Messa da requiem Ferdinando Bertoni, The present edition is the second volume of three Collectively these editions form a critical anthology of requiem masses composed by musicians of St Mark s Venice over a long period extending from the late sixteenth century to the closing years of the nineteenth century The featured musician of this volume is Ferdinando Bertoni 1725 1813 who was much celebrated during the classical period as a composer of both sacred and secular music and who gained significant exposure as the master of music at St Mark s Most of the music in the edition can be firmly connected to the funeral of the heroic Admiral Angelo Emo 1731 92 which was held in St Mark s during 1792 Emo was no ordinary Venetian he was Venice s last admiral to lead La Serenissima into battle and a Procuratore de ultra of St Mark s a position placing him in the tier immediately below the ruling doge Lodovico Manin The music assembled here for the first time in a modern critical edition is a valuable relic of this temporal juncture in the history not only of the ducal church but of Venice broadly The requiem stands as one of the last outstandingly sumptuous works performed at the ducal church before Venice s fall from grace in the closing years of the eighteenth century With its kaleidoscopic mixture of styles the work may sit comfortably as the showpiece in a concert program or authentically as the musical backbone of an ecclesiastical setting as it was originally intended Ecclesiastical Review ... Herman Joseph Heuser,1915 The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles
