Reporting Vietnam Pt 1 American Journalism 1959-1969:

Non-Violence Domenico Losurdo, 2015-04-09 We know of the blood and tears provoked by the projects of transformation of the world through war or revolution Starting from the essay published in 1921 by Walter Benjamin twentieth century philosophy has been committed to the criticism of violence even when it has claimed to follow noble ends But what do we know of the dilemmas of the betrayals of the disappointments and tragedies which the movement of non violence has suffered This book tells a fascinating history from the American Christian organizations in the first decades of the nineteenth century who wanted to eliminate slavery and war in a non violent way to the protagonists of movements Thoreau Tolstoy Gandhi Capitini M L King the Dalai Lama who either for idealism or for political calculation flew the flag of non violence up to the leaders of today s color revolutions

The Second Indochina War Ang Cheng Guan, 2025-11-03 Drawing upon Vietnamese Chinese former Soviet and American sources Ang Cheng Guan provides an updated and concise account of the Vietnam War 1954-1975 from the Vietnamese communists perspective In the last few decades discourse on the Second Indochina War has shifted towards the South and its allies To mark the 50th anniversary of the fall of Saigon Ang revisits the experiences of the North Focusing on scholarship published within the last 30 years the book reexamines the 1954 Geneva Conference the end of the First Vietnam War through the Second Vietnam War to the 1975 Fall of Saigon bringing readers up to date on the current state of the field This book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of history war studies peace and conflict studies as well as for those interested in the historical and contemporary implications of the Vietnam War

Peace Is a Shy Thing Alex Vernon, 2025-05-27 The first literary biography of Tim O'Brien the preeminent American writer of the war in Vietnam and one of the best writers of his generation drawing on never before seen materials and original interviews Vietnam made me a writer Tim O'Brien Featuring over one hundred interviews with family friends peers and others not to mention countless exchanges with Tim O'Brien himself Peace is a Shy Thing provides a nearly day by day gripping account of O'Brien's thirteen months as an infantryman in Vietnam and gives equal diligence to reconstructing O'Brien's writing process This meticulously researched biography explores the life and journey that turned O'Brien into a literary icon and a household name It includes an unpublished short story about O'Brien from a college girlfriend documentation of his comical involvement with the Washington Post's coverage of Watergate and a 1989 attic exchange between American and Vietnamese writers on the eve of the publication of O'Brien's most beloved book The Things They Carried years before the two countries normalized relations Peace is a Shy Thing is as much a history of the era as it is a story of O'Brien's life from his small town midwestern mid-century childhood to winning the National Book Award and his status as literary elder statesman A story which Vernon a combat veteran of the Persian Gulf War and a literary scholar trained by officers and professors of the Vietnam era is uniquely suited to tell

A Memoir of Creativity Piri Halasz, 2009 A Memoir of Creativity chronicles one woman's life journey as she derives a theory revealing meaning in abstract painting from varied personal and professional experiences and tells how she locates this theory within a broader social context In 1966 Piri Halasz became the first woman within living memory to write a cover story for Time and not just any cover story either the notorious one on Swinging London With wit and wisdom she provides a glimpse into her red diaper childhood as well as reporting on her climb at Time from research to the writing staff Vividly she describes her controversial career as a female journalist during the sixties offering an inside view of newsweekly rivalries during that tempestuous decade Halasz then moves on to her initiation into the art world her lively interaction with some of its most distinguished denizens and her immersion in graduate school She concludes with what she has learned about art art history and history itself since the early eighties applying that knowledge to better understand the twenty first century Through sharing her life story Halasz encourages others to remain open to new experiences to try different ways of seeing and to use creativity to tackle hurdles

Triangles, Symbols, and Constraints Charles M. Dobbs, 2010 In his five plus years as president of the United States Lyndon Johnson witnessed dramatic power struggles within and between the Soviet Union the People's Republic of China and the United States of America New Soviet leaders were determined to build Soviet power and extend Soviet influence Mao's revolutionary ideology so dominated China that there were few levers to move Sino American relations ahead Johnson wanted to ease Cold War tensions by reaching a range of agreements with the Soviet Union on nuclear weapons and establishing relations with the People's Republic of China in order to end its isolation in the world community However multiple events frustrated Johnson's good intentions The Soviet leadership that overthrew Nikita Khrushchev was committed to expanding its military might before negotiating with Washington it also began focusing more and more on the worsening Sino Soviet split Mao Zedong entered into the Great Proletarian Cultural Revolution and China seemed to devour itself Meanwhile the Vietnam War made negotiations among all three great powers more difficult limiting room to maneuver But Johnson persevered and by 1968 the apparent American retreat symbolized by the North Korean seizure of the USS Pueblo and the Communist Tet Offensive in Vietnam along with the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia seemed to change the construct between the great powers Beijing emerging from the worst of the Cultural Revolution increasingly feared Soviet intentions and Moscow wanted to prevent a Sino American rapprochement Although Johnson did not achieve his lofty goals he created the pre conditions that Richard Nixon later harvested for the détente with Moscow and rapprochement with Beijing Johnson's best intentions fell prey to triangles symbols and constraints

Vietnam Doc William Clayton Petty MD, 2016-07-29 Dr William Clayton Petty believes anesthesia is a gift from God to mankind and for many years it was his privilege his living and his blessing In Vietnam Doc he shares his unique experience as the chief of anesthesia at a very busy military hospital during the Vietnam War Petty received his orders in 1969 and reported to the 24th Evacuation Hospital a hospital with a phenomenal record for trauma care that recorded low mortality rates of two to three percent He tells how the Vietnam War was his baptism of fire in anesthesia for trauma and he describes the workings of the complex task of providing surgical care to multiple soldiers with traumatic injuries due to combat Vietnam Doc offers keen insight into the intensity of the life of a medic during the war and of the wounded soldiers he and other medical personnel worked so hard to save Poignant reflective and often gut wrenching Petty narrates his personal reflections on how these events affected his life and those of others

The Political Fiction of Ward Just David Smit,2020-07-02

The Political Fiction of Ward Just Class Theories of Representation and Imagining a Ruling Elite uses three theoretical frameworks of representation literary political and diplomatic to demonstrate how the upper class status of the ruling elites in Ward Just's political fiction influences the way they govern He illustrates how Just's ruling elites develop a coherent upper class form of consciousness that limits their ability as elected officials to adequately represent the interests of all the nation's citizens domestically especially the poor and working class and their ability as diplomats to adequately represent the interests of the nation as a whole internationally In his conclusion the author offers suggestions for ways to make our ruling elites more representative of the interests of the working class and underprivileged groups at home and more sensitive to the cultures of the countries in which they serve abroad

A Newsman in the Nixon White House Wafa Unus,2018-11-27

Herbert G Klein was a significant figure in both journalism and political history during the mid to late Twentieth Century Klein is best known as longtime advisor to Richard Nixon and was with Nixon at peak moments in his career including the Checkers Speech and Nixon's 1960 and 1962 campaigns Upon Nixon's election as President Klein became the White House Director of Communications a new position Klein was tasked with designing For four years Klein was known as one of Nixon's chief advisors But then for reasons historians have never fully explored he disappears from Nixon's political landscape as well as from scholarly and public prominence This book establishes Herbert G Klein as a formative figure in the Richard Nixon White House whose contributions to Nixon's press strategies their subsequent impact on the president's actions attitudes and eventual fall have been largely overshadowed in scholarly literature It explores the then emerging and now enduring conflict between journalistic truth and presidential image The work draws from previously unexplored materials on Klein in the Richard Nixon Presidential Library The account is notable for the first examination of Klein's only known oral history lessening a gap in the existing literature on Nixon's aides and his relationship with the media

History Day by Day: 366 Voices from the Past

Peter Furtado,2019-08-27 A compelling day by day glimpse of highlights from 2 500 years of human history through 366 quotations History Day by Day presents an original perspective on over two millennia of human history through 366 quotations one for each day of the year including leap years Each quotation tied to the anniversary of a significant historical event captures that moment with the immediacy of an eyewitness or the narrative flair of a chronicler Every day becomes a window to the past on March 15 44 BCE Julius Caesar falls victim to Brutus and his coconspirators on May 1 1851 novelist Charlotte Brontë visits London's Great Exhibition on June 28 1919 in the Hall of Mirrors at the Palace of Versailles broken spirited German delegates sign the treaty that brings World War I to its fateful conclusion and on September 11 2001 people

Vietnam focuses on veterans war zone experiences and the development in some of PTSD It addresses controversies regarding reported rates of PTSD and the importance of exposure to traumatic events compared with pre war personal vulnerability Red, White, or Yellow? Charles Jones, 2008-08-14 War has always attracted journalists such as Ernest Hemingway in the Spanish Civil War or David Halberstam in Vietnam And war reporting has often been controversial as well as influential like William Randolph Hearst s yellow journalism in the Spanish American War But what happens when 24 7 news channels and the Internet make news instantaneous when the public s attention span decreases when political and military leaders employ slick spinmeisters to package the news when reporters lose their objectivity In this passionate look at how war is reported in the age of Fox News and blogging Charles Jones takes readers from the front page to the front lines and back again to explore how the Iraq War has been covered Along the way he interviews journalists and military leaders including Jim Lehrer of PBS Jamie McIntyre of CNN Rick Atkinson of the Washington Post Joe Klein of Time and former Marine Gen James L Jones and describes the conflict between the media which claims a right to know and the military which claims a need for secrecy and security Jones shows us Geraldo Rivera drawing battle plans in the sand MSNBC censoring Phil Donahue and Donald Rumsfeld oh golly ing reporters at the Pentagon and answers these questions Why has public interest in news about Iraq declined since 2003 Why do most people seem to care more about Britney Spears and Paris Hilton than about the latest casualties in Iraq And why do many news outlets indulge those preferences How does the embedding process work Has it been successful How has the military disseminated information about the war To what extent has the Bush administration twisted the facts How do reporters balance objectivity and patriotism What are the obligations of a journalist in wartime
