cather who developed literary forms to cultivate restore and enrich the temporal environment He brings fresh attention to others who best exemplify this ecological motive arguing that E M Forster J B Priestley and V S Naipaul are leading figures in this practice of temporal redress Matz also reveals how contemporary film social media movements and public service efforts show what has become of the modernist interest in temporal stewardship Matz combines an array of disciplines including narrative theory sociology phenomenology cognitive psychology film studies queer theory and environmental studies to theorize and explain the rationale and the limits to the idea that time might be subject to textual cultivation Modernist Time Ecology is a deeply interdisciplinary book that changes what we think literature and the arts can do for the world at large Sub-and Supra-Second Timing: Brain, Learning and Development Lihan Chen,Yan Bao,Marc Wittmann,2016-08-15 Time perception in the range of milliseconds to a few seconds is essential for many important sensory and perceptual tasks including speech perception motion perception motor coordination and cross modal interaction For the brain to be in synchrony with the environment the physical differences in the speeds of light and sound as well as stimuli from other modalities such as odors must be processed and coordinated P ppe Bao et al 2015 Time is a subjective feeling that is modulated by emotional states which trigger temporal distortions temporal dilation vs contraction Wittmann et al 2014 hence give rise to subjective time that may be different to event time as initially registered in the brain Recent research suggests that time perception in a multisensory world is subject to prior task experience and shaped by statistical learning processes Humans are active learners That is the engagement of the own body in a timing task within a perceptual action loop will make a noticeable difference in timing performance as compared to when humans only passively perceive the same perceptual scenario Bao et al 2015 Chen Vroomen 2013 This Research Topic of Sub and Supra Second Timing Brain Learning and Development has integrated sixteen submissions of novel research on sub and supra timing We have categorized the papers in this topic into the following four themes from which we can deduce trends of research about multisensory timing in the sub and supra second range Sensory timing interaction and reliability Adaptive representation of time learning and temporal prediction Sensorimotor synchronization embodiment and coordination Perspective of psychological moment and temporal organization Overall the collections in Sub and Supra Second Timing Brain Learning and Development show some recent trends and debates in multisensory timing research as well as provide a venue to inspire future work in multisensory timing Seriality and Texts for Young People M. Reimer,N. Ali,D. England,M. Dennis Unrau,Melanie Dennis Unrau,2014-12-23 Seriality and Texts for Young People is a collection of thirteen scholarly essays about series and serial texts directed to children and youth each of which begins from the premise that a basic principle of seriality is repetition The Elusive Everyday in the Fiction of Marilynne Robinson Laura E. Tanner,2021 A study of the fiction of Pulitzer Prize winning novelist Marilynne Robinson It uses a variety of critical approaches to explore the way that the novelist plays her large theme of loss into the meticulously created everyday world of her characters British Fiction Today Rod Mengham,Philip Tew,2006-11-07 British Fiction Today provides students and readers with a critical introduction to key authors and novels since 1990 and provides the latest critical perspectives on current British fiction It offers comprehensive and up to date coverage of a broad range of selected contemporary authors drawing together both established and emerging literary voices reflecting the scope of the new British writing The book is organised around common themes Modern Lives Contemporary Living Dreamtime States of Identity and Histories Each section begins with a short introductory essay and ends with a guide to further reading Introducing key works writers and major themes including post colonialism pluralism gender and history this book is the ideal guide to British fiction today Includes discussion of Martin Amis Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Alan Hollinghurst Peter Ackroyd Jenny Diski Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Toby Litt Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Jeanette Winterson Pat Barker A S Byatt Adam Thorpe and Sarah Waters

Postcolonial Readings of Music in World Literature Cameron Bushnell, 2012-12-12 This book reads representations of Western music in literary texts to reveal the ways in which artifacts of imperial culture function within contemporary world literature Bushnell argues that Western music's conventions for performance composition and listening established during the colonial period persist in postcolonial thought and practice Music from the Baroque Classical and Romantic periods Bach through Brahms coincides with the rise of colonialism and Western music contains imperial attitudes and values embedded within its conventions standards and rules The book focuses on the culture of classical music as reflected in the worlds of characters and texts and contends that its effects outlast the historical significance of the real composers pieces styles and forms Through examples by authors such as McEwan Vikram Seth Bernard MacLaverty Chang rae Lee and J M Coetzee the book demonstrates how Western music enters narrative as both acts of history and as structures of analogy that suggest subject positions human relations and political activity that in turn describes a postcolonial condition The uses to which Western music is put in each literary text reveals how European art music of the seventeenth through the nineteenth centuries is read and misread by postcolonial generations exposing mostly hidden cultural structures that influence our contemporary understandings of social relations and hierarchies norms for resolution and for assigning significance and standards of propriety The book presents strategies for thinking anew about the persistence of cultural imperialism reading Western music simultaneously as representative of imperial cultural dominance and as suggestive of resistant structures forms and practices that challenge the imperial hegemony
