Report From Banaran Experiences During T:

Report from Banaran T. B. Simatupang, 2009-11 The Indonesian Revolution 1945 1950 was the occasion by which Indonesia achieved political independence But the way in which this common twentieth century event came about in the general violence and exaltation of a true revolution made it far more important than that Like the Mexican Russian Chinese and Vietnamese revolutions the Indonesian Revolution has been the central event in its country's whole modern history For this reason any addition to the small stock of good English language writings on the Revolution like Report from Banaran is doubly welcome not only for what it can tell us about the event itself but also for what it can tell us about the Indonesian condition in modern times General Simatupang a Christian Batak with a Dutch education who helped lead a guerrilla war in the Javanese countryside a man who while still in his twenties was simultaneously one of the principal founders of the Indonesian army and one of the key figures in four years of diplomatic negotiations with the Dutch is well qualified by background and experience for his subject Two short periods stand out in the history of the Indonesian Revolution its first great explosion between August 1945 and mid 1946 and its climax which is the main subject of Report from Banaran between December 1948 and July 1949 The first set its stamp on the whole The sudden surrender of the Japanese on August 15 1945 created an immediate vacuum of power which neither the British acting for the victorious Allies nor the Dutch nor the Republic hastily proclaimed on August 17 could possibly fill Out of the void emerged the most powerful single force of the ensuing Revolution a mass movement of pemuda youths caught up in a fervent Indonesian nationalism and committed to an uncompromising perjuangan struggle for freedom Absolute idealism led naturally to violence first against Japanese posts and British occupying forces then to a more general assault on social groups privileged under the old Netherlands Indies order Chinese Eurasians Christian Ambonese traditional elites and village and clan leaders through most of Sumatra and Java John R W Smail Nguyen Cochinchina Li Tana, 2018-08-06 In this historical reassessment of southern Vietnam and its distinct culture Li Tana illuminates the resourceful qualities of the Dong Trong pioneers develops a meticulous analysis of the Nguyen trade and taxation systems and in the process redefines the chief cause of the Tay Son rebellion Li Tana's study focuses on the socio economics of Nguyen Cochinchina such as the role of foreign merchants the region's trading economy demographic influences religious and cultural values how Nguyen rule affected Vietnamese settlers relationships with uplanders and processes of localization and identity formation The Revolution Falters Patricio Abinales, 2018-05-31 A detailed investigation of the contemporary Philippine Left focusing on the political challenges and dilemmas that confronted activists following the disintegration of the Marcos regime and the reestablishment of electoral democracy under Corazon Aquino The authors focus on such varied topics as peasant politics urban social movements purges and executions and Marxist theory Opusculum de Sectis apud Sinenses et Tunkinenses Father Adriano di St. Thecla, 2018-05-31 This 1750 text written by a Catholic missionary in Tonkin is the earliest known systematic first hand account of Vietnamese religious

Ngaosyvathn,2018-08-06 A reexamination of the historical relationship between Laos and Thailand by two preeminent Lao historians who bring to light a wealth of new source material in their evaluation of the Laotian leader Chao Anou and his failed revolt against Siam This book challenges conventional Thai interpretations of that event and of the political conflicts leading up to it Southern Vietnam under the Reign of Minh Mang (1820-1841) Choi Byung Wook,2018-05-31 This study of nineteenth century Vietnam focuses on interactions between the Vietnamese king Minh Mang and the heterogeneous southern region of the country which he sought to bring more firmly under state control through a series of polices intended to Vietnamize the populace and unite north and south Conditions of Violence Christian

Gerlach,2024-11-04 Mass violence comes not only from states but also from people By analyzing mass violence as social interaction through survivor accounts and other sources this book presents understudied agents aims and practices of direct violence and ways of action of those under persecution Sound history examining the noises of mass violence and persecution is particularly telling about such practices This volume shows that violence can become socially hegemonic and some people claim a freedom to kill as a political right To scrutinize indirect violence which is often imperialist in character and claims many victims the book proposes the concept of conditions of violence These conditions are produced by definable groups of actors and foreseeably harm definable groups which differs from the anonymous and static structural violence This is exemplified in a case study concerning famines in World War II and another on COVID 19 as mass violence Less global in character other case studies in this volume deal with Rwanda Bangladesh East Pakistan and the Soviet Union

Interpreting Development John L. S. Girling,2018-05-31 A study of rapid capitalist development in Thailand and the rivalries generated not only between the older bureaucracy and the newer rising entrepreneurial elite but also between urban and rural entrepreneurs Girling explores the classic problems associated with capitalism and democracy the dangers and exhilaration of nationalist sentiment the contradictions inherent in Thai development and the rise of the middle class His work is a fascinating reconsideration of problems that have faced many theorists Cultures at War Tony Day,Maya H. T. Liem,2018-08-06 The Cold War in Southeast Asia was a many faceted conflict driven by regional historical imperatives as much as by the contest between global superpowers The essays in this book offer the most detailed and probing examination to date of the cultural dimension of the Cold War in Southeast Asia Southeast Asian culture from the late 1940s to the late 1970s was primarily shaped by a long standing search for national identity and independence which took place in the context of intense rivalry between the United States and the Soviet Union with the Peoples Republic of China emerging in 1949 as another major international competitor for influence in Southeast Asia Based on fieldwork in Burma Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam the essays in this collection analyze the ways in which art literature film theater spectacle physical culture and the popular press represented Southeast Asian responses to the Cold War and commemorated that era's violent conflicts long after tensions had subsided Southeast Asian cultural reactions to the Cold War involved various solutions to the dilemmas of the newly independent nation states of the region What is common to all of the perspectives and works examined in this book is that they expressed social and aesthetic concerns that both antedated and outlasted the Cold War ones that never became simply aligned with the ideologies of either bloc Contributors Francisco B Benitez University of Washington Bo Bo Burmese writer SOAS University of London Michael Bodden University of Victoria Simon Creak Australian National University Gaik Cheng Khoo Australian National University Rachel Harrison SOAS University of London Barbara Hatley University of Tasmania Boitran Huynh Beattie Asiarta Foundation Jennifer Lindsay Australian National University

Political Authority and Provincial Identity in Thailand Yoshinori Nishizaki, 2018-08-06 The powerful Thai politician Banharn Silpa archa has been disparaged as a corrupt operator who for years channeled excessive state funds into developing his own rural province This book reinterprets Banharn's career and offers a detailed portrait of the voters who support him Relying on extensive interviews the author shows how Banharn's constituents have developed a strong provincial identity based on their pride in his advancement of their province Suphanburi which many now call Banharn buri the place of Banharn Yoshinori Nishizaki's analysis challenges simplistic perceptions of rural Thai voters and raises vital questions about contemporary democracy in Thailand Yoshinori Nishizaki's close and thorough examination of the numerous public construction projects sponsored and even personally funded by Banharn clearly illustrates this politician's canny abilities and tireless meticulous oversight of his domain Banharn's constituents are aware that Suphanburi was long considered a backward province by other Thais notably the Bangkok elite Suphanburians hold the neglectful central government responsible for their province's former sorry condition and humiliating reputation Banharn has successfully identified himself as the antithesis to the inefficient central state by promoting rapid development and advertising his own role in that development through well publicized donations public ceremonies and visits to the sites of new buildings and highways Much standard literature on rural politics and society in Thailand and other democratizing countries in Southeast Asia would categorize this politician as a typical strongman the boss of a semiviolent patronage network that squeezes votes out of the people That standard analysis would utterly fail to recognize and understand the grassroots realities of Suphanburi that Nishizaki has captured in his study This compassionate well grounded analysis challenges simplistic perceptions of rural Thai voters and raises vital questions about contemporary democracy in Thailand

Golddiggers, Farmers, and Traders in the "Chinese Districts" of West Kalimantan, Indonesia Mary Somers Heidhues, 2018-05-31 This study examines the changing role of the Chinese community of West Kalimantan particularly its economic and social relationships Heidhues explores the history of the community from the early nineteenth century establishment of the kongsis to the Dayak Raids which uprooted the rural Chinese population in the 1960s

History, Culture, and Region in Southeast Asian

Perspectives O. W. Wolters, 2018-08-06 A new edition of this classic study of mandala Southeast Asia The revised book includes a substantial retrospective postscript examining contemporary scholarship that has contributed to the understanding of Southeast Asian history since 1982
