Political Economy of Power Sharing in Developing Countries Akietuwo Piribie Opuene Hart,2025-08-07 Political Economy of Power Sharing in Developing Countries is an in depth examination of factors that trigger the clamor for power sharing zoning and rotation in mostly developing countries These provocations include geographical ethnic and religious identity factors that can influence the political process in varying degrees from country to country The impact goes a long way in determining the stability and instability of the political process in various countries

The reasons for these differences and the impacts are a combination of the endogenous variables in the first instance which are the primary prompters Other elements which are the exogenous factors are secondary prompters When these converge they produce a peculiar impact in a given society based on the characteristic variables and the resulting outcome The new paradigm shifts in the agitation in developing countries is demonstrated by an elitist instrument of marginalization and self aggrandizement The masses are hoodwinked sensitized and manipulated through primal sentiment to support the elites in acquiring political power which in turn enables the acquisition of economic power Gender and Identity in Africa Mechthild Reh, Gudrun Ludwar-Ene, 1995 Pathways to Power Arjun Guneratne, Anita M. Weiss, 2013-12-19 Pathways to Power introduces the domestic politics of South Asia in their broadest possible context studying ongoing transformative social processes grounded in cultural forms In doing so it reveals the interplay between politics cultural values human security and historical luck While these are important correlations everywhere nowhere are they more compelling than in South Asia where such dynamic interchanges loom large on a daily basis Identity politics not just of religion but also of caste ethnicity regionalism and social class infuses all aspects of social and political life in the sub continent Recognizing this complex interplay this volume moves beyond conventional views of South Asian politics as it explicitly weaves the connections between history culture and social values into its examination of political life South Asia is one of the world's most important geopolitical areas and home to nearly one and a half billion people Although many of the poorest people in the world live in this region it is home also to a rapidly growing middle class wielding much economic power India Pakistan and Bangladesh together the successor states to the British Indian Empire the Raj form the core of South Asia along with two smaller states on its periphery landlocked Nepal and the island state of Sri Lanka Many factors bring together the disparate countries of the region into important engagements with one another forming an uneasy regional entity Contributions by Arjun Guneratne Christophe Jaffrelot Pratyoush Onta Haroun er Rashid Seira Tamang Shabnum Tejani and Anita M Weiss The Challenge of Religious Discrimination at the Dawn of the New Millennium Nazila Ghanea, 2004-02-01 The themes and issues explored in this book religion human rights politics and society could not be more relevant to the post 11 September 2001 world They lie at the heart of global political debate today The collection explores these issues after the passing of just over two decades from the adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Elimination of all Forms of Intolerance and Discrimination based on Religion or Belief That declaration set out minimum international standards for the elimination of such discrimination Sadly the challenge of intolerance on the basis of religion or belief continues to plague us and tackling it seems to have become increasingly entrenched The complexity of this phenomenon requires expertise from different quarters This collection draws from diplomatic activist and theological quarters and benefits from the analysis of scholars of law history religious studies and sociology The ten chapters of this collection examine the relationship between human rights law and religion offer a typology for the study of religious persecution problematise the consequences flowing from religious

Architecture and Urban Form in Kuala Lumpur Yat Ming Loo,2016-04-08 Kuala Lumpur the capital city of Malaysia is a former colony of the British Empire which today prides itself in being a multicultural society par excellence However the Islamisation of the urban landscape which is at the core of Malaysia s decolonisation projects has marginalised the Chinese urban spaces which were once at the heart of Kuala Lumpur Engaging with complex colonial and postcolonial aspects of the city from the British colonial era in the 1880s to the modernisation period in the 1990s this book demonstrates how Kuala Lumpur s urban landscape is overwritten by a racial agenda through the promotion of Malaysian Architecture including the world famous mega projects of the Petronas Twin Towers and the new administrative capital of Putrajaya Drawing on a wide range of Chinese community archives interviews and resources the book illustrates how Kuala Lumpur s Chinese spaces have been subjugated This includes original case studies showing how the Chinese re appropriated the Kuala Lumpur old city centre of Chinatown and Chinese cemeteries as a way of contesting state s hegemonic national identity and ideology This book is arguably the first academic book to examine the relationship of Malaysia s large Chinese minority with the politics of architecture and urbanism in Kuala Lumpur It is also one of the few academic books to situate the Chinese diaspora spaces at the centre of the construction of city and nation By including the spatial contestation of those from the margins and their resistance against the state ideology this book proposes a recuperative urban and architectural history seeking to revalidate the marginalised spaces of minority community and re script them into the narrative of the postcolonial nation state
