Reproductive Rights In Practice A Feminist Report On The Quality Of Care:

From Population Control To Reproductive Health Mohan Rao,2004 Annotation Reproductive Freedom Maja Kirilova Eriksson,2021-09-27 This is the first book to provide a comprehensive investigation of reproductive freedom in the light of contemporary international law The author discusses reproductive freedom in the context of feminist legal theory international human rights and humanitarian law This holistic approach makes the book unique and enhances its value as a comprehensive resource on the most challenging and contentious issues of our time i e legal abortion medically assisted reproduction surrogate motherhood forced pregnancy during armed conflicts and many others The author s aim is to advance current debates about gender equality and reproductive rights and to deepen the analysis of the legal concepts involved In surveying the international commitment to women s rights and examining critically the way in which international global and regional human rights bodies and ad hoc international tribunals deal with issues pertaining to reproductive freedom and sexual violence this volume makes clear to what extent contemporary international law norms may be used as a tool for change and how they need to be adapted to meet the special needs of girls and women worldwide Finally the book explores what improvements are necessary to prevent and protect adolescents women and men against violation of their reproductive freedom

Managing Reproductive Life Soraya Tremayne,2001 In 1999 the Institute of Social and Cultural Anthropology at the University of Oxford held a workshop on the social dynamics of human reproduction This volume contains 12 papers from scholars in Britain and the U S that were originally presented at that workshop Topics include for example motherhood among young prostitutes in Thailand the meaning of children in Hong Kong and the reproductive health of refugees Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Reproducing Inequities M. Catherine Maternowska,2006 In Reproducing Inequities M Catherine Maternowska argues that we too easily overlook the political dynamics that shape choices about family planning Through a detailed study of the attempt to provide modern contraception in the community of Cit Soleil Maternowska demonstrates the complex interplay between local and global politics that so often thwarts well intended policy initiatives

Policy Discourse and the Paradigm Shift in Reproductive Health in Bangladesh Tehmina Ghafur,2017-08-21 The reproductive health care program of Bangladesh is still striving to address the very basic reproductive health issues of its people Reproductive health services here still confronting issues surrounding availability Equality issues like accessibility to and quality of services are far away from the reach of the majority of people This book analyses the policy discourses and the paradigm shift relating to reproductive health care in Bangladesh It explores the extent to which the policy frameworks reflect a paradigm shift towards a rights based reproductive health program In so doing it also investigates how the complementarities and inconsistencies within the policy frameworks have affected reproductive health through the availability of accessibility to and quality of reproductive health services in Bangladesh

Health Policy in a Globalising World Kelley Lee, Kent Buse, Suzanne Fustukian, 2002-08-08 Increasing recognition of the impact that globalisation may be having on public health has led to widespread concern about the risks arising from emerging and re emerging diseases environmental degradation and demographic change This book argues that health policy making is being affected by globalisation and that these effects are in turn contributing to the kind of global health issues being faced today The book explores how the actors context processes and content of health policy are changing as a result of globalisation raising concerns about growing differences in who can influence health policy what priorities are set what interventions are deemed appropriate and ultimately who enjoys good and bad health Bringing together a distinguished international group of contributors this book covers a comprehensive range of topics and geographic regions and will be invaluable for all those interested in health social and public policy and globalisation

Bodies of Technology Ann

Rudinow Saetnan, Nelly Oudshoorn, Marta Stefania Maria Kirejczyk, 2000 This work is based on a concern for women s health and autonomy and on the premise that technology and society mutually shape one another A basic question is one of cultural appropriation Do technologies take on different shapes different practices and have different impacts as they spread from one place to another By juxtaposing a number of culturally and historically contextualized studies of similar technologies the editors demonstrate that although technologies globalize by spreading among cultures they are also localized by the cultures they encounter
