Representations Of Motherhood:

Representations of Motherhood Donna Bassin, Margaret Honey, Meryle Mahrer Kaplan, 1994-01-01 Explores the maternal experience from the mother's point of view The book questions a society that has devalued and sentimentalized motherhood and presents images of generative and creative women who are also mothers It also discusses the portrayal of mothers in art film and literature

Representing Motherhood: Images of Mothers in Contemporary Young Adult Literature Nadine Röpke, 2006-07-10 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.7 Humboldt University of Berlin Anglistisches Institut language English abstract Introduction The role of women in American society has changed tremendously during the last 50 years Women started to enter the labour force and to free themselves from the restrictions of home Starting to work outside their domestic realm they became more independent and self-reliant With the empowerment of women the role of mothers started to change as well No longer did mothers identify themselves only through their husbands and children but increasingly looked for possibilities to fulfill themselves outside the family and to take an active part in society Expectations on mothers altered and with it the standard assumptions of motherhood were called into question and the vision of a new mother a person who has her own needs feelings and interests was emerging Mothering was no longer regarded as women's primary and sole mission but as one of many roles women could and did assume Nevertheless despite those changes the myth of the all-giving and self-devoting mother did prevail and can even be found in American present-day society Especially the media and advertisements still celebrate the ideal mother whose only source of gratification is her family Although the image of the mother as a mere child-rearer is out of date those conventional forms of representation still exist and construct people's understanding of motherhood

Museum Representations of Motherhood and the Maternal Rebecca Louise-Clarke, 2023-11-27 Museum Representations of Motherhood and the Maternal is the first book to address the underrepresentation of motherhood in museums Questioning how mothering and maternal experiences should be represented in museums Louise Clarke argues that such institutions wield the power to influence what we think about families mothers and the labour of care Using the term mothering to encompass lived experiences of mothering or caring that are not exclusively tied to sex gender or the maternal body Louise Clarke explores the ways that experiences of mothering can be represented in museums The book begins this exploration with Australia's Museums Victoria MV then expands to look at international cases Offering a blueprint for what Louise Clarke calls a museology of mothering the book imagines what a museum that articulates maternal subjectivities might look and sound like Museum Representations of Motherhood and the Maternal initiates a dialogue between museum studies and maternal studies making it essential reading for scholars and students working in both disciplines Questioning conventional museum practices and the values that underpin them the book will also be of interest to museum and heritage practitioners around the world

Motherhood and Representation E. Ann Kaplan, 2013-07-23 From novels of the nineteenth century to films of the 1990s American culture abounds with images of white middle class mothers In Motherhood and Representation E Ann Kaplan considers how the mother appears in three related spheres the historical in which she charts changing representations of the mother from 1830 to the postmodernist present the psychoanalytic which discusses theories of the mother from Freud to Lacan and the French Feminists and the mother as she is figured in cultural representations in literary and film texts such as East Lynne Marnie and The Handmaid's Tale as well as in journalism and popular manuals on motherhood Kaplan's analysis identifies two dominant paradigms of the mother as Angel and Witch and charts the contesting and often contradictory discourses of the mother in present day America The Juggling Mother Amanda D.

Watson, 2020-09-15 Who is the juggling mother the woman who quietly flicks dried cereal off her blazer while running a corporate empire The Juggling Mother explores this figure of contemporary mothering in media representations a typically white middle class woman on the verge of coming undone because of her unwieldy slate of labours Mothers who frantically juggle paid and unpaid work demands do not threaten the way labour is organized In fact as Amanda Watson demonstrates they are model neoliberal workers who uphold white privilege along with ableist notions of mastery capacity and productivity because of a desire for political visibility and social inclusion The Juggling Mother makes the controversial case that unfair labour distributions are publicly celebrated intentionally performed and intimately felt Mothers with the most power are thus complicit in the exclusion of less privileged ones and in their own undoing The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond Rosalind Mayo, Christina Moutsou, 2016-10-04 The question of what it means to be a mother is a very contentious topic in psychoanalysis and in wider society The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond explores our relationship to the maternal through psychoanalysis philosophy art and political and gender studies Over two years a group of psychotherapists and members of the public met at the Philadelphia Association for a series of seminars on the Maternal In the discussions that followed a chasm opened up slowly and painfully between the idealised longings and fantasies we all share and the realities of maternal experiences here were met the great silences of love loss longing memories desire hatred and ambivalence This book is the result of this bringing together in conversation and reflections of what so often seems unsayable about the Mother It examines how issues of personal and gender identity are shaped by the ideals of separation from the mother the fears and anxiety of merging with the mother and how this has often led in psychoanalysis and society to holding mothers responsible for a variety of personal and social ills and problems in which maternal vulnerability is denied and silenced There are two main themes running throughout the book Matricide and Maternal Subjectivity On the theme of matricide several contributors discuss the ways in which the discourse and narratives of the Mother have been silenced on a sociocultural level and within psychoanalysis and philosophy in favour of discourses that promote independence autonomy power and the avoidance and denial of our fundamental helplessness and vulnerability On the theme of maternal subjectivity several chapters look at the actual experience of mothering and or our relationship to our mother to highlight the ways in which the maternal is intimately connected with human subjectivity The Mother in Psychoanalysis and Beyond provides new and provocative thinking about the maternal and its place in various contemporary discourses It will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychologists of different schools scholars and advanced students of art gender studies politics and philosophy as well as anyone interested in maternity studies and the relationship between the maternal and human subjectivity

Gender, Identity & Reproduction S. Earle, G. Letherby, 2003-10-31 Gender Identity and Reproduction draws on a variety of perspectives relevant to an understanding of reproduction across the life course Through a consideration of the representation of reproductive identities and experiences the book highlights difference and diversity in relation to contemporary reproductive choices The book focuses on women's and men's experiences of agency control and negotiation within the context of cultural medical political theoretical and lay ideologies of the reproductive process in contemporary Western societies

Women in Polish Cinema Ewa Mazierska, Elzbieta Ostrowska, 2006-03-01 Polish film has long enjoyed an outstanding reputation but its best known protagonists tend to be male This book points to the important role of women as key characters in Polish films such as the enduring female figure in Polish culture the Polish Mother female characters in socialist realistic cinema women depicted in the films of the Polish School Solidarity heroines and women in the films from the postcommunist period Not less important for the success of Polish cinema are Polish women filmmakers four of whom are presented in this volume Wanda Jakubowska Agnieszka Holland Barbara Sass and Dorota K dzierzawska whose work is examined

The Good Mother Susan Goodwin, Kate Huppertz, 2010-09-21 Although the ideals of the good mother change with time fashion and context they persist in public policy the media popular culture and workplaces placing pressure on women to conform to particular standards against which they are judged and judge themselves The Good Mother demonstrates that prevailing ideas about mothers and motherhood continue to influence the way types of women are represented and the way that all mothers think act and present themselves

Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories methodologies and practices in feminist family studies The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work

Representations of Black Women in the Media Marquita Marie Gammage, 2015-10-16 In 1920 W E B Du Bois cited the damnation of women as linked to the devaluation of motherhood This dilemma he argues had a crushing blow on Black women as they were forced into slavery Black womanhood portrayed as hypersexual by nature became an enduring stereotype which did not coincide with the dignity of mother and wife This portrayal continues to reinforce negative stereotypes of Black women in the media today This book highlights how Black women have been negatively portrayed in the media focusing on the export nature of media and its ability to convey notions of Blackness to the public It argues that media such as rap music videos television dramas reality television shows and newscasts create and affect expectations of Black women Exploring the role that racism misogyny and media play in the representation of Black womanhood it provides a foundation for challenging contemporary media's portrayal of Black women The Motherhood Constellation Daniel N. Stern, 2020-06-16 This book explores the nature of parent infant psychotherapies therapies that are a major segment of the rapidly growing sprawling field of infant mental health It examines the different elements that make up the parent infant clinical system Surrogacy and the Reproduction of Normative Family on TV Lulu Le Vay, 2019-05-23 This book examines the proliferation of surrogacy storylines on TV exploring themes of infertility motherhood parenting and family It investigates how despite reproductive technologies ability to flex contours of family the shows narratives work to uphold the white heterosexual genetically reproduced family as the ideal In dialogue with responses from a range of female viewers both mothers and non mothers the book scrutinises the construction of family ideology on television with studies including Coronation Street 1960 present Giuliana is homosexuality only acceptable when it echoes heterosexual norms Are female characters only fulfilled when they are genetic mothers Does heterosexual romance override technology in the cure for infertility While the answers to these questions may suggest that television still conforms to heteronormative narratives this book importantly demonstrates that audiences desire alternative happy endings that show infertile female characters more positively and recognise alternative kinship formations as meaningful The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen Susan Liddy, Deirdre Flynn, 2025-04-25 The Routledge Handbook of Motherhood on Screen offers a comprehensive global analysis of the representation of Mothers and Motherhood in contemporary screen industries and online spaces Over five distinct sections this handbook examines how the complexities and realities of contemporary motherhood are translated to the screen Offering a full scholarly overview of the field this handbook provides a ground breaking and important contribution to our understanding of motherhood on screen The geographical and genre reach of the handbook presents new ways of theorising and reframing current scholarly debate and gives a wide ranging and comprehensive contribution to knowledge of on screen representations An international team of established scholars and emerging voices provide analysis of representations from around the world spanning a breadth of genres The chapters situate transnational screen representations of motherhood in the 21st Century and assess the implications of contemporary representation of motherhood Thoroughly challenging and expanding understandings of motherhood and mothers this handbook will be an essential multi faceted publication for researchers and students of film TV animation motherhood gender studies feminism ageing studies anthropology and sociology The Changing Face of Motherhood in Spain Catherine Bourland Ross, 2015-12-24 This book investigates the perceptions of motherhood in Spanish author Luc a Etxebarria's fiction and offers views of the importance of motherhood in society Traditional expectations for women as mothers persist despite the fact that they no longer match Spain's cultural and economic reality These issues of gender equality and societal perceptions stand out in the novels and screenplays of Etxebarria Her work at times resists and at times affirms patriarchal constructs associated with traditional Spanish motherhood and ultimately I argue enacts the very complexity of contemporary Spanish motherhood ideals By showing the tension between the past constructs of the mother and the possible future outcomes of gender equality Etxebarria's works navigate the complexity between past and future illuminating the current and future uncertainties and the ambivalent nature of change Each chapter views motherhood from a different perspective and focuses on particular works of Etxebarria Through the depiction of a variety of mother characters these different perspectives as showcased in Etxebarria's narratives together compose an understanding of Spanish maternal identity Italian

Motherhood on Screen Giovanna Faleschini Lerner, Maria Elena D'Amelio, 2017-10-14 This book is the first scholarly analysis that considers the specificity of situated experiences of the maternal from a variety of theoretical perspectives From Fertility Day to Family Day the concept of motherhood has been at the center of the public debate in contemporary Italy partly in response to the perceived crisis of the family the economic crisis and the crisis of national identity provoked by the forces of globalization and migration secularization and the instability of labor markets Through essays by an international cohort of established and emerging scholars this volume aims to read these shifts in cinematic terms How does Italian cinema represent negotiate and elaborate changing definitions of motherhood in narrative formal and stylistic terms The essays in this volume focus on the figures of working mothers women who opt for a child free adulthood single mothers ambivalent mothers lost mothers or imperfect mothers who populate contemporary screen narratives Mentioning the

Mothers Heather Wilson Meeks, 2013 Representations of the Mother-in-Law in Literature, Film, Drama, and Television Jo Parnell, 2018-08-03 This book is a comprehensive study of some ways of treating the subject that demonstrate new and unusual perspectives and provides a different approach to the popularly held views of mothers in law and that further address these works as popular culture and as texts in their own right from within the framework of literary theory and as works that demonstrate the ability to reach and connect with and satisfy both the general reader the student and the scholar from all levels and walks of life Imagining Motherhood in the Twenty-First Century Valerie Heffernan, Gay

Wilgus, 2020-12-17 Images representations and constructions of mothers have historically shaped and continue to shape the way we imagine the institution of motherhood and the experience of mothering The various contributions included in this volume consider the diversity of maternal images and narratives that circulate in literature the arts and popular culture and analyse how they reflect on and influence the cultural meaning of motherhood in the contemporary era Mindful of the fact that the images of motherhood that we see in popular media on television and in literature are not mere background noise to our daily lives the various chapters explore how they influence our understanding of what it means to be a mother affect our expectations of motherhood and of mothers frame our experience of mothering and even inform our reproductive decisions Including insights from media studies cultural studies literary studies and the performing and visual arts this book explores how engaging with diverse representations of mothers and mothering contributes to a broader and deeper interdisciplinary understanding of how motherhood is constructed in our time The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Women A Cultural Review Motherhood in Contemporary International Perspective Fabienne Portier-Le Cocq, 2019-08-30 Divided into 15 chapters this book provides the reader with an insight into certain representations of mothers and motherhood in history and today's societies in some areas of the world notably in Britain and Asia Key facts about the history of motherhood are presented together with the use of very recent notions and phrases portraying good and bad mothers An analysis of the concepts of naming and blaming along with regret with respect to mothers in 21st century societies provides food for thought Other issues addressed are varied and numerous the politics of early intervention feminist critique mothers with disabilities and mothers of disabled children incarcerated mothers surrogate mothers teenage mothers lesbian mothers and mothering in Eastern Asia namely in China Japan and Korea Interestingly both visual arts and literature play a crucial role in this analysis The publication will appeal to students academics researchers and the general public interested in and seeking to comprehend the shifts that have occurred over time in connection with the vast and inexhaustible subject of motherhood and mothers a private and public matter Readers are also provided with a rich reference section dealing with the latest publications on the issues tackled by prominent academics and researchers in human geography women's studies sociology gender studies contemporary history and the arts
